

Comfortable Request

SALEM, Mass. (U.P.)—Charles E. Dow, G. A. R. veteran, should be comfortable the rest of his life if he uses the request left to him by Mrs. Amanda M. Moulton. In her will she left him a feather bed, four pillows, and $500.

Egg Wrapped For Market

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (U.P.)—A hen owned by Mrs. J. T. Shelton of Donelson laid an egg all ready for market. It came into the world wrapped in tissue paper or cellophane, if you prefer, by some strange chemical phenomenon.

Lone Democratic Vote

BETHANY, Mo. (U.P.)—The Republicans pretty well control this town, but even they were surprised when a township election recently went Republican by a 315 to 1 vote. The lone Democratic vote was registered when a voter scratched out a Republican name and wrote in another. The Democrats had not put a ticket in the field.

Sunrise Hill At Big Pines Dedicated

Services Will Be Held There On Sunday

Although services have been held for several years past at Big Pines, this Easteride will mark the first formal dedication of Sunrise Hill in Los Angeles county department's largest and most ambitious mountain camp at Big Pines. This ceremony will be conducted by University Religious Conferences, composed of interdenominational representatives from the various high schools and colleges hereabouts.

The program as outlined by the conference will consist of an address by Glenn Moore, secretary of the board of education for Los Angeles Presbytery and head of the Young People's Department of Religious Education; selections by the Religious Conference choir, a salute by the drum and bugle corp of the Japanese Boy Scout division of Los Angeles and the dedicatory ceremony itself.

Sunrise Hill is another of those natural beauty spots similar to the friendly hollow that forms the lovely little open-air theatre that makes Big Pines one of the major resorts of Southern California. It lends itself admirably to religious services at dawn as an item of a Sunday outing trip via motor.
