WHEN LIVES ARE AT STAKE

You need the same fire protection that race drivers demand

KELLY PETILLO, ON MAY 30, WON THE 500-MILE Indianapolis Race on Firestone Tires, breaking the track record and driving the entire distance at a rate of 106.24 miles per hour.

This record is an astounding demonstration of tire efficiency. To go 500 miles in less than five hours on this rough and bumpy 26-year-old brick track demonstrates the strength and blowout protection that Firestone builds into their Gum-Dipped Tires.

AB JENKINS ALSO RECENTLY DEMONSTRATED THE stamina, efficiency, and blowout protection built into Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. He drove his 5000 pound car over the hot salt beds at Lake Bonville, Utah, 3000 miles in 23 1/2 hours. This was an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, and although temperatures were as high as 120°, he had no blowouts or tire trouble of any kind.

These records are made possible by special construction features built into Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires.

Take no chances—protect your life and the lives of others by letting us equip your car with Firestone Tires.

- Before you buy new tires ask yourself these three questions
- 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"
 - 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"
 - 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

1 University tests show Firestone tires stop cars 15 to 25% quicker

2 Gum-Dipped cords give greater blowout protection. Gum-Dipping is not used in other tires

3 Wider, flatter tread gives more than 50% longer non-skid wear

Beery At His Greatest In "West Point of the Air"—Plaza Sunday

The "Hell Divers" are in the army now! Wallace Beery as the gruff, soft-hearted "non-com" of Uncle Sam's flying forces in "West Point of the Air," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer hit starting Sunday at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, brings to the screen the same brand of thrills that shattered box-office records throughout the country in "Hell Divers."

This thriller of the skies was made to order for Beery, giving him one of the best and most lovable roles he has ever portrayed. Not only is the picture packed with thrills, but it boasts one of the most delightful romances on record as well as one of the most touching father-and-son dramas the screen has ever seen.

Such scenes as 100 daring flyers leaping from planes in parachutes simultaneously, Beery changing from one plane to another to save his son from a certain crash, hundreds of planes in unique formations and other such thrills among the clouds have had all who have seen the picture sitting on the edge of their seats.

"Gold Diggers of 1935" Opens At Lomita Theatre Sunday

As the singing star of Warner Bros.' biggest and most lavish musical to date, "Gold Diggers of 1935," Dick Powell has something to be happy about. He heads a cast with Gloria Stuart, Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Glenda Farrell, Hugh Herbert, and a string of others including the famous Busby Berkeley girls in the picture, which is coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 9, 10 and 11, to the Lomita Theatre.

POPULAR NOVEL COMES TO SCREEN

One of the most famous heroines of classical American literature is "Hannah," pretty and pathetic little blond girl in "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," Edward Eggleston's great novel of Indiana backwoods life in the nineteenth century, which comes to the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday.

Consequently, when Monogram Pictures decided to bring this famous book to the screen, the role of "Hannah" was much sought after by Hollywood screen stars, but it was blue-eyed, blonde Charlotte Henry who was finally chosen for the coveted honor. That the producers made a wise choice is evidenced by her remarkable characterization of the heroine of this stirring drama.

She is the typical American girl, sweet, sincere and wholesome. Her likes and hobbies are very simple as she prefers western pictures and detective novels, and chooses all outdoor sports for her active recreations.

Miss Henry's screen roles also have typed her as the ideal American girl. Her starring performances so far have been in "Alice in Wonderland," "Babs in Toyland" and "Laddie."

Cardinal Richelieu (George Arliss) dissuades the fiery Andre de Pons (Cesar Romero) from assassinating him. A thrilling scene from Twentieth Century's "Cardinal Richelieu" released through United Artists. Showing tonight, Friday and Saturday at the Torrance Theatre.

World Is Tired of Hectic Pace

A world-hunger for romance explains the current screening of so many pictures of the last century, in the opinion of William K. Howard, who directed Helen Hayes and Robert Montgomery in "Vanessa: Her Love Story," at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday.

For high romance, Howard believes, had its hey-day in the eighties and the nineties. With the turn of the century came a faster, crisper design for living. The sweetness of idealistic romance suddenly became old-fashioned. But no amount of faster tempo in life can eradicate the hunger for romance in the hearts of humanity.

GARLAND SISTERS on stage Saturday AT LOMITA

Local theatre goers are looking with much interest to the appearance of the Garland Sisters, who will put on their harmony song act on the stage of the Lomita Theatre, this Saturday, both matinee and night. These three talented young artists just completed a three weeks' engagement at the Paramount Theatre in Los Angeles. They are the daughters of Frank A. Garland, new manager at the Lomita Theatre.

Cast of Stars Head Thrilling Mystery Film

It is not often that an adventure romance of the wide open spaces leads to a cast of seasoned performers to compare with that of Zane Grey's "Rocky Mountain Mystery," the Paramount picture playing Saturday at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne.

Headed by Randolph Scott, veteran of Zane Grey pictures, and Ann Sheridan, Denton, Texas, Search for Beauty winner, in the leading romantic roles, the cast includes Charles "Chic" Sale, famous for his comedy characterizations on stage and screen.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, for more than two decades a leading character actress on the American stage, has chosen "Rocky Mountain Mystery" for her motion picture debut. She is coupled with George Marshall, Sr., a stage and screen veteran.

William Fung, one of Hollywood's leading interpreters of Oriental characters, is prominently cast, and James Eagles, Jr., a recent Broadway recruit, plays a character role.

The second feminine lead is played by Kathleen Burke who played the siren in Paramount's hit, "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer." Florence Roberts, stage star with a quarter of a century of service to her credit, is cast in a supporting role.

Directed by Charles Barton, director of "Wagon Wheels," "Rocky Mountain Mystery" together they solve the crime... and find romance.

Franchot Tone, in the role of Foxhall Ridgeway, the man from Wyoming in search of a wife, an opportunity to display his light comedy ability as well as his dramatic talents.

Una Merkel, who plays Phoebe, the blonde telephone girl, has the best role of her career. Never before has she had the opportunity to portray a romantic lead that involves dramatic as well as comedy delineation.
