Paris Styles

By MARY KNIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS. (U.P.)—A few Paris dressmakers have taken ideas from the stratosphere.
Now just take Schiaparelli, for example. In August she launched her "Stratosphere Blue" and her "Parachute" and "Conical" coats. Once in these you felt automatically that you should be off like a rocket somewhere and make all the people you passed stare in amazement. Now, however, they are properly toned down so that you are not at all conspicuous.

Schiaparelli herself says, as to silhouette, "A dominant feminine note emphasized by soft flowing lines, main trends continuing with new interpretations of parachute and cone effects. These are less sharply defined than in August. The accent is on the face, framing it with supple hat brims, draped scarfs and soft sleeves. The aim is complete symmetry of line from head to foot and an ultra feminine version of the already established silhouette."

TODAY'S FASHIONS
Schiaparelli picks modern fashion from the stratosphere with a new ethereal blue and parachute capes and coats.

MRS. EVANS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB
Mrs. G. S. Evans, 1824 Arlington avenue, entertained members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club with a luncheon at her home Tuesday. Bridge furnished diversion, and prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. L. L. Fordice and Mrs. Dunbar. Others who attended were Mesdames Frances Smith, Persia Fess, Anna McFarland, Sally West, Gwendolyn Knudsen, Stella Graham, Mary Lewis, Jannie Moore and Juliet Johnson.
