All Queens, but One to Rule

One of these girls will be queen of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, and that's what is bothering the selection committee. The harassed committeemen are stumped trying to pick the queen from this galaxy of pulchritude. The girls are, left to right: Emily Bettanier, Catherine Butler, Lynn Smith, Lucille Scott, Dorothy Bruce, Maribel Cowan and Shirley Chamberlain.

MURPHYS HOSTS AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Murphy, 1423 Anapola avenue, were hosts when they entertained with a pre-Christmas party at their home Saturday evening.

Contract bridge furnished diversion. A prize for high score was captured by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leslie, second high by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith, and a low was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Harder. Others in the party included Messrs. and Mesdames L. G. Barkdull, Chas. Myers, Ralph Riggs and Baker Smith.

MRS. MURPHY HOME AFTER SEVEN MONTHS

Mrs. J. C. Murphy, 1008 Anapola avenue, with her mother, Mrs. J. W. O'Neil, returned Friday evening from a sojourn in the east. Mrs. Murphy visited in Washington, D. C., stopped at the World's Fair in Chicago, visited in Dallas, Texas, and at Kansas City. Her many friends in Torrance are happy to welcome her home.

PENNSYLVANIA VISITOR HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marstellar, 2314 Sonoma avenue, have as their house guest for a time, Samuel Keats, of Sharpsville, Pennsylvania.

LUTHERAN LADIES' CHRISTMAS PARTY

The parish hall of the First Lutheran church, Sonoma avenue, was prettily decorated for the Christmas party given by the Lutheran Ladies Aid Society Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. West, a member of the society now living in Monrovia, acted as Santa Claus and distributed gifts which were placed by each lady beneath the Christmas tree for her secret friend. When the gifts were opened a card revealed the name of the friend.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Lizzie Benzel, president; Mrs. Margaret Dobrick, first vice president; Mrs. Ada Ludke, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Mearns, financial secretary; Mrs. Geneva Nelson, treasurer.

BUNKO PARTY AT BAKER HOME

Mrs. Mary Baker, Sonoma avenue, entertained with a bunco party at her home, Monday evening. Fourteen attended the party. Prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. Selma Keitar and Mrs. Mary Rogers. A prize for low score was presented to Mrs. Ella Quigley.

GLENDALE FOLKS DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McQuaid, 1511 Post avenue, had as their dinner guests Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. George Kaplan, of Glendale.

PRIZE WINNERS AT CHEERIO PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gilbert were prize winners in bridge play at the party given Saturday evening by members of the Pacific Electric Cheerio Club in the Pacific Electric office building, Dominguez avenue. Prizes in pinochle play were awarded to Mrs. Frank Miller and L. E. Brown. Prizes for high scores in 500 were awarded to Mrs. M. Baker and Jack Terry. A prize in Pokero was awarded to Vanessa Barnard.

BENEFIT TEA AT ARZILLI HOME

Mrs. Chas. Arzilli and Mrs. Dan Barnard were hostesses at the benefit tea given by Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association in the Arzilli home, 1408 Beach avenue, Wednesday.

Sixty-three ladies attended the affair and were delighted when Mrs. Lamoureux read their tea cups and predicted bright futures for them all. Assisting the hostesses in serving were Mesdames Clarence Richardson, J. Bowers, Frank Thompson and Mrs. A. E. Jones.

Mrs. Charles Airey, music chairman of the Lomita-San Pedro Council of Parent Teachers, gave a short concert.

FERN AVENUE P. T. A. NEWS

Thursday, December 20, at 12:00 o'clock, room-mothers of the Fern Avenue school will serve a luncheon to the teachers in the teachers' room.

Parent Teachers Association will hold their regular meeting in the kindergarten room, with kindergarten children, directed by their teacher, Mrs. Johnson, presenting the program. They will present the playlet, "Black Sambo," and will sing a group of Christmas carols. They will be accompanied at the piano by Shirley Wright, 6-year-old kindergarten pupil. Rev. Kemp J. Winkler, pastor of the First Methodist church of Torrance, will be the speaker.

EMBLEM PAGEANT AT CLUB MEETING

An emblem pageant presented by members of the Business and Professional Women of Long Beach, will be given next Tuesday evening at the regular dinner meeting of the Torrance club. This pageant has been given with great success before a number of clubs and is an impressive lesson as to the significance of the national emblem. The Torrance members will also join in their annual Christmas party, and each is requested to bring an inexpensive gift, and an extra gift if the member has a guest. Dinner will be served as usual at 7:30 o'clock, at the Christian church parlors. Mrs. Addie Montague, emblem chairman, will be in charge of the program.

R. N. A. ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Newly elected officers of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, for the ensuing year include: Oracle, Adeline Smith; vice oracle, Mary Schroeder; past oracle and chaplain, Lizzie Benzel; recorder, May McKinley; receiver, Blanche Crawford; marshal, Mary Baker; inner sentinel, Martha Cooper; outer sentinel, Grace Burmaster; manager, Albertine Phillips; musician Gladys Wardrop; physicians, Dr. A. P. Stevenson and Dr. N. A. Leake.

TORRANCE TRIO WILL PLAY

Featured players on the program tomorrow evening at the Gardena Parent Teachers Association meeting will be the Torrance Trio, composed of Esther Mershon, violinist; George Mershon, cellist, and Mary Scallan, pianist.
