Columbia Steel Teams

Will Play a Benefit Game at Municipal Park Saturday Afternoon

Local baseball fans will get a break this Saturday afternoon when the two all-star teams from the Columbia Steel League meet at the Municipal park in a benefit game, the proceeds of which will go to pay expenses of one of their ball players who suffered a broken arm during the past season.

The game promises to be a red hot ball game as the teams have been chosen, one entirely of Mexicans and the other of American ball players. Those who are familiar with the games played the past few months, know the caliber of these Mexican boys on the different teams, can easily imagine what a club can be formed from the entire league.

These boys will be further strengthened by the signing of "Mysterious Billy Smith" if you can imagine a Mexican by the name of Smith and who, it is said, won several games while pitching in the Coast League a few years ago. Manager Pina says this time his boys will bring home the bacon, or should he have said tortillas?

Bob Sleeth, manager of the American club has picked a team from the rest of the league and promises to put as good a club on the field as has ever played ball in Torrance. Many of his boys are well known in the independent circuit, including Shelby Venable, of Lomita; Art Simpson, of Redondo Beach; Johnson, of Torrance high school, and several of the boys playing for Torrance in the Sunday league.

Remember the day, next Saturday at 1:30, and you ball fans who have not been down to the park to see the new grass outfield are in for a big treat.

Jim Corbett and Jack Quigley in charge of the benefit ball game Saturday at the Municipal park are certainly making it attractive to the fans in more than one way. From the list of prizes, all of which have been donated by local merchants, it looks like Pop will have to take all the kids along to the game to lug home his loot.

Dick Jenkins at the Shell Oil Station donates five gallons motor oil.

Mullin's Service, one grease job. Union Oil Station (Rodgers), one grease job.

Fred Hansen's Texaco Station, one oil change for your car.

Colburn's Grocery, $1.50 in merchandise.

Al Harder's Grocery, $1.50 in merchandise.

Sam Levy, one buck in trade. Sandy and Scotty, a Hickok belt. California Barber Shop, one bottle hair tonic.

The Star Furniture, a cushion. Larkin the Tailor, will press your suit free of charge.

Rubus Kline, two dozen eggs.

Any other local merchants wishing to get in on a big time should get in touch with either Jim Corbett or Jack Quigley at the Columbia Steel.

CHIEF CALDER makes every shot COUNT

The Revolver and Rifle Association's range at the old brick yard came through the storm on Sunday with practically no damage except a few soft spots, as a couple of motorists found out when they attempted to drive through on Monday. They made the trip across the floor of the pit without any trouble but in attempting to drive up the hill their car was mired. With the aid of some old boards, perspiration and a little cussin' they finally got to the top.

Hugh Eckersley lead the parade in scores over the last week-end, running up a total of 266. Harry Roynton was runner-up with 249. Other scores were Ashton, 247; Anderle, 245; Bennett, 242; Stanger, 235; Drake, 224; Travoli, 215; Schumacher, 199; Dolton, 197; Peterson, 190; Stroh, 180; Stewart, 177; Thompson, 176.

Chief G. M. Calder took his own sweet time about shooting 50 cartridges and ran up a score of 416. Not bad, chief, not bad.

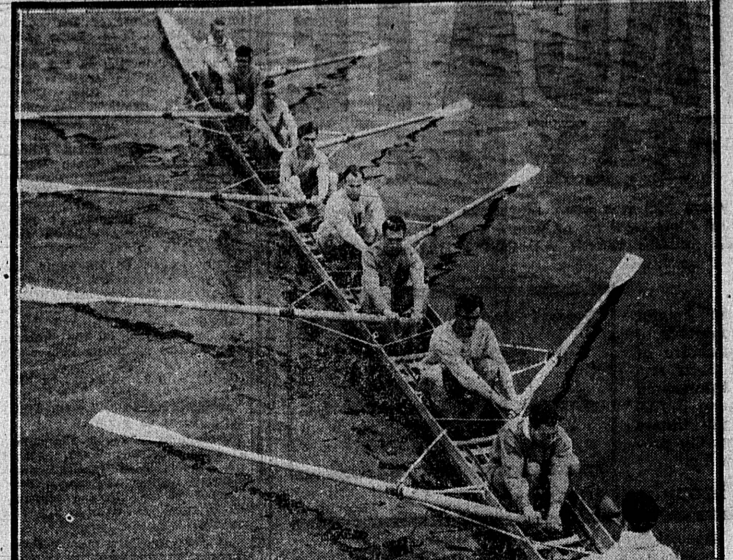

Abalone Fisher Is Arrested

Floyd E. Rhodes, arrested for violation of the fish and game code, was arraigned in the justice court Tuesday morning on two counts, possession of undersized abalones and fishing without a sport fishing license. He plead not guilty on the first count and asked for an immediate court trial. On Judge Frank Carrell fined him $25 or 12 1/2 days in the county jail, suspended for one year on condition that he familiarize himself with the provisions of the fish and game code and observe the rules.

