FAIRY PARTY CELEBRATES TENTH BIRTHDAY A lovely party was that given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Semenz, 1308 Acacia avenue, when Magdalene celebrated her tenth birthday with a fairy party. Garbed as a fairy queen and wearing a crown of silver, Magdalene touched each of her little guests with her magic wand, placed a colored hat on each head and gave each the name of a fairy princess, such as butterfly and lily-cup, for the afternoon. Fairy games were entertaining and prizes were awarded to Betty Hatten, Rhea May Haeffel and Anna Watson.

Refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated in green, orchid and yellow. A fairy doll, with half of gold, crown of silver and dress of harmonizing colors, carried the centerpiece from which ribbons extended to miniature candleholders with candles in the same colors. Nut cups had small fairies seated on them holding cards on which the name of the fairy queen or fairy princess was written. The birthday cake was decorated in yellow roses and orchid swags with green leaves. Those who attended the party were Ruth Colburn, Rose Marie Disario, Rhea May Haeffel, Betty Hatten, Mary Intermill, Dorothy Intermill, Mary Irvin, Margaret Irvin, Doraline Scivner, Margaret Suttle, Anna Watson and the little hostess.
