Lucille Lewellen Heads Legion Auxiliary Unit

Lucille Lewellen was installed as president of Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, in an impressive ceremony at Legion hall Monday evening. Mary Starkey, nineteenth district president of the American Legion Auxiliaries, was the installing officer. She was assisted by members of Pico Unit drill team.

Other officers installed at this time included Jean Patterson, junior past president; Olive Lee, first vice president; Monte Mann, second vice president; Sylvia Nelson, secretary; Virginia Scott, treasurer; Janet Woodington, chaplain; Roxie Sletch, historian; Alma Goddard, sergeant-at-arms; Edna Wilkes, Gertrude Ralston, Lucie Smith and Ann Gallucci, executive board.

Following the installation service, Mrs. Patterson, retiring president, was presented with a past president's pin, and Lucille Lewellen with a past secretary's pin. Mrs. Maude DeIninger, retiring first vice president, who has assumed so many extra duties during the past year, was presented with a leather bag.

Mrs. Lewellen spoke briefly and appointed the following officers and chairmen: Louise Jensen, marshal and rehabilitation; Gertrude Ralston, community service; Maude DeIninger, education; Nora DeIninger, Fidelity; Roxie Sletch, press and radio; Alma Smith, Americanism and national defense; Elizabeth Drake, legislation; Monte Mann, sick and relief; Jean Patterson, child welfare; Eloda Barkdull, past president's party.

Mrs. Starkey, nineteenth district president, American Legion Auxiliary, and Charles Smith, commander of Bert S. Crossland Post 170, spoke briefly after which the meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served and dancing furnished entertainment.

AL. A. GROUP FETE
RETIRING PRESIDENT
 Mrs. E. L. Patterson, retiring president of Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, was guest of honor when officers and chairmen who had served with her during the past year entertained with a luncheon and bridge party at Britany Itohen in Long Beach, Tuesday.

The long table was attractively decorated with centerpieces of lavender and white water lilies in that green container. Covers were placed for the honoree, and entertainers Lucille Lewellen, Maude DeIninger, Roxie Sletch, Dorothy Ralston, Dorothy Jamieson, Edna Wilkes, Marie Margier, Ann Gallucci, Elizabeth Drake and Mrs. DeIninger.

Mrs. Patterson was presented with a beautiful pottery vase, a gift from the group. A prize for high score in bridge was awarded Mrs. Lucille Lewellen.

HOUSE-WARMING SURPRISES
R. AND MRS. LEWIS

Notice to Parents
 The City of Torrance has provided playgrounds for your children at convenient locations. These playgrounds are supervised by workers provided by the S.E.R.A. In sending your children to these playgrounds you are assured that they will be properly supervised and you are also providing work for those who are temporarily unemployed.

On some of these playgrounds will be found swings, slides, teeter-totters and equipment for games such as croquet, baseball, shuffle-board, etc.

Sloyd, piano, dramatics, and tap-dancing are taught at the Recreational Center on Cabrillo avenue. Beach parties are held weekly, a bus provided by the city furnishing transportation. Other activities include wiener bakes, pet shows, theatre parties, etc.

We cordially invite your inspection and will welcome any suggestions.

There are no provisions for children under 6 years of age.

Playgrounds are located as follows:
 Recreational Center, 1316 Cabrillo Ave.
 Torrance Municipal Ball Park
 Post and Carson
 Madrid and Dominguez
 Waverly
 Pueblo

The two children with the highest attendance at the end of the month will be given a prize.

JOSEPHINE I. ODELL,
 Supt. of Playgrounds.
