SOCIETY Past Matrons' and Patrons Honored At O. E. S.

One hundred and twenty-five persons attended the meeting of Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Thursday evening, when past matrons and patrons of the order filled the chairs.

Following the meeting students from Angeles School of Dancing presented an interesting program. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall where green and white formed the color scheme. The matrons and patrons entered the dining room in the order in which they served the chapter, while members of the committee sang a song especially written for the occasion by Mrs. Lillian Dye. Mesdames Cleora Stanger, Clemma Watson, Jean Guyan, Persla Fess, Lola May Tomkins, Lillian Shriver, May Sidebotham, Juliet Johnson, Edith Kasper, Carrie Parks, past matrons of the chapter, were each presented with a lovely Mexican drawn work dresser set. They in turn presented the worthy matron, Gwendolyn Knudsen, with a personal gift. Messrs. Fay L. Parks, Roy Winters, Perry G. Briney, John H. Fess, Kenneth Mitchell, E. N. Tomkins, Willis M. Brooks, past patrons of the chapter, were presented with lovely silk handkerchiefs.

JEAN LOUISE CELEBRATES HER THIRD BIRTHDAY Quite the nicest children's party in some time was that given by Mrs. Wilson Woodburn, 1961 West 82nd street, at the family home Monday afternoon. The third birthday of her daughter, Jean Louise, was the occasion of the celebration. A huge birthday cake, beautifully decorated, and ice cream were served to the little guests. A basket covered with cellophane was placed in the center of the table. Streamers extended to each of the little guests and when they pulled the streamers, bags of candy and nuts were tied to the ends. Games in the garden furnished plenty of jollity. In the party were Nancy Ann Whyte, Wilson Woodburn, James Woodburn, Eugene Butler, all of Torrance; Lona De Woodburn, of Santa Monica; Elmine Carmichael, Dolores Demesries, Dorothy Watt and Carol Louise Robinson, of Los Angeles; and Isabelle McCloud and Mary Ann of Alhambra.
