WOMEN OF MOOSE HOLD FIRST MEETING
The first meeting of the Women of the Moose, a new unit in civic organization of Torrance, was held in Moose hall, corner Portola and Torrance boulevards, Friday evening, September 6, with all newly elected officers in their respective chairs.

Various committees were appointed, with the following chairman in charge:

Membership, Mrs. Williams; entertainment, Mrs. Theresa Murray; social service, Mrs. Elsie Smith; library, Mrs. Blanch Harshaw; child care and training, Mrs. McManus; home making, Mrs. McCullough; publicity, Mrs. Jessie L. Reeve.

Reports were given by Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Woodhull on their recent visit to Moorshart. They were very enthusiastic about the manner in which the children there are being cared for, and much interested in the work of the child research laboratory. The Women of the Moose are concentrating on this particular phase of Moose activities.

Refreshments were served. Next meeting September 20.

SOUTH CAROLINA FOLKS TO LOCATE HERE
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rowles (Arlie Moore) of Arcadia, South Carolina, will arrive in Torrance, Saturday morning. They will be the guests of Mrs. Rowles' sister, Mrs. J. O. Bishop, 2021 Carson street, until they can locate themselves permanently here. Mrs. Rowles, formerly employed in the Suttle Beauty Parlor, will return to her position there. Mr. Rowles is a professional ball player, having played this year with the South Carolina League. He hopes to gain for himself a place in one of the Coast League teams.

MASONS TO PICNIC AT BANNING PARK
The Torrance Masons will hold their annual picnic Sunday, September 15, in Banning Park, Wilmington, at 12 noon sharp. Coffee, sugar, cream and orangeade will be furnished. Races for all and a baseball game following. Masons, Eastern Stars and their families are invited to attend.

TOWNSEND PICNIC AT CITY PARK
Townsend Clubs of the seventeenth Congressional district will have a picnic in Torrance Park for clubs south of Florence avenue, September 21. George C. Highley will be the speaker.

Some Corsage

Orchids and talisman roses are worn with Santa Catalina Island's lovely bathing girls. They're wearing lacquered flying fish with their bathing costumes. Billie Rogers, who started the fad, shows how the winged fish are worn.

Mrs. Mamie Klineher, district deputy urges all neighbors to reserve the date, as the meeting will be most interesting.

RETURN FROM VACATION TRIP

Rev. and Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler, Manuel avenue, have returned from a week's vacation to Yosemite National Park and Santa Rosa. At Santa Rosa they were joined by Rev. Winkler's sister, Mrs. Lois Koehler of Montana, who is visiting at present with her parents in Los Angeles.

SURPRISE PARTY HONORS MISS LUTE FRASER

The birthday of Miss Lute Fraser, president of the National Business and Professional Woman's Club furnished the incentive for a delightful party at the home of the club's vice president, Mrs. Adelle Montague, 1027 Cota avenue, Monday evening.

Miss Beatrice Hughes, delegate to the biennial to bring the honored guest arrived with Miss Fraser at 8:30 p. m. They were greeted with shouts of happy birthday by the 25 club members present at the Montague home.

Bridge, bunks and a contest to see who could derive the most words from the honored guest's name furnished the evening's entertainment. Bridge prizes were captured by Marie Worcester and Hazel McBride, bunks prizes by Laila Bowen and Lenia Billini and the word prize by Ada Chase. A delicious chicken dinner was served by the hostess at 11:00 p. m. at which time the honoree was presented with a gift from the assembled group and a beautiful birthday cake from her whos.

CHILDREN PICNIC AT GRIFFITH PARK

With more than 100 in attendance the First Baptist church held its annual Sunday School picnic last Saturday at Griffith Park. The amusement concessions and the zoo entertained the children until the big picnic lunch was served at 1 o'clock. Ice cream was served free at 3 o'clock and then the creek in which the children were transported left for Torrance.
