

Miller Is Generous

Furniture Man Will Donate Percentage Of Sales to Parent Teachers Fund

With the score 15-3 in favor of the Miller Furniture, pitted against the Columbia Steel, Friday night in one of the last games of the City Short Ball League, Umpire Culp ended the agony for the steel man by calling the game in the sixth inning. The score was hopelessly one-sided and the Miller boys were rapidly becoming exhausted from running bases and the steel boys from running after base hits.

In the second game Friday night the Safeway Stores came within an ace of breaking their season's record by winning from the Arnold & Pullman team. The Safeway went into the last half of the seventh with the score, 8-8, but the independent grocery boys put over the winning run with two out, making a thrilling finish for the evening's pastime. Too bad the Safeway are just beginning to hit their stride, with the season practically ended.

Welfare Work Benefits

Scorekeeper Jack Modesitt announces that for the championship playoff games which will be played shortly, an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. The proceeds will be turned over to the Torrance Elementary Parent Teachers Association for their welfare work. The P. T. A. will be in charge of the ticket sales, and Jack Miller of the Miller Furniture Store has announced that to increase the fund that will go towards this benevolent purpose he will give the P. T. A. ten percent of the sales at his store from now until the date of the championship games. Each person who spends a dollar at the furniture store will receive a ticket good at the ball park for any play-off game and Miller will redeem them from the P. T. A. at the admission price of ten cents.

San Pedro Girls To Play Arizona Team Here Sun.

The San Pedro girl softball team comes back to Torrance Sunday evening, bent on showing fans of this community that last week's walloping handed out by the Max Factor team was not by any means the kind of ball they play ordinarily. Tired from a campaign that had lasted thru five days, the girls also were handicapped considerably by the wet grass in the outfield, which made it nigh impossible to chase a fly ball. The Max Factor team was equipped with "spiked" shoes and were able to catch balls that San Pedro could not touch.

This week the team is importing the Phoenix, Ariz., W.O.W. squad. In two games, on July 4 and 5, San Pedro defeated the Phoenix outfit twice in the Arizona city and hope to continue the streak by taking the series here.

State Champions

Boasting some of the best feminine baseball players in Arizona, the W.O.W. team holds the championship of the state for last year and have won the first half title again this season. Lois Pitts, star hurler, the "Lois Terry" of Arizona, whose fast ball tosses failed to fool San Pedro last month, will try again when the team comes here.

San Pedro in the meantime has been scouting for shoes for outer gardeners and this time, balls that last week went for home runs, will become ordinary putouts.

The game is billed for the municipal park and will start 8:15 p. m.

SHE'S A NIFTY ON DOUBLE PLAYS

Lois Springman, San Pedro shortstop, a Lomita girl, who will see plenty of action Sunday evening when the San Pedro and Phoenix W. O. W. teams clash in a tilt scheduled at the Torrance city park. With Virginia Alford, another Lomita girl, the San Pedro second base combination is rated the best in Southern California. They have completed many double plays during the season and both are hitters of ability.

America's Two Great Distance Runners Are In There

Louis Zamperini, Torrance Tornado, proved to the world, and himself, Tuesday afternoon, at the Berlin Olympic Games, that he is the No. 1 man in the 5000-meter run for the United States. Tomorrow, Louis will try to be the first American runner to ever take a first in the long grind. Don Lash took a third in the first heat.

Archie San Ramoni Has Relative In Torrance

Mrs. Frances Tansey Santore of Torrance not only had her eyes on Louis Zamperini this week, but was keeping a very close tab on the new 1500-meter sensation of the United States, Archie San Ramoni. Why? Well the great Kansas runner is her sister's boy. Mrs. Santore is one of the loyal women followers of sports in the city, and loves to talk about her now famous nephew. Well who wouldn't?

"Good Luck Louie" Reads Local Sign

LeRoy "Stew" Trompson, proprietor of the Fountain Cafe, Sartori avenue, and former track and football star for the Torrance Tartars, has a unique way of wishing Louis Zamperini the best of luck for his big race tomorrow in Berlin. "Stew" has cut a beautiful picture of an Olympic athlete out of a magazine, pasted the picture on a white 11x14 card, and printed across the bottom, "Good Luck Louie." The card is in the cafe's show window. Well let's hope that this remembrance brings the "Torrance Tornado" luck enough to win for the United States.

Vonderahe Host To Baseball Club

Coach Paul Vonderahe was host when he entertained members of the Sandy and Scotty Baseball Club at a spaghetti feed recently. After the dinner the club joined in general baseball gossip, which lasted until 11:30 p. m.

chestra, the Redondo Junior Chamber of Commerce, who made possible the band's appearance here, has arranged to conduct a dance contest for the Swing Dance championship of the world at which Helen Ward herself will officiate as a judge and award the cups.

Miss Ward, a native of New York City, made her debut as vocalist with Goodman's orchestra while the latter was headlining the three-hour "Let's Dance" program over NBC. Little more than a year ago, after winning the coveted spot in competition with countless other lasses who wanted to sing with his famous organization.

Miss Ward is Goodman's only feminine vocalist and has been featured with him on all his programs since joining his orchestra. Her resonant vocal renditions were heard in addition to the Let's Dance Program, on the RCA program and the Elgin Revue on NBC. Helen was also featured by Benny at the Congress Hotel in Chicago where the orchestra recently made the Windy City "swing music" conscious.

their final game of the City Short Ball League season, and defeated the Star Department Store, 1-0. Pierson let the Stars down with three hits, well scattered, and struck out six men. Luevano, pitching for the Stars, struck out 10 Columbia batters but slipped a bit in the sixth when he walked Venable, struck out Pierson and Molinar, and yielded a double to Ruiz, for the steel men's only run.

Sandy & Scotty's boys outclassed the Arnold & Pullman boys in the first game of the evening, winning 9-1 to make them the undisputed leaders of the league. Salo Luevano, pitcher for the Arnold & Pullmans, scored their only run in the seventh inning on a smash to Tony Nady which Tony found too hot to handle and the ball went far out in center, for a homer.

Chuck Mearing was retired from the game early when he stopped a fast throw from Earl Smith, and injured his hand.

The only games left to play in the short ball league are Miller Furniture against National Supply, and Lomita vs. Safeway. The Millers are now tied with National with seven wins and four lost. The result of this game will put the loser into a tie with the Star Department Store for the third spot.
