BETTE DAVIS HAS sympathetic part in NEW PLAY

"The Girl From 10th Avenue," a First National picture with Bette Davis in the stellar role, comes to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Miss Davis' part is far more sympathetic than the one she played in "Of Human Bondage," but it is anything but a sweet girly-girly role.

Others in the cast are Alison Skipworth, John Eldredge, Phillip Reed, Katherine Alexander, Helen Jerome Eddy, Gordon Elliott, Adrian Rosley, Andre Cheron and Edward McWade.

"Virginian" Thrills Again At the Plaza Tonight and Saturday

"The Virginian" is back again with all its thrills, romance, death, danger, thundering herds and yelling, hard-riding cowboys on the screen of the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Friday and Saturday this week.

"Lady Tubbs" Comes a Cropper

A motion picture that easily ranks as one of the season's most enjoyable comedies is "Lady Tubbs," the Universal screenplay which opens an engagement of three days tonight at the Torrance Theatre.

The story opens on a new railroad under construction in Kansas and then shifts to the luxurious beauty of a Long Island estate.

"STRANDED" new service film AT PLAZA

Warner Bros. latest service story, "Stranded," opens at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Sunday, with Kay Francis and George Brent in the stellar roles.

The Army, the Navy, the Flying Marines and the Department of Justice, have formed the background for big Warner Bros. screen hits.

There is plenty of dramatic incident, nevertheless, a touch of pathos in the romance.

The picture was originally planned, said Grant, "as a means of acquainting easterners visiting the California Pacific International Exposition with the resources and the business facilities of the West."
