Pack the Picnic Basket! Heed Call of Outdoors

If picnics mean a cold ham sandwich, a bottle of pop and a banana to you, then we can hardly blame you for "not liking picnics." But a true picnic addict would never plan such fare. He is apt to choose something that can be prepared over a camp fire, or if he is a trifle on the lazy side he'll pack a hot dish and a thermos of coffee. For even a hardy digestion quails at masses of cold food, even when eaten out-of-doors. If building a campfire appeals to you try this menu:

- CASSEROLE
Potatoes Cooked in Milk
Broiled Lamb Chops or Small Steaks
Buttered Rolls (these may be toasted)
Fresh Tomatoes
Coffee
Fresh Fruit

The potatoes should be prepared at home and left in the oven until just before starting. Then wrap them in layers and layers of newspaper. When the fire is built you may set the casserole at one side and it will be piping hot when needed. This is the way to prepare them:

Casserole of Potatoes
Slice potatoes very thin into a casserole, adding an occasional layer of minced onion. Cover the potatoes with milk and dot with butter, season with salt and pepper and bake in a covered dish until done.

Broiled Chops or Steak
Build a good bed of coals, cover with a grill. (One of the grills from the gas stove, placed on rocks works like a charm). When the fire has died down and there is a bed of brilliant coals, place steaks or chops directly on the grill. Turn twice, place on hot plates, season and serve.

Camp Fire Coffee
When your camp fire has a good start, place an old fashioned coffee pot at one side of the grill with coffee and cold water measured in to the quantity desired. As the rest of the meal is prepared, the fragrant coffee will be in preparation. Camp coffee never boils, but reaches its full perfection by a slow heating—a gentle simmer—that extracts the full flavor from the coffee bean.

Hot Dishes for Picnics
If you have large vacuum jars you may serve any number of varied hot dishes at your picnic. Baked beans, savory stews, creamed chicken or sweetbreads, or spaghetti, are among the favorites. Here is a spaghetti dish that is easy to prepare and delicious.

Spaghetti and Ham en Casserole
2 cups spaghetti broken in pieces
1 cup chopped cooked ham
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups thin white sauce
1/2 cup fine bread crumbs
Break spaghetti in pieces and boil in salted water until tender. Drain and rinse in cold water. Arrange in greased baking dish alternate layers of spaghetti with butter. When all is used, pour over the white sauce seasoned with pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Sprinkle with fine buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven until done.

This dish may be ladled into the vacuum jar just before starting. It is delicious served with tomatoes stuffed with omelette. These may be prepared in advance and kept fresh with layers of paper.

Chill
Soak a pint of dried kidney beans over night. Brown a pound of chopped beef and a chopped onion in 4 tablespoons of fat. Add 2 teaspoons of flour to a can of tomatoes, mix well, and add to the meat. Add the beans, one-half cup uncooked rice, one tablespoon salt, one tablespoon chili powder, one-quarter teaspoon thyme, one-eighth teaspoon cloves and one and one-half pints of water or meat stock. Cook until it reaches the boiling point. Then pour into a casserole and cook very slowly for three and one-half hours.

Picnic Turnovers
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup milk or water
Sift dry ingredients. Use fork to cut in shortening. Add liquid and stir. Roll out 1/4-inch thick on a floured board. Divide into 8 squares. On half of each square spread filling. Moisten edges of dough, lap over to form triangles and press firmly together. Bake in a hot oven 20 to 25 minutes. When cold they are delicious for picnics.

Chicken Fillings for Turnover
Shred cooked chicken or veal to make 1 1/2 cups. Add 1/2 cup thick gravy, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 2 hard cooked eggs diced and 2 tablespoons sliced pickles.

Ham Filling for Turnovers
Grind or mince 1 1/2 cups of cooked ham, mix to a paste with 3 tablespoons of mayonnaise and 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard. Place a thin slice of American cheese in each turnover and cover with ham paste.

Barbecued Sandwiches
These require 1 1/2 pounds of round steak chopped fine or run through a food chopper, 2 medium size mildly-flavored onions, 3 or 4 ripe but firm tomatoes, salt, pepper and a generous supply of butter—at least 1/2 pound. Also baker's rolls which are to be slit in half through the center and toasted if possible. Melt 1/2 pound of butter in a heavy skillet; season the meat, adding just a little grated onion and make up flat loose cakes about the diameter of the rolls. Slip the cakes into the hot butter and sizzle until brown and crusty. Meantime slice the onions wafer thin and the tomatoes a little thicker; remove cakes, add remainder of butter to the pan and melt. Dip the rolls in this and then put the sandwiches together in this way: First a half roll, a slice of onion, seasoning, meat cake, more seasoning, and top with remaining half or roll. These sandwiches are delicious if you prepare them over a picnic fire, but may be wrapped in paper and eaten cold also.

Sloan Baby Passes Away
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sloan, 1240 W. 162d street, Gardena, passed away at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital July 3. The babe, born Wednesday of last week, apparently lifeless was restored after an hour's work by the fire department resuscitator squad, but was too frail to survive.

New York Fashions
By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

Some of the smartest evening dresses this summer, particularly those of crepe and sheer silk, have little separate jackets of fine lace to be worn with them. The nicest ones seen are of white alençon lace, sleeveless and with a long shoulder line, and fasten at the waist line with a single hook. They are usually quite short, and are either fitted or loose. Particularly over dark evening dresses, they are exceedingly effective and enhancing, and they serve as a covering over the décolletage and shoulders. Even on the warmest evenings, a beautifully styled jacket of fine lace adds to the charm of the ensemble.

Hairdressing With Bows
At the opening of the smarter Long Island beach clubs, the different styles of hairdress affected by debutantes were outstanding because of their originality and becomingness. One lovely girl in a voluminous white frock had white lace bows perched on either side of her head. The lace had been starched, tied into perky little bows and impaled on bobby pins. These did double duty, giving her an altogether charming and quaint coiffure, and keeping her stray locks in place.

Make Summer Gloves Dressy
Mesh gloves for summer frocks are practical and cool. To complete an afternoon or evening ensemble, gloves with lacy cuffs are new and flattering to the hands. To dress up your gloves, simply gather narrow val lace and sew two or three rows onto the cuffs, using an overcast stitch, and concealing the stitches.
