

Circumstantial Evidence Traps Girl In Murder Mystery

Myrna Loy, Una Merkel and William Powell in "Evelyn Prentice"

"Evelyn Prentice," thrilling new mystery drama revolving about a girl murder defendant, circumstantial evidence, and an amazing domestic crisis in a defense attorney's home life, brings William Powell and Myrna Loy together again in what is probably the most successful of their recent hits together.

Two Mysteries in One
The new Cosmopolitan production, playing Sunday and Monday at the Torrance Theatre, contains two mysteries in one—the mystery dramatically unfolded in a great courtroom, and the other, a mystery in the household of a married couple, which threatens their happiness, and which is so tied up with the mystery in court that one cannot be solved without the other.

Powell, as the defense attorney, rises to dramatic heights in his impassioned plea to the jury on which not only his client's life, but his own life happiness, depends. Miss Loy provides some tense dramatic acting in the blackmail and murder sequences, and Una Merkel, as the cynical friend, and Edward Brophy, as the investigator, add comedy relief.

Zane Grey's "Wagon Wheels" At Lomita, Sun. and Mon.

Two old favorites and a brand new one make their bow in the co-featured roles of Zane Grey's thrilling Western, "Wagon Wheels," coming Sunday and Monday to the Lomita Theatre. Randolph Scott and Gail Patrick are already popular favorites with movie audiences. Little Billy Lee, the third member of the triumvirate, is seen for the first time in "Wagon Wheels."

Last Curtain

Lowell Sherman, 47 years of age, prominent motion picture director and actor, whose career ended recently when he succumbed to pneumonia in a Hollywood hospital.

Meet Mrs. Jones . . . She's very popular at home because she saved Mr. Jones over $15 this month.

Jackie Coogan Is Big Boy Now

The first words that Jackie Coogan utters in the picture which marks his screen return, Zane Grey's "Home On the Range," coming to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, have both a real and a real meaning. "Don't call me Jackie. I'm grown up now—call me Jack!"

And for the film fans who remember the pathetic little one-gallon walf who appeared with Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid," he really is grown up.

"Green Gables" Tryst

Love's young dream is featured in "Anne of Green Gables," which RKO-Radio has filmed from the beloved story by L. M. Montgomery. Anne Shirley has the title role, and Tom Brown portrays Gilbert. Shown at the Torrance Theatre, tonight, Friday and Saturday.

"We Live Again" At Plaza 3 Days Starting Sunday

Anna Sten as the little peasant girl, Katusha, and Fredric March as the dashing young Prince Dmitri who loves, betrays and redeems her in "We Live Again," Samuel Goldwyn's filmization of Leo Tolstoy's immortal novel, "Resurrection," coming to the Plaza, Hawthorne, three days beginning Sunday, January 13.

To insure atmospheric background in keeping with the mood and tone of the production, Samuel Goldwyn engaged Sergei Soudelkin, scenic artist of the Metropolitan Opera and foremost among Russian masters of decor, to act as technical art consultant. Soudelkin's settings have been seen in all the leading capitals of Europe.

"Imitation of Life" Develops New Baby Star for Universal

Three Year-old Baby Jane Starred in Her Own Right As Result of Her Work in Fannie Hurst Story

Claudette Colbert and Warren William in "Imitation of Life," coming to Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week.

She cannot read or write. She forgets her lines and then makes up her own version. She pokes fun at her director. In spite of this Baby Jane made such an impression in her first Universal talkie role that she was signed to a long term contract. This contract covers twice as many years as her present age.

Joyce Bunge Gets Ephebian Honor

Joyce Bunge, of the winter class of 1935, Narbonne high school, was selected to receive the honor of membership in the Ephebian Society, at the close of a competition in which four candidates were entered. Miss Bunge is president of the Scholarship Society, former president of the G. A. A., secretary of the Jane Addams club, and also has held various class offices.

Jane Byham was a close second for the Ephebian honor. Chloell Alkman and Geneva Straub also competing.

High Rating At Teachers College

J. A. Fraser, of Torrance, who is attending the New Mexico State Teachers College at Silver City, is rated among the first 12 percent of the student body in scholarship at the close of the fall term, says an announcement from the office of the president Hoyt C. Graham. Andrew entered college in September and plans to remain through the school year.

Gorghum Sets Record

REESEVILLE, Wis. (U.P.)—Charles Sommercorn's sorghum mill has completed its 1934 production and the greatest output in its 30 year history. The mill, one of the few of its kind in this part of the country, ran off 7,000 gallons of cane syrup in the short season.

"Babes in Toyland" At Lomita Theatre, Sunday and Monday

Laurel and Hardy in "Babes in Toyland"

Victor Herbert's immortal "March of the Toys" and "Castle In Spain," as well as the delightful fantasy and story book figures of childhood have been brought to the screen in this film that is a delight to both children and grown-ups. Co-starred with Laurel and Hardy is beautiful Charlotte Henry. "Babes in Toyland" comes to the Lomita Theatre, Sunday and Monday, January 13 and 14.

Hearing On Handbill Question Held Soon

Persons who are interested in measures to restrict the promiscuous distribution of handbills in Lomita, Harbor City, and other unincorporated territory of the county may appear before the board of supervisors at a public hearing to be held Monday, January 21.

The county counsel is drawing up a proposed ordinance, patterned after the South San Francisco shopping news ordinance, recently upheld by the California Supreme court. Instructions were given the county counsel on motion of Supervisor Roger W. Jessup. The hearing will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning. A number of letters already have been filed with the supervisor, some protesting such an ordinance, and some in support of such a measure. Impetus was given the proposal recently by the Lomita chamber of commerce.
