PREPARE FOR RECORD VOTE AT PRIMARIES

Democrats Lead in Registration of Million and a Quarter

With midnight tonight, July 19, the deadline for voters to register for the August primaries, the latest figures available from the office of the registrar, W. M. Kerr, showed a grand total of 1,283,285 registrations for Los Angeles county. The Democrats lead by a majority of 87,399 over the Republicans.

There are 637,958 Democrats and 550,559 Republicans registered. In Los Angeles city there are 377,864 Democrats and 295,986 Republicans. Los Angeles city has 731,015 voters and the remainder of the county 552,270.

The board of supervisors is to accommodate what is expected to be a record-breaking vote at the primaries, August 28. Three thousand voting booths have been ordered from the Sun Lumber Company. This company made a low bid of $3493 for the booths, which was $400 less than a bid made by the mechanical department of the county.

The Plumbing Sheet Metal Products Company offered a low bid of $2381 for 1000 ballot boxes and this was accepted by the board.

Another phase of the preparation is the mailing of more than 1,300,000 sample ballots to voters. It will take 300 persons 15 days to complete this big mailing job. The ballots are to be sent out between August 3 and 23.

The work of preparing the ballots has been greater than ever this year, according to Registrar Kerr, because of the increased number of candidates who have filed nominating petitions. The race for state, county and municipal offices has been entered by 1800 candidates.

Kerr also pointed out that it was necessary to print 3607 different polling slips for the same number of precincts in the county.

SOUTH TORRANCE RESIDENTS WAIT APPROVAL OF SEWERS

Sanitation District No. 5 Applies to SERA For Labor Costs in Construction of Trunk Line Two Miles Long

Approval of the SERA was being awaited this week by County Sanitation District No. 5 upon its application for approximately $30,000 in labor to construct the South Torrance trunk sewer, between Torrance and Lomita.

Nearly two miles in length, the proposed sanitary sewer will serve several hundred dwellings, according to sanitation district engineers. The sewer would begin at 228th and Meyler streets, and proceed south and west in a zig-zag course to Narbonne avenue and 233rd street, according to the application.

Materials for construction of the sewer are to be furnished by the sanitation district, which also serves Gardena, Hawthorne, and Inglewood and adjacent communities. The SERA is asked to furnish only the labor. The pipe would be 15 inches in diameter. It is contended by engineers that considerably more merit than a tree-trimming project as it will be of more lasting benefit, and be especially appreciated by property owners who would only be required to pay for their house connections.

Favorable action is expected momentarily from the SERA. A. K. Varson, chief engineer of the county sanitation districts, was scheduled to return Wednesday morning from a business trip to Washington, D. C. in the interests of obtaining funds for the sanitation districts. $2,750,000 White

Assessed Valuation Figures For Torrance Show Drop of $190,850

The new total assessed valuation for Torrance for 1934-35 is $16,216,750, was announced today by Ed Hopkins, county assessor.

This is a reduction of $190,850 over the 1933-34 total assessed valuation of $16,407,600, or 1.16 per cent.

These valuations are the non-operative values only, that is, the valuations to be used by the county board of supervisors. The various school districts and others are on a basis for levying the new taxes.

Analysis of new assessed valuation totals for the entire county show that the loss in valuation is principally in buildings, on which was written depreciation for age. They also show that there was a heavy increase in personal property.

The increase in personal property means that there is more property in the county than there was last year and does not mean that the personal property in the county last year was increased in value, Hopkins stated.

HEN DOES HER PART TO END DEPRESSION

Out at the C. E. Harshman ranch at 213th and Grace streets, Keystone, they call her the hen that laid the egg. For a long time Mr. Harshman has noticed that one of his Rhode Island Red hens has daily been laying an egg with a double yolk.

Yesterday an unusual amount of cackling summoned the owner of the hen to her nest where he found that Biddy had presented him with an egg of enormous size, which she seemed extremely proud. The egg was about the size of a good teacup, and seemed unusually heavy, so Mr. Harshman carefully broke a hole in one end of it to see just what Biddy had done in the egg-laying line this time. Out of it he poured the contents, white, and yolk, a single yolk this time, but the egg was still pretty heavy and Harshman looked into the shell. To his great surprise he found inside the shell another egg, complete as to shell and contents. "If I hadn't seen it, I wouldn't have believed it, you know," he said.

ACCIDENT AT MILL CAUSES SHORT LAYOFF

300 Men Take Two Weeks Vacation Awaiting Temporary Repairs

An unfortunate accident at the Columbia Steel Company plant at Torrance late Monday night necessitated a temporary layoff of approximately 300 of the plant's 1600 employees until temporary repairs can be made to the gear reduction unit of the massive sheet mill drive mechanism. While more than 200 men are employed in the sheet mill, a considerable number of them were transferred to other departments of the plant which are operating as usual. Plant officials estimate that at least two weeks will be required to make such

Debate Proposed Highway Control Plan At Meeting

President McIntyre Presides At Interesting Meeting At Chamber

The first membership meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at which its newly-elected president, Sherwood McIntyre, presided Tuesday evening, proved to be a very interesting session and was attended by about 40 people.

In his opening remarks, President McIntyre stated that the presence of representative citizens in the audience was an incentive to the directors to "carry on", and he reminded his hearers that the responsibility of taking an interest in civic affairs was as much that of the members generally as it was of the chamber directors.

Highlight of the evening was a discussion of the plan proposed by the Southern California Automobile Club of placing all highways in the state under the state highway commission. E. E. East, chief engineer of the Auto Club, championed and explained the proposed plan, and Joseph A. Mellen, highway engineer of the county regional planning commission, spoke in opposition. Mellen emphasized that at present only a small portion of the gas tax collected from Southern California motorists is returned to the Southland, and he feared that if the entire control of all highways was given to the northern controlled state senate that Southern California would not get its just share of benefits.

The Los Angeles county board of supervisors recently passed a strong resolution in opposition to the plan proposed by the Auto Club.

Major Frank E. Benedict, lecturer, traveller and former air service officer, spoke in support of the N. R. A. He severely criticized "chiselers" stating that the man who sells his merchandise below cost cannot pay decent wages and give his employees decent working hours. He also assailed the buying public for its practice of driving long distances away from their local communities in order to save a few pennies on their purchases.

Local Democrats Organize To Help Creel Candidacy

Local Democrats were active this week whipping together a local organization to promote the candidacy of George Creel for governor, whom they point to as a real Democrat. Plans were being completed for the opening of a local headquarters in the downtown section of Torrance, with Bob Lessing in charge. Ray Hawkins, chairman of the Creel campaign in the 68th assembly district, assisted in the organization work.

Sponsors of Mr. Creel's candidacy are pointing out that when President Roosevelt wanted a director of the Pacific coast for the national program, that he selected Mr. Creel, appointing him to the most responsible positions at his command, and that his election as governor will be definitely word to the nation that California is definitely in step with the times.

His platform has been analyzed as being the most outspoken on state problems, and in his public addresses he has asked his hearers to consider the extravagant declarations of some of the candidates and apply to them and their programs the test of whether the plans are "workable."

Creel-for-Governor organizations have been formed in virtually every community of the state, led by leading Democrats and practically the entire group which carried the standard for President Roosevelt two years ago.
