"FOREIGN TRADE FOR DOMESTIC AID"

Foreign Trade Week, started nine years ago by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as a means of emphasizing the vital importance of overseas commerce to national prosperity, will be observed throughout the United States from May 19 to 25.

Sponsoring the event are the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and the United States Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. More than 150 cities, including the nation's principal ports, will participate, with service clubs and other types of organizations staging special programs. National radio events are scheduled, among them addresses by Secretary of Commerce Roper and Secretary of State Hull.

Southern California's observance is under the direction of Dr. R. B. von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California and noted internationalist. A special feature is the colorful free exhibit of imports and export products throughout the week in the Bartlett Building, Seventh and Spring streets, Los Angeles. Saturday, May 25, has been set aside as Los Angeles Harbor Day when boat trips around the waterfront will be available to the public without charge.

TROOP NO. 3
DAVID POWELL, Reporter

The meeting was called to order when Jean Bordeaux blew assembly. After dues and rollcall, Pop Jones set the dates for patrol meetings.

After inspection, which was won by O. B. Huber, the troop had a little treat, for it happened to be Harold Treviso's birthday. Mrs. Treviso made some ice cream and cake for the troop.

Several years ago all high school and university games were described play-by-play over the radio. The idea was immensely popular since thousands of fans living on the other islands could not always attend the games. Owners of the stadium have banned broadcasting during the past two seasons.

Seek Public Stadium
 Grid fans waited until the legislature convened recently and have obtained introduction of a bill asking for construction of a public stadium at the University of Hawaii and specifying that all football games played there be broadcast to the other islands.

Washington Sophs Point For Olympics

SEATTLE (U.P.)—Eight powerful University of Washington sophomores today believed themselves headed for the 1936 national intercollegiate championship and the 1936 Olympic games. If they win the first, at Poughkeepsie, New York, next month, chances of representing the United States in the Olympics at Berlin should be good.

As reasons for self-confidence they had:

1. Relegated the crack 1934 varsity regulars, without exception, to the junior varsity shell.
2. Beaten by a six-foot margin, University of California, the 1934 national champion.
3. Won from California Coach Ky Ebright the admission that "The best crew won. I think they will surely beat us again at Poughkeepsie."

The sophomores average 6 feet, 2-4-5 inches in height, 180-6 pounds in weight, 19-6 years in age.

Public Stadium For Football In Hawaiian Isles

Territorial Legislature Asked to Pass Bill for Construction

By RICHARD C. WILSON
 United Press Staff Correspondent
HONOLULU, T. H. (U.P.)—Football has become so popular in Hawaii that when owners of the stadium, where most of the games are played, declined to permit games to be broadcast the rabid fans took the matter up with the Territorial Legislature.

Several years ago all high school and university games were described play-by-play over the radio. The idea was immensely popular since thousands of fans living on the other islands could not always attend the games. Owners of the stadium have banned broadcasting during the past two seasons.

Seek Public Stadium
 Grid fans waited until the legislature convened recently and have obtained introduction of a bill asking for construction of a public stadium at the University of Hawaii and specifying that all football games played there be broadcast to the other islands.

Play Mainland Teams
 Part of the heightened interest in football has resulted from the scheduling of games by the University of Hawaii team with prominent mainland universities. Last year, the university team played and defeated Denver University; University of California and a team of Pacific coast college stars.

This fall the university has games scheduled with University of Southern California; Denver University and University of California at Los Angeles.

CALIFORNIAN HOPES TO HUNT BIG GAME WITH ARROWS

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.)—An ambition, which Don Carson, medical student, hopes soon to fulfill is to hunt big game in Africa with bow and arrow.

With Howard Hill of Los Angeles, nationally known archery expert, he hunted in the Florida Everglades recently with only a bow and quiver full of steel-tipped arrows, bagging alligators, wild cats, opossums and raccoons.

PACIFIC COAST GAMES
 Los Angeles will play San Francisco at that city tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday. The Hollywood club meets Seattle, at Wrigley Field.