Tartar Golfers Are Rained Out

For the third time since the Marine League golf season opened the Torrance Tartars were idle Monday. Wet grounds caused a postponement of their match with Gardena scheduled for the Potrero course. The Tartars took a forfeit loss. Leuzinger for their first game, drew a bye for the second week and were rained out for the third game on Monday. Their next match is scheduled with Bell at Palos Verdes tomorrow.

Washington's Great Freshman Crew Now Sophomores— Will They Turn Back the Poughkeepsie Champions?

Washington's fresh crew of 1934 is now the varsity. Last year the freshman boat was rated the greatest crew in the regime of Coach Al Ullbrichson. Now sophomores, they face the acid test Saturday when they meet the University of California eight, intercollegiate champions. The crew, left to right: Don Hume, Don Canfield, Don Coy, Gordon Adams, William Seaman, Mert Hatch, John White, Bob Murray and Coxswain Fred Smith.

Olympic Crew May Be Seen In Coming Race

Winner of 1936 Trials In California May Go Abroad

By JAMES O'BRIEN United Press Staff Correspondent BERKELEY, Calif. (U.P.)—What may be the unveiling of the 1936 Olympic Games crew will take place on the Oakland Estuary, April 13, when the eight-oared shells representing the Universities of Washington and California stage the season's premier race.

The two coast eights were tops in 1934, if the Poughkeepsie regatta is considered, the acid test of crewdom. The oarsmen from the Pacific slope finished one-two in the rowing classic—California finishing first, and Washington nightfalling it in second.

For 14 years one of the coast crews has finished among the first four at Poughkeepsie. The years of prominence began in 1921 when California finished second to Navy.

Washington was the first to break into position of honor at Poughkeepsie. The Huskies were fifth in 1914.

Strange to relate, California was the third Pacific Coast crew to earn eastern recognition. Stanford Second in 1915. Stanford University, now without representation on the water, was second at Poughkeepsie in 1915.

Washington was awarded top honors in 1921, 1923 and 1926 when the Huskies ruled the waters of the Hudson river.

California's big years were 1928, 1932 and 1934. In two of these years, Coach Ky Ebbright's California's went on from the Hudson river to triumph in the Olympic Games.

The Bears hold the Poughkeepsie course record for four miles. They were clocked in 18:34 1/4 in 1928.

All Stars Are Rained Out Sunday

Jack Silvia's All Stars were rained out in their second game of the Inter-city League series, but they turned out last Sunday in their new suits and practiced a while anyway. A few of the Compton team showed up, but the game was called off because of wet grounds. Next Sunday the boys will meet the Storm Electrics, and the All Stars are hoping there is nothing in a name, but that the weather will be bright and fair so that they can show off their new suits to advantage.

SPORT SHOTS

By Bob Lewellen

Marine League track and field season officially opens tomorrow, April 12. Coach Bernie Donahue will send his defending champions to Leuzinger high school, at Hawthorne. The Tartars of Torrance expect to give the Leuzinger boys a good demonstration in the manly art of running, and jumping, Torrance should come home Friday night with their first dual meet win of the year. A large crowd of local fans are expected to attend Torrance's first meet of the year.

Other league meets on card for the day, are Narbonne and Gardena at Gardena, and North Long Beach (Jordan) at El Segundo. The Narbonne-Gardena affair is slated to be the best of the day. The Gauchos of Lomita have a well balanced team to offer all comers, and Coach Conrad expects to be well up in the money at the end of the season. According to pre-season reports, Gardena has the greatest team in their history. With the two Henderson brothers leading the way, other members of the squad expect to produce another championship for the student body, along with the baseball cup.

Winners for the day! Well here they are: Torrance should take Leuzinger in stride, easy. Luck, Zampierini, Wertz, Speed and McFadden should be the stars of the meet. Narbonne will beat Gardena by a close score. Powers, McMinn and Angell will be outstanding on the Lomita team. As I said before, Gardena has a well balanced team and should produce plenty of power. Pick North Long Beach to whip El Segundo. Gregory is Jordan's one-man team, and will take first in the 100, 220 and broad jump. This boy is the greatest scoring power in the entire league. He runs the 100-yard dash in 16 flat and the 220 in 23 flat consistently. Gregory also broad jumps over 20 feet, and runs anchor man on the relay team. He will be responsible for 15 or 20 points in every dual meet of the year. The four powers of North Long Beach, Gardena and Narbonne. These schools will furnish plenty of thrills for track fans before the final gun of the year.

Varsity Stars Pull Out By Half a Point To Take the Annual Inter-class Meet

Tartar B-12s, which class harbors most of the stars of the varsity track team, nosed out the A-11s in an inter-class track meet at Wood Field last Friday by the close margin of half a point. The B-12s garnered 43 to their opponents' 42 1/2. The A-9s were third with 37; A-12, fourth, 24 1/4; B-10, 17 1/4; A-10, 16 1/4; B-11, 15; and B-9, 7 points.

