TORRANCE WINS FIRST FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

TARTARS DEFEAT NARBONNE FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

Clean, Fast Game Friday Gives Torrance the Edge Over Traditional Rivals, 13-0; Four Straight Victories Puts Local Outfit in Top Spot in League

It's a long worm that has no turning and a tough jinx that can't be broken. The Narbonne Gauchos found that out Friday afternoon when the lowly worm that used to be the Torrance Tartars turned on them, and the jinx that used to rest on the Tartar shoulders flew off, perhaps never to return.

The Gauchos fought hard but Torrance fought harder. The Gauchos tried to gallop but the Tartars were in the saddle. The net result of an afternoon of skill work, foot work and pounding was Torrance 13, Gauchos 0. For the first time in eight years the Tartars dared to look the scoreboard in the face. And for the first time in the history of the football relations between the two schools the Gauchos were in the hole.

As had been freely predicted in these columns before the game, the Gauchos were no set-up. They gave all they had and against any other team the results might have been far different. In other years the Tartars have had their weak points that the Gauchos were quick to sense and turn to their own advantage. But not this year. The best trust that manned the Tartar line was as solid as a new gold tooth. The backfield steadily wore down the Gauchos with their line plunges and end runs.

Both teams stuck to straight football for their offense and only once did Narbonne try a trick play, which was a dandy but failed by inches. The Tartars were almost caught flat-footed when the Gauchos started their play and called the ball back because Gould was offside. While the phony offense among the Gauchos was going on the Tartars raised up from their positions to see what was going on and to wait for Narbonne to huddle and call signals over again. Without waiting for the huddle the ball was snapped in a flat pass to right end but he was nailed after a one-yard gain.

In the second quarter the Torrance power plays got to rolling. Wilson plunged over for the first leg of the game. The conversion kick was blocked. Javens took the ball over in the third quarter and this time Adzovich booked a lovely one squarely through the uprights. The game all the way through was one of the most satisfactory to watch that has been played here. Very few men were injured and none so seriously that they could not go on after a milder rest with the exception of Walker of Lomita who was stretched out three times and finally had to be assisted off the field in obvious distress. Play was fast and clean and the interest was there no tiresome ways.

Gauchos line men attracted considerable notice and caused amused comment by their practice of resting with their heads on the ground and their capes in the air, for what purpose the puzzled fans could not make out.

All in all, the game was the most colorful and exciting of the year and all hands left the field satisfied that each team had played its best. The Gauchos were philosophical in defeat, the Tartars sportsmanlike in victory.

Business was practically suspended downtown after 2:30 while the fans were watching their team win their first championship. Lomita sent over 800 rosters, including student body, teachers and local supporters.

McQueen, one of the Gauchos first string ends, received a big welcome from the Lomita crowd when he came on crutches to sit on the bench with his mates. McQueen had played for two weeks with a broken bone in his leg which finally benched him just prior to the Leuzinger game. The Torrance crowd also gave the big colored boy a rousing hand when the announcement regarding his injury was made from the sound truck.

Added interest in the game was furnished by the broadcasting of plays through the medium of the Miller Sound Advertising Company's truck. Due to the courtesy of the Torrance Theatre, this feature was secured.

A nice gesture on the part of the Narbonne squad towards their men was noted. Every time a player left the field the whole squad on the bench led by Coach Ben Comrada stood up and applauded to show their appreciation of the fighting qualities of the Gauchos.

GAUCHO QUARTERBACK PLAYS WITH CRACKED RIB

Homer Cheek, quarterback for the Narbonne Gauchos, suffered a cracked rib during the Tartar-Gauchos game Friday, but played on through the afternoon without reporting it to Coach Comrada. He received the injury during the first half. Aside from this mishap, no other players on either team were badly hurt.

HATS OFF TO THE NEW MARINE LEAGUE CHAMPS!

Torrance trounced the former league champions, the Narbonne Gauchos by a small score of 13-0, but by a large advantage on the field of play. If the Warner system of scoring had been adopted this year the score would have been 33-3 in Torrance's favor. The Torrance fighting Tartars rolled up 20 first downs while the Narbonne Gauchos had to be satisfied with only 3. Torrance made 13 first downs in the first half and 7 in the last half. Narbonne only made 1 in the first half and 2 in the last, quarter when Coach Donahue chose to give some of his second string men a chance to play.

