

DEAF BOY NOW HEARS RADIO

A mother of a deaf boy, Mrs. Mary Gamphier, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I have used two bottles of OURINE for my boy, and now he hears everything on the radio. Before he used OURINE, he could not hear the radio." OURINE was created by a Vienna ear specialist for people hard of hearing, bothered by head noises, carache, ringing and buzzing. Get relief today with OURINE. Costs only a few cents daily. Money returned if not satisfied. Dolley Drug Co., Torrance.—Adv.

Tone-Young Combination to Begin At Plaza This Sunday

Two great stars, Loretta Young and Franchot Tone, have joined forces to make "The Unguarded Hour," starting Sunday at Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, one of the outstanding films of the season.

Edward G. Robinson

Man of Many Characters, Comes to Plaza July 16 As a Detective

Back in a part which affords him all of the opportunities for characterization that "Little Caesar" gave him, Edward G. Robinson, one of the finest actors on stage or screen, is now playing the stellar role in First National's "Bullets or Ballots" at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, for today, Friday and Saturday.

In this film he plays the part of a hard-boiled detective of the two-fisted school who breaks up an organization of racketeers.

"It is strange," Robinson said, when the subject was brought up, "how the public has dubbed me a gangster, a criminal. This is in spite of the fact that I've played comparatively few such evil roles since 'Little Caesar.' After that picture came 'Smart Money,' then I was a newspaperman in 'Five Star Final,' a fisherman in 'Tiger Shark,' a miner in 'Silver Dollar,' an actor in 'The Man With Two Faces,' and a Caspar Milquetoast in 'The Whole Town's Talking.' My roles have been diversified enough, but whenever my name is billed in a picture the public's mind clicks, 'Gangster.'"

"So I'm glad to have a role as strong as 'Little Caesar' in a picture equally as exciting, equally as fast moving in its absorbing story." The picture "Bullets or Ballots" was directed by William Keighley from the screen play by Seton I. Miller, based on the story by Martin Mooney and Miller.

In the cast are such talented players as Joan Blondell, Barton MacLane, Humphrey Bogart, Frank McHugh, Joseph King and many others.

Wins Bride By Kiss In the Dark

The handsome and popular Francis Lederer sings for the first time on the screen in "One Rainy Afternoon," the gay Parisian romantic comedy which marks the initial offering of the new Pickford-Lasky Productions and begins a three-day engagement at the Torrance Theatre Sunday.

Ida Lupino is cast opposite the star and Hugh Herbert, Roland Young, Erik Rhodes and Joseph Cawthorn head the supporting cast.

The screen play by Stephen Morehouse Avery centers around Philippe Martin—Lederer, of course—a struggling young Paris actor, ambitious to become a great star. How he indirectly accomplishes this purpose and wins a beautiful bride into the bargain by inadvertently kissing the wrong girl in a darkened movie theatre "One Rainy Afternoon," is a hilariously depicted in this laugh-crowded adaptation of the French comedy, "Monsieur Sans Gene."

Also prominent in the cast of the comedy are Countess Lieve de Maigret, Donald Meek, Georgia Caine and Mischa Auer. "One Rainy Afternoon" was directed by Rowland V. Lee. It is released thru United Artists.

Two Much Waited Films at Lomita

One of the season's greatest hits, "The Robin Hood of El Dorado," starring Warner Baxter, and one of the most looked forward feature films of the season, the picture of the Louis-Schmeling fight open this week at the Lomita theatre.

"The Robin Hood of El Dorado," a story of California's greatest outlaw and bandit, Jaquín Murietta, has received the greatest acclaim of any picture produced this year.

Taken from the book of the same name the entire life story of the famous outlaw is authentically and colorfully portrayed.

Those who attend the theatre to see the fight pictures will see a complete round-by-round story of the event. And the knock-out blow—the camera man must have known it was coming, because the picture actually seems to be taken from inside the ring, it is so clear.

Mullin Office Robbed of Cash

Two men who visited the office of the Mullin service station and Oldsmobile agency Friday afternoon are under suspicion of having removed $20 in bills from the cash drawer. The men asked to use the telephone, and were shown into the office. Mr. Mullin was called out before they had completed the call, and it is believed that during his absence they ransacked the desk. The loss of the money was not discovered until Miss Edna Mullin, in charge of the office, had returned from lunch. Police are also looking for a Filipino who is suspected of having robbed the home of Sam Alvaro, 190th and Arlington avenue, of two suits of clothes last Friday.

LITTLE CAESAR IS BACK

Edward G. ("Little Caesar") Robinson seizes control of the $15,000,000,000 secret syndicate of crime from Humphrey Bogart, "Killer Mantee" of "The Petrified Forest," in a film as thrilling as "G Men." It's "Bullets or Ballots," the first National picture coming to the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday. The cast also includes Joan Blondell, Barton MacLane and Frank McHugh.

"Bullets or Ballots" is not a gangster story but a story of racketeers, of supposedly respectable, well-to-do business men, who secretly milk other businesses of hard-earned profits.

Robinson, in the leading role, plays the part of a former detective who has displeased the "big shot" politicians and who finds himself "bushed"—demoted—to the Bronx, to pound pavements as a patrolman. Even there, however, he manages to make the bad boys tip their hats. It is the sort of a characterization that the doughty Robinson likes to play—a role that he can, as he says, get his teeth into.

In the cast are such talented players as Joan Blondell, Barton MacLane, Humphrey Bogart, Frank McHugh, Joseph King and many others.

Earl Barnett Wins First Prize

Another glass picking contest at the Torrance recreation center, 1916 Border avenue, this week resulted in a prize to Earl Barnett, first, and second prize to Francis Krugo. The children who use the playgrounds there under the direction of Mrs. G. H. Sapp, took part in the contest, and picked up in all 12,083 pieces of glass.

High praise of the "Torrance on Review" edition has also been expressed by T. C. Macaulay, executive manager of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce. "I have looked it over with a great deal of interest and certainly think that your community and your organization are to be congratulated, as well as the newspaper itself, upon getting out such an interesting pictorial story," writes Mr. Macaulay.

From L. A. Times
From Verne W. Bailey of the Los Angeles Times comes the comment, "Thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending the special edition of the Herald which is certainly an impressive and well done job. You people out there are mighty live and I hope the fine work you are doing is appreciated by the city you are helping so much."

Mounting Prestige
Another interesting comment comes from A. G. Arnold, general manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, who writes, "Many thanks for sending me the interesting special edition of the Torrance Herald. It certainly emphasizes the growing importance of your community and its mounting prestige as one of the county's principal industrial centers."

Will Attract Citizens
And from Charles P. Bayor, field secretary of the L. A. chamber, "The copy of the Silver Anniversary edition of the Torrance Herald has just come to my attention. Permit me to extend my congratulations upon this fine number of your local paper. I feel certain it will be responsible for helping to attract a number of industries and new citizens to your community."

Boiling Paint Causes Blaze

A can of paint, set on a kitchen stove to melt, caused a fire Monday at the home of C. C. Scott, 1612 220th street, and a damage of about $100 to the dwelling. The paint, of an asphaltic nature, used to cover a driveway, boiled over and caught fire. The Torrance fire department was called to put out the flames.
