VISIT FOLKS AT CLAREMONT

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass and daughter, Joan, 1606 Beech avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Beck and children, Barbara and Ellen, 1615 Cedar avenue, left this afternoon to visit for several days in Claremont.

BOBBY LEWELLEN IS ELEVEN YEARS OLD

A happy juvenile party was that given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewellen, 1307 Madrid avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The affair, arranged in honor of Bobby Lewellen's 11th birthday, was a surprise to honoree. On returning from school Tuesday, Bobby was greeted with the shouts of his friends calling surprise and happy birthday. From then on fun reigned supreme. Game prizes were won by Donald Phoenix, Norman Marsteller and Leroy Arnold.

Those who attended the party were Leroy Arnold, Norman Marsteller, Newton Siecht, Bobby O'Foote, Donald Phoenix, Gerald McDonald, Bert Harder, Guy Claire, Jr., and Charles Steadman.

WEEK-END AT LAKE ARROWHEAD

Mrs. John Rose, 2321 Sonoma avenue, with her sons, Wesley, Victor, Alfred, and Miss Betty Pierson, visited over the week-end at Lake Arrowhead.

VISIT WITH FRIENDS IN SAN BERNARDINO

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Burgener, 1630 Beech avenue, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold King in San Bernardino.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED BY CHURCH

Officers recently elected at the Episcopal church, included Dr. G. P. Shidler, senior warden; Andrew Carson, treasurer; Parke Montague, secretary; J. W. Leech, Tom Watson, Chas. Stewart, John Williams and Abbott. A potluck dinner preceded the election.

which Rev. W. E. Craig, of the Los Angeles mission, delivered an address.

MOTHERS' CENTER MEETING

Twenty-nine children visited the Mothers' Educational Center in the Woman's Club clubhouse, 1422 Englewood avenue, Friday.

Mrs. Barrington gives the list of new visitors as follows: Orell Alvin Roberts, Patricia Ryan, George Ryan, Jr., Gordon Kirshman.

LINTOTTS CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The 18th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lintott, 1508 Acaela avenue, furnished the incentive for a prettily appointed party at their home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lintott were taken by complete surprise when the party arrived at 8 p. m. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burger, Grace Olsen and Charles Sherwin, of Torrance; Fred Fischer, of Compton, and T. A. Fallhee, of Los Angeles.

Bridge furnished diversion and prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. L. C. Burger and Fred Fischer. Prizes for low scores went to Mrs. Lintott and Charles Sherwin. The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Lintott with a lovely anniversary gift.

FERN AVENUE P. T. A. MEETING

The Fern Avenue P. T. A. meeting for January was held Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance.

The following program was given: Selections by the orchestra under the leadership of Miss Holmbeck; group of songs by third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades, under Mrs. Moon; "Knighthood of Youth," skit by sixth grade. Mrs. Vans then introduced the speaker, Mrs. Savage, head of the Americanization work in the 10th district. Mrs. Savage spoke on the work they are trying to do among the foreign element of this district. She told of classes being held to educate the foreigner in the way of American living, not only to teach them the English language, but cooking and sewing, and how to make themselves independent and self-supporting.

She gave a very fine exhibition of the sewing that is done by these ladies. It was a very fine and instructive talk and appreciated by the audience.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING WEDNESDAY

INTERNATIONAL DINNER NEXT MONTH

At a meeting of the committees on international and public relations, held at the home of Miss Lute Fraser, Monday evening, plans for the next two dinner meetings of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance were assembled. The February meeting will be under the direction of the international relations committee, with Mrs. Mary Vonderahe as chairman. This will be a costume party, and all members and guests are expected to wear costumes representing some foreign country or character. Miss Frances Emans, attorney in charge of stock transfers for the Southern California Edison Company, will be the speaker, and other entertainment will be arranged.

The public relations dinner, held March 19, will be the second community affair sponsored by the club, to which representatives of all the clubs (lodges and other organized civic groups, city officials and distinguished citizens are invited.

An invitation has been sent to Judge May D. Lacey, of the Los Angeles municipal court, to be the speaker, and it is hoped that she will accept as she is charming, witty, and forceful in her remarks. The committee in charge is already hard at work securing talent for the evening program, and it is expected that the affair will be even more entertaining than the first public relations dinner held last year.

