FAIRYLAND PARTY FOR LITTLE FOLKS

Mickey and Minnie Mouse were quite a popular couple at the birthday party given by Mrs. George Ross, 1733 1/2 Martina avenue, to honor her son Billy on his fourth birthday. Master Billy was a jolly host, when he seated his little guests at the luncheon table and admonished them to pull a string from the big Jack Horner pie which occupied a place of honor right in the center of the table. Even Minnie and Mickey, perched on the top of nut cups, felt a tinge of envy when the little folk pulled suckers of every color from the pie. Fairyland cards marked places for Gloria Totten, Jimmy Totten, Virginia Rener, Dorothy Welsh, Donald Waumburg, Norman Dobrich, Gordon Kirshman, Jackie McQuaid and George Whiting.

The living room, where party games furnished no end of fun during the afternoon, was a typical fairyland where all those famous characters, Mother Goose, Simple Simon, Red Ridinghood, Boopie, Jack Horner, Tommy Tucker and the old woman who lived in the shoe with all her children, had a prominent part to play.

Emerson, pastor of Redondo Beach First Christian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.
