These words from III John are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The Lesson-Sermon denounces ancient and modern necromancy, alias mesmerism and hypnotism.
The Bible citations include this verse from Revelation, "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God; and the power of his Christ; for the hour of his marriage is at hand, which he hath betrothed for our God day and night."
One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states, "That false claim—that ancient belief, that old serpent whose name is devil (evil), claiming that there is intelligence in matter either to benefit or to injure man—pure delusion on the part of the serpent; it is cast out by Christ, Truth, the spiritual idea, and so proved to be powerless."

Month of Christmas Will Be Observed At Methodist Ch.
Next Sunday the Methodist Church will begin its annual observance of the Month of Christmas. It is the custom in this church to devote the entire month of December to the Christmas theme. Each Sunday throughout the month some phase of the Christmas theme will be presented. The pastor feels that the message of Christmas is too rich, and inspiring to be limited to one Sunday.
The Month of Christmas has therefore become one of the permanent features in the annual program of the local Methodist Church. Next Sunday morning Mr. Winkler will speak on the subject, "The Question of the Christmas Season." In the evening the orchestra will render the monthly concert and the pastor will review the book, "Precious Jeopardy," a very unusual Christmas story by Lloyd C. Douglas.

"WHERE INSURANCE IS NOT A SIDELINE"

Do You Operate Under A FICTITIOUS FIRM NAME?
If so, have you complied with the requirements of Section 2466 of the Civil Code, which says: "Every person and every partnership transacting business... under a fictitious firm name... must file... a certificate stating the name in full and the place of residence of such person and the members of such partnership... Such certificate must be published once a week for four consecutive weeks."
If you have neglected this procedure, do you realize that the name of your firm is not protected, and that you are not entitled to maintain suits in the courts of the State of California?
Take care of this important matter NOW by having this newspaper publish the certificate. Come into the office—it takes only a few minutes to have the form filled out and we will file the documents for you. The cost is small, but the filing and publication is something which should not be overlooked. Very small cost. You simply pay us a nominal publication charge plus $1 for the county filing fee.
