CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The semi-annual Communion service will be conducted on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Sacrament," and the Golden Text is from 1 Corinthians: "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." Among the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon are these verses from Luke: "Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. . . . And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. . . . And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves. . . . And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me." A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "The disciples had eaten, yet Jesus prayed and gave them bread. This would have been foolish in a literal sense; but in its spiritual significance, it was natural and beautiful. Jesus prayed; he withdrew from the material senses to refresh his heart with brighter, with spiritual views."

Claims Thrifty Buying Cuts Family Food Costs

A rather new angle on cutting food costs was introduced today by Mr. B. J. Scott of the Torrance Electric Shop, local dealer for Westinghouse Streamline Refrigerators. According to Mr. Scott, not one food buyer in 20 takes full advantage of the exceptional values offered by merchants during their "week-end" sales.

"Granted, everyone buys," said Mr. Scott, "but only for their immediate requirements; whereas if they were to buy their complete week's supply of foodstuff, they could save as much as 10 to 12 percent on their weekly food bills. Moreover, by buying larger cuts of meats, larger quantities of fruits and vegetables, and larger sizes of canned goods, they could save another 5 to 10 percent—all of which is mighty important in this day of modest incomes and high food prices."

Mr. Scott pointed out that this is one of the "often forgotten" advantages of having a good electric refrigerator . . . in which to safely store your perishables until you are ready to use them. He also emphasized the importance of having all food storage space quickly and easily accessible, because "it practically doubles the storage capacity of your refrigerator and eliminates much rearranging of food, during which time warm air would flow in, greatly increasing your operating costs."

One reason for the great popularity of the new Westinghouse Streamline Refrigerator, according to Mr. Scott, is that it holds so much food (all of which can be quickly and easily reached) and keeps this food perfectly for days and days—in the hottest weather, and at a ridiculously low operating cost.
