Louie's Slant On Games

Interview With Famous Miler Gives His Latest Authentic Dope On U.S. Entry

Every now and then the question bobs up, will the United States send representatives to the Olympic Games, to be held in Berlin next summer, or will the powers in charge withdraw the American athletes from competition because of the German attitude toward the participation of Jews in the games.

Recently the problem has come up again.

In view of the discussion, the following interview with Louis Zamperini, world's champion interscholastic miler, and a candidate for place on the Olympic team, is timely.

The interview is prepared by Melvin Smith, and takes the form of questions by Smith and answers by Zamperini.

Q: "What do you think your chance will be to become a member of the United States Olympic team?"

A: "I have been training for four years for the one chance to make the team which will represent the United States."

Q: "What will you do if the United States does not take part in the Olympic Games?"

A: "There will be a few nations that will draw out of the Olympic Games if the United States withdraws, thus forming a league of their own which will probably be held in Europe."

Q: "When will the tryouts be held and where?"

A: "California will have its tryouts at the Los Angeles Coliseum, June 19 and 20, 1936. Two weeks following this event will be the United States tryouts which will be held in New York."

Q: "Do you think the Jews will keep the United States out of the Olympic Games in 1936?"

A: "If, by that time, Germany is still contemplating keeping the Jews out of the games, the United States will not enter a team, for it has been voted on by the American Amateur Athletic Association."

Q: "What have the Jews to say about whether or not the United States enters a team?"

A: "America believes that the Olympic Games should be open to any athlete who makes the team regardless of nationality."

Q: "When will the Jewish question be decided?"

A: "It will not be definitely decided until early in 1936."

Q: "Who will you have to defeat in order to make the team?"

A: "I will have to defeat Gene Venzke of Pennsylvania."

Q: "What about Cunningham?"

A: "He has been asked to become a coach of the Olympic team."

Q: "What will you do if you do not succeed in making the team?"

A: "If I do not succeed, I will try again for the 1940 Olympic Games."

Q: "What will you do if you do not succeed in making the team?"

Fish Gathered For Jobs
MIAMI, Fla. (U.P.)—A stop net in the Atlantic ocean, now taking a haul of 2,000 pounds daily and capable of netting 8,000 pounds a day, has been installed near here by Captain Tom H. Newman, pioneer fisherman, to procure free fish for unemployed persons.

Gardena 128; Torrance 16; After Five Years of Play

Tomorrow afternoon Gardena and Torrance will fight it out for the sixth time on the gridiron. So far, Gardena has been the master of four games at Gardena and one at Torrance.

	Torrance	Gardena
1928	0	39
1929	0	32
1931	6	28
1932	0	19
1934	13	12

You will notice that there were no games between the two schools in 1930 and 1932, with Torrance winning one game in 1934.

The game will be played at Gardena, beginning at 2:30 p. m. sharp. If Torrance wins, it will tie them for first place in the Marine league with Narbonne high school; if they lose well that's something else!

Last Year's Game Won

Local fans will never forget the game played last year between these two schools. Torrance came from behind in the last play of the game to win, with a forward pass from Harold Watson to Jack Javens.

Notre Dame May Play In the Rose Bowl This Year

Here is a little advance information. If Notre Dame beats Ohio State Saturday, and finishes the rest of the season undefeated, Coach Elmer Layden will ask for the Rose Bowl game New Year's day.

Football Squad Guests of Theatre

The entire Tartar football squad enjoyed the show at the Torrance Theatre Tuesday evening, as guests of the manager, DeWitt B. VanDerlip. Last year the theatre helped to put over the big game in Torrance by providing an announcer system, by which the plays were relayed to the spectators and everybody had a chance to know what was going on out on the field.

Quail Season Opens November First

Quail season will open in all districts except 14, November 15, and close December 31, according to the outing bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. District 14, which includes Humboldt and Del Norte counties and part of Siskiyou county, will open to quail hunting November 1 and close December 31.

Bag limit will be 10 per day or in possession, and not more than 20 a week. Shooting will be permitted from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset daily.

