Mobilgas Users Purchase Tenth
Part of Gasoline Sold In U. S.

Ninety-three million miles is approximately the distance from the earth to the sun. It also happens to be less than one-thousandth part of the distance a car could have travelled, averaging 12 miles to the gallon of fuel, on the gasoline sold in the United States during the first six months of 1934.

This startling fact was revealed here yesterday by L. T. Barnes, district manager for General Petroleum Corporation, marketers of Mobiloil and Mobilgas. During the first half of the current year,

"This totals $156,518,000 gallons," Barnes stated, "and a simple calculation discloses that this was actually enough to send a car traveling 12 miles to the gallon,

"The astonishing thing is that of this ocean of gasoline, one gallon out of every 10 was of one brand only, Mobilgas, which means

Mr. Barnes added that this record was made the more phenom-

Rehabilitation The Objective In Self-Help Cooperative Units

Rehabilitation is the eventual objective of self-help cooperative units, and in the movement may lie a permanent solution to the problem of how to support workers displaced by industry and commerce. This is the view held by Winslow Carlton, director of cooperatives under S.E.R.A.
