

NEW VAN DINE thriller coming NEXT WEEK

For the first time in the motion picture industry, so far as can be determined, deadly chemicals have been successfully employed as "film stars" occupying the entire surface of a picture screen to explain a murder mystery. Moreover, the chemicals and their scientific reactions to each other are illustrated in technicolor.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Torrance Theatre will offer that superlative comedian, Joe E. Brown, in "Alibi Ike." Companion feature, Warner Baxter in "Under the Pampas Moon."

Mae West in "Goin' to Town" Opens At Lomita Sun-Matinee

In this scene from Paramount's "Goin' to Town," playing three days starting Sunday afternoon at the Lomita Theatre, Mae West, the star, wears one of the modern gowns on which the eyes of the entire style world are focussed. Mae West goes modern in a big way. Ralph Bellamy in "The Healer," a color cartoon, "Gang of the Birds," and a Charley Chase comedy, "Fate's Fathad," complete the bill at the Lomita Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Katharine Hepburn Meets Rivals For Maestro's Heart

A critical situation in "Break of Hearts," modern romantic drama starring Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer, is when the heroine confronts her popular musician husband squiring two society girls while ostensibly at a concert rehearsal. An RKO Radio Picture showing tonight, Friday and Saturday at the Torrance Theatre.

This beautiful love story is one of the most inspiring pictures which has been filmed in recent years and the stars give a brilliant performance that surpasses all forecasts.

It is a new Hepburn that comes to the screen in this production and one who is more alluring than ever. In the role of a young composer who marries a famous maestro, she combines all the genius that brought her fame in her previous films with a new-found pictorial beauty and a vibrant warmth of interpretation that is irresistible.

Charles Boyer, idol of the French stage and screen, has a magnetic charm that promises to send him to the height of popularity as a result of his work in "Break of Hearts."

Zabelle Dancing Studio Forming New Classes

Nine Pupils Recently Accepted By Major Motion Picture Studio

New classes for children are now being organized by the Zabelle Dancing Academy, whose local studio is located at the American Legion clubhouse, 2252 Carson street. The Zabelle studio in Torrance has been holding regular classes each Friday for nearly two years, and enjoys a large clientele of satisfied patrons. Children between the ages of 4 and 18 years are accepted and courses in dancing, dramatics and voice culture are offered. Ballroom dancing is also taught. Anyone interested in securing additional information concerning the classes may discuss the matter with Murielle Zabelle, who is at the American Legion clubhouse each Friday between 2:30 p. m. and 5:30 p. m. Telephone messages may be left at Torrance 263-J.

The Zabelle Dancing Academy has been unusually successful in placing a large number of its pupils in lucrative positions with the motion picture studios. Just recently, nine girl students were accepted by the Columbia studios. A group of more advanced pupils known as Murielle Zabelle's Radio and Screen Starlets are in much demand at public entertainments.

BASEBALL is theme of COMEDY

Baseball, America's favorite sport, provides the background against which the interesting story of Columbia's comedy-romance, "Swellhead," showing Wednesday only, July 17, at the Torrance Theatre, unfolds.

Featuring, besides Barbara Kent and Dickie Moore, Wallace Ford as a home-run king with an oversized cranium, the film gathers much of its fine effect from exciting sequences of actual ball games. Barbara Kent, featured opposite Ford, owes her movie debut to the winning of a Santa Cruz beauty contest, in which she was christened "Miss Hollywood." Since 1935 she has appeared in innumerable pictures, and is said to resemble Janet Gaynor in many ways.

Hey, Kids, Lookit What You're Going To Get For Nothing

Boys and girls have a big treat in store for them at the Lomita Theatre next Saturday, July 13, according to Manager Garland. All boys and girls attending the matinee Saturday will be given a delicious chocolate "tootsie roll" and a free membership in the Frankie Darro Club, which entitles them to a beautiful picture album in which to place pictures of 28 favorite movie stars. One of these pictures of movie stars, including, of course, Frankie Darro himself, will be given to members of the club each Saturday matinee.

Two Super Features On Plaza Bill, Hawthorne, Starting Sunday

With Paul Muni in "Black Fury" and Katharine Hepburn in "Break of Hearts" on the same bill, patrons of the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, are offered exceptionally attractive entertainment for three days starting Sunday, July 14.

Muni, while a first line star in motion pictures, has appeared in very few pictures, but his outstanding performances in such film successes as "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang," "Border Town" and "Scarface" have won him undying praise. "Black Fury," his latest picture, is a startling, colorful drama in which he is supported by a tremendous cast.

All the stirring emotions that throb in human hearts, whether they beat beneath the jeweled bodice of a queen or under the tattered garments of a beggar, are blended into the powerful love drama, "Break of Hearts," which comprised the other half of the double super feature bill at the Plaza Theatre starting Sunday, Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer have the leading roles.

BARTHELMESS in novel role AT PLAZA

Something in the nature of a revelation awaits you at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Saturday, July 13, when Paramount's "Four Hours to Kill" will occupy the screen. In the starring role is Richard Barthelmess, one of the most competent actors to survive the calamitous advent of the talkies, but such a Barthelmess as you have never seen before!

Adapted from the hit play "Small Miracle," "Four Hours to Kill" is a fascinating cross-section of the melodrama that occurs in a New York theatre, where a criminal licks in hiding for his victim.
