Keeping Up With Torrance High

Wednesday, June 6, the Girls' League sponsored a pay and call at which the Showboat Negro quartet was featured. This quartet is prominent in radio broadcasts.

Next year a new type of report card will be issued to the students, which will show more than academic progress. They will indicate character traits and the greater objectives of education. A student graduated into maturity should have not only a good academic background, but also sound character, qualities of co-operativeness, industry, initiative, judgment, orderliness, promptness, self-reliance and thrift. On the new report card, which will appear if the student is progressing, and the letter "N" if he is not.

The senior 'A's are very busy people and will be until June 20, the night of graduation. Weekly class meetings are being held on Tuesday afternoon and plans for their various activities are being discussed and decided upon. Following is a list of the senior activities from present time to graduation night: Friday, June 7, the annual junior-senior prom will be given in the high school gym; Friday, June 14, the senior 'A's and their mothers are to be honored at a reception given by the social arts class in the school library; Sunday, June 16, the annual baccalaureate services will be held in the City park (bandstand) beginning at 5 p. m.; Wednesday, June 19, the seniors will get together for a breakfast; and Thursday, June 20, commencement exercises will be held on tennis courts.

The school faculty, not to be outdone by the seniors, are having their get-together social night (business) their most recent one being a picnic at the City park on Tuesday afternoon. The main feature of the afternoon's entertainment, besides eating, was a scavenger hunt. There were four teams with Mr. Andrews, Miss Chase, Mr. Burchett and Mr. Austin as captains. Mr. Austin, incidentally was a beautiful mixed bouquet of vegetables, by managing to accumulate the various items which they were to secure.

Tuesday, May 28, two of the civics classes enjoyed an educational visit to the public service offices of Los Angeles. The students heard an interlocking device divorce case visited the police broadcasting station, and went into the tower of the city hall. They also went into traffic court, the council chamber and all through the county jail. The group was accompanied by Miss E. Jones and Mrs. Young, teachers.

In celebration of Memorial Day, the Torrance Forum and World Friendship Club sponsored a general and call Wednesday, May 28. H. V. Adams, Los Angeles banker, was the guest speaker of the affair and was introduced to the assembly by Julian Isen, vice president and program chairman of the Forum. Other features were Scouts, and two piano selections by Gertrude Mowry, who recently distinguished herself by placing

Vail Medals Are Awarded to Four Phone Employees

Bell telephone heroes of 1934 on the Pacific coast were honored today, with three telephone operators and a telephone switchman awarded Vail medals for self-sacrificing public service. The medals, com-second in a state music contest. Mr. Adams' address, which was very interesting, was on "The Significance of Memorial Day in Regard to War and Peace."

Friday night, May 31, the G. A. A. held its semi-annual banquet for club members and their mothers. Following a delicious meal prepared and served by the vocational cooking class, a humorous mock wedding ceremony was performed. Mildred Hitchcock was the saintly minister, Eileen Miles the dignified groom, Mildred Neelands, Abigail Dunne, the bride, and Margaret Kibbee, farmer and Dunne, the bride's father. Every minute the girls are given awards for their athletic achievements and during the banquets they were made by Miss Bent, gym instructor. After a girl has earned 500 points, which she earns by showing her ability to play the various sports, displaying good sportsmanship, turning out for practices and participating in the games, she receives a "T". For every 200 additional points she receives a star for her letter. It is possible to earn from 25 to 100 points for each of the four sports played during a school year. Those who received awards were: Martha Greaves, Jane Johnston, Eileen Miles, Agnes Peet, Dorothy Elder and Mickey Humer. One star—Betty Stevenson, Doris Pullman, Fern Wright, Mildred Neelands, Olive Belle Huber, Laurella Lancaster and Mildred Hitchcock. Two stars—Ella Levy and Pat Carlin. Three stars—Margaret Kibbee, and four stars—Eith Granger, Olive Huber, G. A. A. president, was toastmistress.

Life-Saver
 PITTSFIELD, Mass. (U.P.)—Assistant ERA Administrator Frank N. Mattoon will long be remembered for the number of lives he saved. He wouldn't allow work to be done until 450 chickens and 150 pheasant eggs had hatched.

Doting Papas
 COSHOCTON, O. (U.P.)—The five members of the Tuscarawas township school board are taking a lively interest in the graduation exercises of Coshocton high school this year. And there is a reason, as each member of the board has a son or daughter in the class.

memorating the service ideals pioneered by Theodore N. Vail, early-day president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, covered meritorious acts during a hurricane and a motorboat explosion. At the same time other awards were being announced throughout the nation.

Mrs. Celia Callahan, Mrs. Sarah Raw and Miss Marjorie White, of Seaside, Oregon, were credited with vital public service in keeping alive communication in an anxious seacoast town overwhelmed by an 80-mile-an-hour tempest that nearly wrecked their central office. The switchman, Jack J. Widitz, of Seattle, was cited for heroism in saving lives.

In the Seaside storm last October, Mrs. Callahan was alone at the switchboard when the chimney crashed through the roof and the plate glass window collapsed. Miss White, telephoning to the office from her home at the time, heard the operator scream. She and her
