

Glass Fish Line a Reality
TOLEDO (U.P.)—The latest thing in glass developed by the Owens-Illinois Glass company is fibrous glass fishing line, said to be stronger than silk or linen, and resistant to fungi and mold in water.

Cars Crash On Narbonne Ave.

Carl K. Vermillion, 68 Riverside, Long Beach, was placed under arrest Monday on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, following a collision at State Highway 101 and Narbonne avenue. Vermillion is said to have disregarded a boulevard stop at the intersection and collided with a car driven by Elias Belancourt, Jr., 1802 Paducah, Los Angeles. No one was injured.

Notice of Intention

Notice of intention to marry was filed with the county clerk this week on behalf of Harry P. Weber, 44, of the U.S.S. Lexington, and Willie L. Harvey, 36, of 2323 Evans court, Lomita, and John G. Hiltorf, 37, of 1311 Sartori street, Torrance, and Ruth S. Pease, 30, of Long Beach.

Voted for 18 Presidents
ASHTABULA, O. (U.P.)—Jesse S. Mack, 96, claims the record of voting in more Presidential elections than any other living person. Mack has cast his ballot for 18 Presidential nominees.

Roy Thorsen Dies After Long Illness

After three months of illness, Roy Thorsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Thorsen, 25107 Eshelman avenue, Lomita, passed away yesterday at the Los Angeles General hospital. Roy, it was believed was recovering, but passed away following a slight operation made to drain an accumulation of pus in the hip. He would have been 15 years old next Thursday, August 20, and had been a resident of Lomita all his life.

He leaves besides his parents, two brothers, Trygve and Jacob, and one sister Evalyn, all of Lomita.

Funeral arrangements have not been concluded, but will probably be held Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the A. M. Gamby Mortuary chapel, 25001 Narbonne avenue, with interment at Inglewood.

SHOP TALK

By RAY BROOKS

Fourteen Torrance merchants advertise fourteen exceptionally fine bargains in today's paper under the heading of "Bargain Day." These items will be on sale tomorrow only, and every one of them are real buys. Look up these box items and check them for your needs.

These box items will be a monthly feature, appearing the second Friday of each month. Plan to look for them. They carry money-saving news.

Now that Doc Bingham went and got himself married, it appears that perhaps the other dentists in town will get some of the young feminine dental business Bing has had cornered so long. But on the other hand, I ask you, how can there be any romance with a dentist when he pins you in a chair, rams that grinder down your throat and stuffs your mouth full of saws, hammers, pliers, chisels, etc., etc.

However, the dentists do pretty well. Perhaps we should ask them!

While we are on the subject of doctors, et al, let me remind you that Dr. H. G. Mitts, chiropractor, has moved his offices from the Cabrillo avenue address to 1337 El Prado, across the street from the Herald building. A new neon sign (installed by none other than that master "signsman" Samuel Kennedy), shines out like anything, and now when irate readers come in and twist our collective necks all we have to do is stand in the doorway and holler.

Announcement is made in today's issue of the opening in Torrance soon of a new home appliance concern, with a salesroom at 1279 Sartori, next door to the Torrance Mutual Building & Loan Co.

The new store will be operated by one J. P. Allison and is a branch of Don's Radio Shop of Gardena. It will be known as "MODERN APPLIANCES." The exact date of opening is not yet known, but probably will be next week.

Put on your glad rags, all you terpsichorans, and hustle over to the civic auditorium this coming Saturday night to Torrance's first civic dance. The entrance fee is only 75c per couple, and the music is from all reports, very hot. Jack Gladhill, of Anaheim, is the orchestra leader and they say his boys can "swing" it.

Bob Thomas and John Rogers are the sponsors of the affair and to them we wish lots of success. Certainly Torrance could stand a civic enterprise of this nature, and if the dance is conducted properly, it has every chance of becoming a regular weekly feature. As it is now, all those who have itchy feet have to travel miles to other towns to relieve that condition. Particularly is that true of the younger people. It would be a fine thing if they had a good, clean bit of amusement right here at home.

Very similar to the old saw about locking the barn after the horse has been stolen is the equally old saw about mending the roof after it starts to rain.

But very sound are both of these ancient wheezes, and as regards the latter, no one knows the truth of it better than T. W. Conley, 20 years a roofer, who has recently opened a completely equipped roofing establishment at 1936 Lomita boulevard, Lomita.

Mr. Conley operated in Compton before coming to Lomita, as well as doing several jobs in Torrance.

Says Mr. Conley: "Now is the time to re-roof... BEFORE the winter rains start and while the men and equipment are available."

With apologies to Schultz & Peckham, I strongly recommend an article appearing in the July issue of Reader's Digest about the Model T Ford. This little yarn makes the most enjoyable reading I have experienced for years. It's entitled "Goodbye, My Lovely." And to anyone who ever owned one of these mysterious, stubborn, inhuman contraptions fondly remembered as a Model T, this squib will bring tears of laughter to his eyes and a complete appreciation of what every Model T owner went through during those trying years when Henry Ford's mechanical brainstorm was only a small child and every Ford buyer was, by comparison, a mere infant. Read it for a good laugh.

Torrance Girl Hurt In Crash

Johnny Joyce, 904 Portola avenue, was pinned under the steering wheel of his car, and Miss Donna Jo McCutchen received a bad gash on her forehead in an automobile accident in Wilmington Wednesday evening of last week. A drunken driver is said to have been responsible for the collision at B street and Wilmington boulevard. Betty Wright, also a passenger with Joyce, escaped injury.

Opportunity Knocks Twice
TOLEDO (U.P.)—Marie Kusan wasn't present the first time her name was called at a local theater's bank night. A few weeks later she won $325 at the same theater.
