SHOP TALK

By RAY BROOKS

Sponsored by the merchants of Torrance and conceived and promoted by a few of the more far-sighted members, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of our city will be celebrated today, tomorrow and Saturday with an event aptly named "The Silver Anniversary Festival."

The celebration was designed to bring more people to Torrance. It was designed to help no merchant or group of merchants alone; but ALL merchants, ALL doctors, dentists, and everyone even remotely connected with any and all types of business in Torrance.

Stores and offices alone do not make a city. It's the people who trade in those stores and offices. Out on the desert there are dozens of so-called "ghost towns," where once there was flourishing trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland "Sandy" Sanderhoff returned this week from a 4500-mile trek into Canada and the northwest. One 4 A. M. while camped in Glacier National Park, they were awakened by a big black bear when the latter was in the process of making off with the food supply.

Further proof that Manager Forbes of the local E. Lewis Buick agency is on his toes and selling cars is the fact that Dr. and Mrs. Bishop, Frank Wirtz, and Dudley Polhemus all have new Buicks.

The Torrance Mutual Building and Loan Association are now in their new home, 1335 Post avenue. The formal opening is scheduled for Saturday, September 12.

The new building is one of the finest in town and has been completely remodeled at considerable expense. The front has been patterned after the new civic buildings, with white stucco of modern design and the new, modernistic green letters.

The interior has been beautifully appointed and two offices were added on the rear which necessitated adding 12 feet to the building. A large vault has been built right into the walls and is of reinforced concrete with an all-metal floor.

Obviously, business is better with building and loan companies, which is a heartening sign of returning prosperity. To Torrance Welch, E. T. Rippey and W. E. Rowen, our heartiest congratulations on their better business and new building.

PICKED UP HITHER AND THITHER: The orchid, the beauty of which was enhanced by the charm of the one who wore it.

Aggie Lou Rippey, and the corsages worn by the women of the Zamperini family, as well as the buttonieres in the laps of the Zamperini men, as they all gathered last Friday night to do honor to Track Man Louis, were the gift of Mrs. Ruth Haggard, Poppy Flower Shop.

County Activities

Glendale city officials do not feel that sufficient time is available to properly consider the county manager proposal for Los Angeles county between now and the November 3 election.

In a communication to the board of supervisors, Glendale city officials urged that no action be taken which might place the county manager or any of the other three proposals of the joint committee on governmental simplification before the voters at the November election.

The city directors of Pasadena on the other hand, forwarded an endorsement of the county manager proposal to the supervisors, and also urged that the second of the four proposals be submitted to the voters at the November election. They reserved judgment on the other proposals, which deal with distribution of the county's share of gasoline tax funds to the 24 cities and the unincorporated area, and, lastly, equalization of burdens and benefits.

Both Glendale and Pasadena have city managers, and are but two of several throughout the county, another being Long Beach.

The Los Angeles county fair grounds will be made practically self-supporting after this year, by action of the board of supervisors in taking $4956 out of the final budget for the upkeep of the grounds, just before the final budget was adopted, it was stated today.

The county is contributing $12,000 for the construction of a new metal roof for the old exhibit building, which will last for the life of the building. The roof design also will withstand movement from earth shocks without leaking, according to engineers.

Errands of mercy, with life or death in the balance, are made day and night by ten Los Angeles county general hospital ambulances, which total 1,000 miles every 24 hours in their trips.

The ambulances carry an average of 92 patients every day, one out of every five being an emergency case.

Careful driving by the hospital's 36 drivers has ended in but one minor accident being recorded in the last 200,000 miles of constant travel thru traffic crowded highways.

The cost of transporting 33,667 patients last fiscal year was but $1.83 each as compared with $2.28 each for the previous year.

A Worn Shoe Fits Best

A Worn Shoe Is the Most Comfortable

But these are only incidental reasons for having shoes repaired.

Through new modern methods we can rebuild old shoes to actually look as good as new.

More than that, our rebuilt shoes will wear longer than new ones because we add to the material already in the shoe to make it stronger and more durable than when it came from the factory.

Bring a pair in today and let us show you how we can save your feet and your pocket book.