The regular business meeting of the club will be held Monday night at the Nurses Home. All members are requested to attend as further plans for the coming parties are to be revealed.

LUNCHEON AT STEVENSON HOME

Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, 1427 Post avenue, entertained with a luncheon at her home, Tuesday, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Scott Ludlow. Covers were placed for the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. Harold Hayes, Mrs. E. M. Johnson, Mrs. L. G. Dunford, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Luther Pierce, of Oceanside.

DONA JANE MORGAN IS MUCH IMPROVED

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan will be happy to learn that their little daughter, Dona Jane, who has been critically ill of pneumonia, has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital today and return to her home. She had been under oxygen treatment for several days, but was reported this morning to be greatly improved.

MASKREYS VISIT SHIRLEY TEMPLE

Mrs. A. J. Maskrey, Jr., Miss Vina Jones, Eileen Maskrey and Arthur James Maskrey, 1719 Marina avenue, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Temple and their daughter, the famous Shirley Temple, in Santa Monica. During the afternoon they visited the Temple bungalow at the Fox Studios. It is in this bungalow, next to the famous Will Rogers, that Shirley stays when on location.

NEW BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. R. E. Olsen, 220th street, was hostess when she entertained members of the newly organized bridge club at her home Thursday. A dessert luncheon was served, at 1 p. m., with covers placed for Mesdames T. A. Mitchell, R. E. Cooper, C. Beadleson, of Inglewood; A. W. Bever, C. E. Carstens, R. S. Card, E. J. Cathcart, L. H. Cheadle, A. B. Hayes, P. L. Hoffman and R. E. Olsen, of Torrance.

Prizes for high scores in bridge were captured by Mesdames Cooper and Beadleson.

SORORITY MEMBERS ENTERTAINED

Sunday afternoon the Theta Phi entertained with a tea at the Hollywood Riviera Beach club. Miss Madeline Shrimmon, of El Segundo, entertained with several piano selections, following which tea and cakes were served, with Mrs. Margaret May pouring.

Guests who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. G. A. Gerry, Edith Erickson, Anita Sneed, Florence Shelly, Mildred Rodgers, Rachel Hamilton, Vivian Southwood and Charlotte Cravello.

Members included Margaret May, Ellen Adams Bartmas, Vivian Covert, Eunice Conell, Madeline Butters, Virginia Ulrich, Marian Miller, Dorothy Pierce and Cornelia Adams.

ATTEND HOSPITAL CONFERENCE

Miss Esther Z. Maxwell, Miss Ethelwyn Niles and Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Brooks attended a dinner at the Hotel Knickerbocker, Los Angeles, Tuesday evening, where the Southern California Hospital Council held a conference.

SUNSHINE SOCIAL TONIGHT

A sunshine social will be held at the Methodist church, Thursday evening, January 31, at 7:30 o'clock, sponsored by the Willing Workers Circle. An entertaining program will be rendered and light refreshments served. If you have a sunshine bag, please bring it, and if not, come anyway.

American Legion Auxiliary News

Monday, February 4, regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in Legion hall. All members urged to attend.

Friday, February 1, all members urged to attend meeting in Maywood Legion hall at which Mrs. Carrie Baade will address units of the 19th district.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS DANCE

More than 260 people attended the President's birthday ball at the Hollywood Riviera clubhouse last night, sponsored by the citizens of Torrance, Lomita and surrounding communities. Many guests were present from these cities, and from Redondo Beach, Gardena, Moneta and elsewhere. A considerable sum was realized for the relief of infantile paralysis sufferers, 70 per cent of which will be retained for use in this district, the balance to be sent to President Roosevelt to be applied to the national campaign against this disease. As the committee had not checked up the receipts this morning, the exact sum realized has not been ascertained.

ST. ANDREW'S CARD PARTY

The ladies of St. Andrew's church will give a card party at the Guild hall, next Thursday, February 7, to which the public is invited.

BALDY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington and children, Frances and J. A., 2715 Arlington avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osbourne, of Downey, spent Sunday at Camp Baldy.