Other figures show that Torrance was by far the superior and well balanced team on the field. The Tartars made a total of 309 yards with 17 carries, only ran up 59 hard earned yards. "Slav" Adzovich, fullback for the Tartars made more yards on running plays than the entire Narbonne team. Ted was credited with 79 yards, not had for one afternoon's work. Narbonne only gained one yard via the air route. Narbonne took 9 timeouts, while the Tartars took only 5. These 9 timeouts cost Narbonne 15 yards.

Harold Watson, Jack Javens and Ted "Slav" Adzovich will have their names printed in the annals of local school history as heroes.

Watson and Javens both scored touchdowns and Adzovich is the only Torrance man to ever convert a goal against Narbonne. It would be hard to try and pick the outstanding player and star of the game as all of the boys who were privileged to enter the game were playing outstanding football.

The largest crowd ever to witness any Torrance event was present. Over 2000 persons were present to see this never-to-be-forgotten game. The first time in history that a Torrance team ever beat Lomita in a league game. The first time in history that a Torrance team ever won a championship in football or ever came near to winning one. This is the reason for a larger crowd. Every boy loves a winner and champion, but we to him who falls off the tower of fame.

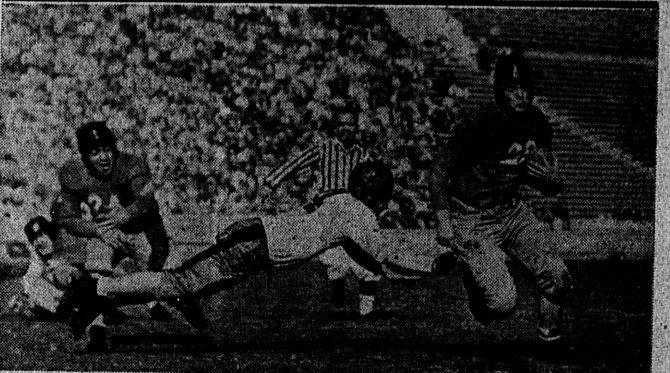

The Narbonne team played one of the cleanest games that has ever been seen on a local field. These boys were fighting with their backs to the wall all the time, but never once forgot that the most important thing in all athletic events is sportsmanship. Congratulations to the Narbonne Gauchos and to their great coach, Ben Comrada. You have won the hearts of all who witnessed your defeat. L. Savant, tackle, A. Rider, left half and H. Cheek, quarterback were the outstanding players of the Gauchos team.

The cross country run between halves was the first time that an event of this kind was ever tried at Torrance high school. From all indications it was a big success. The Torrance Kiwanis Club were the donors of a large trophy to the student body of the school. Louis Zamperini was the winner of this event with about 300 yards to spare. Louie came down the home stretch with all the sprint he had in reserve after running a fast 1 1/2 miles. Louie's time for the event was 7 minutes, 13 and 2-10 seconds. Very fast time for so early in the season. Next to finish was Alfred Bunje with Alfred Speed and Clarence Bay finishing second and third. David Clark finished last, but should receive a lot of credit for not dropping out after losing so much ground early in the race. Ribbons were awarded to the first three places. It looks like Torrance will have a very good chance to finish up near the top of the list in the Annual A. A. U. Southern California cross country run this winter.

Can you imagine a Torrance football team in the play-off for the city championship. Well it is the truth, they are to represent the Marine League in a series of football games to determine the best team in the Los Angeles school system. Tomorrow the Tartars pack their equipment and journey over to South Gate, winners of the Pacific League. South Gate is undefeated in their league as Torrance is in the Marine League. This should be a good game and the local people will be doing the local team an honor if they turn out and give them that necessary backing that they need. Torrance should win this game by a small margin.

Stanford Upsets U. C. L. A. to Keep Record Intact

Stanford's big red machine swept over U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles Saturday to emerge with a 27 to 9 victory. "Bones" Hamilton, Stanford fullback, carrying the ball, nearly got away in this picture, but was stopped by Capt. Ransom (Pants) Livsey of the Bruins. Alvinza, Stanford quarterback, makes a vain effort to block out the Uclan captain as he tackled Hamilton.

Armistice Day Program Held At Ascot Track

11 Entries For 111-Lap Main Event; Series of Match Races Planned

C. N. P. A., Inc., Service LOS ANGELES—The Legion Ascot Speedway officials have arranged a big Armistice Day program to be run next Sunday afternoon.