Fairly good time was made in the running events in spite of the wretched condition of the track which is full of chuck holes, soft spots, hard spots and other traps for the winged heels. The track was worked over this spring, but was left in rather worse condition than better and needs a good deal of fixing to be considered a fast track.

The results of the meet, participated in by the senior class division, were as follows:

50-yard dash—Piper, A-11; Clutter, B-11; Haruki, B-9; Basile, A-9; time, 6.7.

60-yard run—Disario, A-9; Kirkpatrick, A-9; Madore, A-10; Hill, B-10; time, 1:41.

80-yard run—Isabel, B-12; Bartels, B-12; time, 2:13.1.

100-yard dash—(B)—Gilbert, B-10; Kent, A-9; Schmidt, A-9; Clutter, B-11; time, 10.4.

100-yard dash—(A)—Luck, B-12; Wertz, A-12; Nakaba, A-10; time, 10 flat.

120-yard low hurdles—McFadden, B-12; Piper, A-11; Kallina, A-9; Gilbert, B-10; time, 18.1.

440-yard dash—Luck, B-12; Wertz, A-12; Nakaba, A-10; time, 10 flat.

1320-yard run—Schlammick, B-9; Dennis, A-10; time, 4:38.

1 Mile—Zampierini, B-12; Speed, B-11; Bay, A-11; Harris, B-10; time, 4:58.

120-yard low hurdles—McFadden, B-12; Piper, A-11; Kallina, A-9; Gilbert, B-10; time, 18.1.

440-yard dash—Luck, B-12; Wertz, A-12; Nakaba, A-10; time, 10 flat.

Candidates For Bluebird Team Invited to Come to Park Tuesday

"Well, it's practically all set for the new league," says Manager Spud Murphy, "with more darn teams trying to get in than we can take care of. We could start off with a dozen clubs, but the loop will start with eight, and the final set-up will be hand-picked tomorrow night when all our moguls meet over at Huntington Park."

According to Murphy, teams as far away as Van Nuys, Montebello, Whittier and Glendale, are being heard of in the new deal, want to get in. They probably figure that the interest in the Federal will be hotter than it is in the old leagues, and want to get in on the limelight. Fullerton is figuring to drop out of the National, and Long Beach is still setting on the next trying to batch out a boys' club with Fullerton out. The Bluebird Club will probably be in. If Long Beach drops the old league will have to do some flirting with an outside club or else start off with a seven-team layout which will be bad.

The Feds have lined up about as compact a loop as can be had, which will make traveling expenses low and promote interest on the part of the players, since they will have only short jumps to make. With a couple of teams in the heavily populated districts of Los Angeles and Hollywood, the new league ought to make money, and close their season with a little Jack in the treasury. New faces, new talent, new blood in the teams will spur the lagging interest of the night ball fans.

All in all it looks like a sweet set-up, says Spud.

"The Bluebirds will flock to the municipal ball park next Tuesday night for a preliminary work-out. Some of the old hands will be there, Poncho Fabregat, Pete Harvick, Red Moon, Pusick, McClure, Forney and some new players that Spud has picked up for try-outs. In connection, Spud issues an invitation to every ball player in Torrance who fancies himself to come out and try for a place on the team. No holds barred.

He will personally interview each and every one and look over their antics in the field. The best of the lot will get a chance.

Spud plans this year to build up a good all-around team, instead of having a fairly good team built around a prima donna. Fans who hope to see Louie ("the Great") Neva back in a Bluebird suit will be disappointed. Neva sheet of Torrance. To win the track championship of the Marine league this year, the Tartars and Donahue certainly have a job on their hands. Torrance may score as high as in the final standing of the state meet, with two boys entered, Luck and Zampierini, as they do in their own league, with the entire team competing.

Remember all you prospective soft ball stars, next Tuesday night, at the park. Bring your own glove.

The L. C. Doan team of the Inter-city League opened the last round of their schedule by taking three points from the strong Flying A Gasoline team, which gives them a lead of five points.

I. Eckersley and S. Bach were the top rollers for Doan's, while Risling and P. Ford were the best for the Gasoline boys.

Terry Service, the tall-ender, came to life to swamp the second-place Drew Electric Shop for four points. C. Cole shot a 227 game and 517 series and C. Smith also was in top form. C. Kahn and B. Hill rolled high scores for the electricians.

Brown's Garage won four points from the Western Consumers Feed Company when D. Crystal and G. Sinoak got to piling up the wood. G. McDowell and C. Sanders were the best for the feed boys.

Standing of the league to date:

Won Lost	Points
L. C. Doan Gas Co.	45 19
Drew Electric Shop	38 26
Flying A Gasoline	33 29
Brown's Garage	27 37
Terry's Service	21 40
Western Consumers	23 41