Dear Hunter Saves His Prey

ALBANY, Ore. (U.P.)—R. L. Dundon went out to kill a deer, but instead saved the life of at least one. He sighted a "whit-top" doe high-tailing it along a ridge. Close behind was a big cougar. Dundon aimed at the cougar, killing it instantly. The deer ran away.

Editor's Note

—Javens converted in first quarter, but was ruled no good, unnecessary roughness. Hubert Luck scored in fourth quarter, a pass from Amman, score not allowed because of unnecessary roughness.

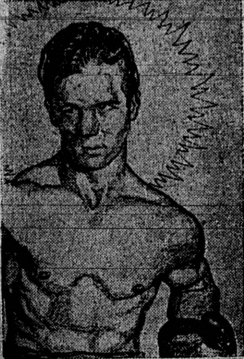

Cuff Notes of Last Week's Game

The greatest high school game that I have ever witnessed... Torrance was the better team of the two, should have won by seven points... Bobby Trezise, Torrance, and Warren Haslam, Narbonne were the outstanding players, although every player on the field was good... Trezise should be all-league quarterback, best punter in entire league, has one more year... Hubert Luck was the hero of the game. Hubert turned down a free trip with Louis Zamperini to attend the U.S.C. vs. California game at Berkeley (guests of the alumni of California).

Johnny Walters, Light Heavy, To Meet Eddie Dreher In Main Event

The Westside Auditorium, 645 W. Anaheim St., Long Beach, presents an eight-round main event tomorrow night featuring Eddie Dreher, pride of Long Beach Ford Plant, and Johnny Walters, a performer of no mean calibre at some of the bigger fite emporiums. Walters who has been working out daily with Jack Gibbons at Jack Dempsey gym in Los Angeles, is tied up tight to a local contract and has promised to train part of the time this week at the Westside arena. Walters rates as a crack light heavyweight.

Walters is the lad who gave Tommy Huffman, local fighter, a licking on the Louis Ramage fight card at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles a few months ago. It is expected that Walters will have his hands full with Dreher. Last Friday night Dreher gave away about 17 pounds in weight to Terris Hill and fought on even terms with him through four hectic rounds that was by far the best bout of the evening. Hill is slated to meet Hank Bath, Jack Kearns new

Fontana Woman Flyer First To Enter Air Races

Additional Features Planned for Championship Event at Long Beach

LONG BEACH—Work is well under way on the huge grandstand and bleachers at the Municipal airport in anticipation of a crowd in excess of 25,000 to attend the women's championship air races and Pacific air pageant, November 10 and 11.

Internationally, the transcontinental dash from Floyd Bennett Field, New York, to the Long Beach airport to determine the champion woman flyer for the year is the most important event. The finish line is in front of the grandstand.

Honors for the first entry in the closed course races goes to Ethel Anne Sheehy of Fontana, California. Other prominent flyers whose confirming entries are expected, are Laura Ingalls in a Lockheed plane, Jacqueline Cochran in a Northrop, Marie Bowman and Henrietta Lantz.

Death Defying Leap

Lucille Cox is scheduled to do her sensational death-defying, delayed parachute jump from 10,000 feet.

Milo Burcham, Long Beach pilot, flew in recently from New York in anticipation of the races. He is to be the leading stunt flyer and will do his upside-down stunting which has made him internationally prominent in this field.

Clem Sohn is signed up to make his parachute jump, coming to earth with the aid of batwings devised by himself and designed to make spectators gasp.

Harold Johnson will do his stunt-flying, and looping in an old tri-motored plane. Harold Neuman is on the program to produce some thrills.

Six parachute jumpers will ball-out from 10,000 feet in a contest to land in a circle directly in front of the grandstand.

Free parking is being arranged for 15,000 cars. These cars will be under guard and within the airport. There will be loud speakers and a public address system installed.

