Giants Forfeit Game to Lomita

The temperamental Los Angeles Colored Giants lost a game by forfeit to the Lomita Merchants last Sunday. A dispute over a wild pitch which allowed Christy Folan to score the tying run at 18th in the eighth led to the Giants' dismissal. The game was a single inning match with Lomita polling 19 and the Giants 10.

Wynegar Angling For New Pitcher

Manager Wynegar of the City of Torrance ball team has secured one of the Pacific Coast League's two teams for an emergency match here next Sunday afternoon. A good game is promised as the freighters are high class. Wynegar will have Louie Cecil on the mound and he is now hunting for the services of another pitcher, as it is tough to get into a game with only one pitcher on the staff. He has two very good men in view and if he can line them up will be prepared for future emergencies.

At Random. If Coach Bernie Donahue decides to let his team play the interlocking game with a Pacific League team, the game will be in Torrance. City Ace, former pitcher of Torrance, showed plenty of stuff in the Loyal vs. U. S. C. L. A. Pross game last Saturday in the L. A. Coliseum. City is a star at Loyola. Bernie Donahue recently defeated Brown University in football for the first time in 20 years.

Next week yours truly will pick his annual All-Marine league team. U. S. C. gets a much needed rest this week, the balance of next season is plenty tough. U. S. C. L. A. should beat their old nemesis, the Golden Bears, Saturday, and then demand the Rose Bowl game. Nick Chayoval, a former resident of Torrance, and now playing college for New Mexico State Teachers College, is off for the rest of the season with a broken leg. Nick broke his leg in two places during practice last week. Ted (Shay) Adzovich, All-back for the Teachers, has also been on the injury list for the past two weeks, with both ankles. Ted was clipped in the Adams college game two weeks ago. He expects to play Saturday against the Texas school of mines.
