American Legion Auxiliary News

Thursday evening, November 15, is the date reserved by the American Legion Auxiliary for their Spanish dinner. True to their custom, the auxiliary ladies will serve a tasty Spanish dinner at a moderate price. Spanish waitresses will serve the food and an all-Spanish program will be presented. Serving will begin promptly at 5:30 p. m. Everyone is welcome and may secure tickets from members of the auxiliary.

One of the peepiest meetings of the year was held in the American Legion hall, Monday evening. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Lucille Lewellen. A new plan to keep the members interested was submitted by one of the members and after being adopted by the organization promises to be a most enthusiastic venture. The auxiliary has been divided into two teams. Each team will select a captain, who will try to promote perfect attendance. Extra points are obtained by keeping dues paid, reinstating old members and securing new ones. The team having the highest score on the first of March will be feted by the losers. Members have been notified which team they belong to and everyone is trying to help their team win.

The auxiliary will co-operate with the Bert S. Crossland Post in the observance of Armistice Day, Sunday, November 11.

Philharmonic Symphony Season Opens November 15

Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, which has enriched the community life of Southern California for the past 15 years, will open its sixteenth season November 15, sponsored by Southern California Symphony Association, with the celebrated Otto Klemperer, conducting. The noted maestro will return this week from New York where he made new triumphs as guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony. Two standard classics and the first western performances of a modern composition will be played by the orchestra. The campaign to raise $125,000 Philharmonic Continuation fund will be maintained during the early part of the season. (Insert: Mr. Klemperer)

RELIEF CORPS DINNER

Seventy-five persons attended the chicken dinner Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Lilligale, 1870 21st street, were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when a group of friends from the Christian church gave a party in their honor at their home.

LUTHERAN LADIES HOSTESSES TO INGLEWOOD

Lutheran Ladies Aid Society was hostess to 20 ladies of the Inglewood Lutheran church when they entertained them in the church parlors Monday afternoon. A musical program was presented, which included a vocal solo by Mrs. Genevieve Nelson, piano duets by Mrs. Chris Dobrick and Mrs. Ed Schwartz and a vocal solo by Mrs. Chris Dobrick, accompanied by Mrs. Schwartz at the piano.

Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge. On the committee were Mesdames D. Mearning and E. Jones.

Woman's Club Presents Interesting Program

Columbus with his men and three ships ready to set sail for the new land. The second represented the Indians waiting on the shores for the white men to land. Six side tables had as their center pieces replicas of California missions surrounded by covered wagons and Indians. Indian handwork of all kinds was displayed in the clubhouse with Navajo rugs and fancy baskets hung on the walls.

A delicious Indian luncheon was served by Mrs. Carrie Parks and her committee. Mrs. O. W. Hudson, club president, seated the ladies after the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Reynolds, secretary of the Harbor District Red Cross, was the luncheon speaker.

The afternoon program arranged by Mrs. Juliette Johnson, program chairman, included a talk by Mrs. E. J. Rodden, state and federation chairman for Indian welfare. She presented Miss Secan Hontzle (Yellow Flower), a member of the Hopi Indian tribe of northern Arizona, who was delightful in her presentation of Indian songs. She accompanied herself with harmonium. Mrs. Burgess, also of Indian blood, was introduced and responded briefly. Mrs. George Elder, club Bible chairman, talked on "Women of the Bible." Mrs. Hudson told that club women played a most important part in the election of Governor Frank Merriam in that 85 per cent of all California club women had supported him at the polls Tuesday. Mrs. Odia Vans, principal of Fern avenue school, was introduced and responded with a brief talk.

Announcement that the club will hold a dessert bridge and corset show at the clubhouse, Wednesday, November 21, was greeted with real enthusiasm. Mrs. J. R. Wilkes was named chairman for the affair.