Open Hearth Continues Merrily To Win Ball Games At Columbia

GAME CALLED ON ACCOUNT OF DARKNESS WITH SCORE 12-12

Teams Battle in Furious Conflict for Coveted Championship; Most Spectacular Game Ever Seen Here

Before a crowd that filled the stands on both sides of the field and filled the air with their raucous yells of hope and dismay, the Terrible Tartars and the Gamecock Gauchos met last Friday in their annual grid battle, and what a game. There are just not enough words in any language to do justice to the major engagement that was pulled off there, which ended 12-12, with all honors even and the title for 1935 still undecided.

From the opening kick-off to the final gun the two squads fought with all they had and neither gave an inch or gained a measurable advantage. Substitutions were few. Neither coach dared to risk his second string men in the fray and fortunately for the result injuries were few.

None of the Torrance men were taken out because of injuries and only two Narbonne men left the game for that reason.

Johnny McFadden and Jack Javens were co-captains for the Torrance team, Wallace Mayer for Narbonne.

In the first quarter Trezise intercepted Haslam's pass and punted 40 yards into the coffin corner. McFadden gained 80 yards but fumbled and lost the ball to Narbonne. The Gauchos could not gain and on their try Torrance put the ball deep in Narbonne territory and Javens smashed over the line for the first touchdown. His try for goal was good but the play was called off on a penalty on Thompson and the try for extra point was attempted from the 15-yard line but failed.

In the second quarter Haslam gained 45 yards on a play through left tackle but was forced out of bounds by Javens on the Torrance 15-yard line. On the next play Narbonne pulled off a neat double reverse with Donald Hart finally taking the ball and breaking through for the Gauchos' first score. The conversion failed and at the end of the half the score was 6-6.

Starting the second half Trezise intercepted a long pass intended for McQueen. McFadden fumbled after a good gain on an end play, and the ball was recovered by Gordon Woods who ran 65 yards for a touchdown, but the referee had blown his whistle and the play was called back. Javens intercepted a pass intended for Lee Savant who was injured on the play.

A pass from Haslam to Angelich was good for 40 yards but Torrance staved off the Gauchos' attack on their own five-yard line. Another pass from Haslam to Savant was good for 12 yards with Savant leaving the game with a knicked muscle.

The quarter ended with neither team making a score. In the fourth Hubert Luck, who was playing his first league game for Torrance, took a long pass from Amman and raced over the goal line, but the play was called back and Thompson, Torrance tackle, and Thornd Cook, Narbonne lineman, were ordered from the game for slugging. On the next play McFadden smeared Haslam for a loss of 18 yards. Angelich fumbled and Javens recovered. McFadden scored on a pass from Amman good for 25 yards. The try for conversion was blocked.

With only four minutes left to play, the Gauchos gained successive down on passing plays until they were within striking distance of the Tartar goal line, and scored just as the gun snapped ending the game.

Although there were about two minutes of playing time left, the game was called at 5:18 on account of darkness. Under a ruling of the city school board all high school games must be ended ten minutes after sunset, which occurred last Friday at 5:08, leaving ten minutes to go. Successive times out stilled the game along until darkness had almost arrived, and the Gauchos lost out on a chance to snatch the victory by converting due to the fact that under the rules, when a game is called on account of darkness the try for point can not be made after the gun has sounded. In this case, the referee allowed the try for point, illegal under the rules, but it was no good, and the honors were even at 12-12.

Portland Wants To Remodel League

PORTLAND, Ore. (U.P.)—A realignment of the Pacific Coast League, under which two additional northern cities would be taken in, is suggested by Bill Cissell, manager of the local club.

Cissell believes the league unbalanced at present, what with four clubs—the Missions, Seals, Oakland and Sacramento—operating within 100 miles of San Francisco.

"The people down there don't support a winner," said Cissell. "On the other hand, Portland and Seattle drew exceptionally well. There is only one answer—take the Missions and Sacramento franchisees and move them to Vancouver, B. C., and Tacoma, Washington. Both cities are eager to support league ball."

Portland drew 145,000 fans in its last three weeks stay at home. Three times during that period they were forced to line the overflow crowd on the field, something, Cissell pointed out, none of the California cities has had to do for years. Seattle also enjoyed a prosperous year, yet neither of the northern clubs was an actual winner.