Armistice Day being the eleventh day of the eleventh month the racing committee will carry the "eleven" idea through the program.

The main event will be 111 laps and there will be 11 entries. Two 11-lap heats will be run to select the main event field and there will be an 11-lap consolation race. Speedway officials are considering a series of match races to be run off during the next few weeks. Practically every star is willing to sign up for match events. Rex Mays is particularly anxious to meet Floyd Roberts. Al Gordon is more than willing to hook up with either Roberts or Mays. Red Clark has shown a world of interest in football and would be a big card in match events.

Absentees From Range Practice Given 30 Days

Due to the interest in election affairs, attendance at the meeting of the Revolver and Rifle Association called for Tuesday night was small and matters of business which had been planned for action were put over until the next meeting which will be held Monday, December 3.

Scovell Mount Stepped Up For Midget Racing

Swanson and Mills Will Have Hot Battle to Hold Lead Friday Night

The battle of the "mighty midgets" will be on full blast Friday night during the running of the weekly speed carnival of midget automobile short track thrillers at Motospeedway, the popular English type flat "fifth" on Long Beach boulevard, just South of Compton.

It will be Bob Swanson vs. Curly Mills throughout the evening of ten races, with the two leaders expected to battle each other. Fate and circumstances no less than three times.

Competition for the "mighty midget" racing twins will be hotter than ever with "Pop" Collins, leader of the outboard racing faction, introducing a vastly improved "super outboard" motor for Shorty Swallow's mount. No. 7 racer.

COLUMBIA BASEBALL LEAGUE OPENS WITH EIGHT TEAMS

First Games Played Last Saturday On Grounds North of Plant; Big Crowd Attracted to Watch Sport Sunday Morning

The new Columbia Steel inter-departmental baseball league opened last Saturday morning at the company baseball field just behind the mill grounds. Four games were played during the week-end, two on Saturday and two Sunday. The policy will be to start the first game at 10:00 a. m. and the second will be played following completion of the first game. A schedule has been arranged with each team playing eight games and will end December 16.

On Saturday the opening game was between the Foundry and the Rolling Mills and it was a corker. The lead changed five times but the Rolling Mill finally came from behind and took the Foundry by the score of 17 to 16. What a shock to the Foundry boys as they were conceded to be the class of the league. In the second game between the Warehouse and the Foundry, the Warehouse scored six times to sew up the game. The second game, between the Open Hearth and the Sheet Mill, "Daubers," was a walk away for the Open Hearth by the score of 13 to 0. This was true to form as the Open Hearth has one of the best teams in the league, having won the cup during play two years ago.

Four games will be played over next week-end, the first game Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock, with a second game immediately following the completion of the first. On Sunday two more games will be played, the first at 10:00 a. m. and the second contest immediately following. The first game Saturday being the Foundry and Open Hearth together and one of the best games of the season is in store, as these two teams are probably the strongest of the lot.

Coach Donahue who has been keeping a stiff upper lip all season; finally broke down this week to admit a few injuries to his players. Carl Pazman, end, sprained an ankle a few days before the Narbonne game and was out of the line-up practically all afternoon. He was finally sent in for one or two plays, not because he was badly needed, but because Carl is the only man on the Tartar squad who had played against the Gauchos for three seasons.

However, Coach Donahue has wanted to make it four straight, and to have the honor of having played on the team which finally broke the Gauchos' winning streak. Ted Adzovich, McFadden, Selby and Watson are also on the injured list. Austin, who was hurt in the Gardena game and has been out with a broken nose and a bad gash on his cheek, has nearly recovered and will be able to play against South Gate. The others, it is hoped, will be recovered by that time also, as they have been big assets to the team.

DeBra High Man At Revolver Range

Gene DeBra was high man at revolver practice of the Torrance Revolver and Rifle Association Saturday afternoon, recording 215 on one round of 30 shots and 239 on the other. Harry Boynton was second with 209. Other records were Andrie, 205; Ashton, 185, and Russell, 121. On Sunday Andrie set the pace with 236; Travoli, 218; Eckersley, 211; Dolton, 182; Summers, 146, and Tiffany, 133.

Tartars Have Leg On Dartmouth Cup

The fighting Tartars now have a leg on the coveted Dartmouth cup, awarded each year to the school which wins the football championship in its league. Three wins makes the cup the permanent possession of the school. However, there is a string to the awarding of the cup, which is furnished by Dartmouth alumni. The team which wins the championship must maintain a certain
