BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Histories In Brief of Business Directory Advertisers

Mr. Arthur Mullin, owner and manager of the Mullin's Complete Auto Service, came to Torrance originally from Canada. In Canada Mullin was assistant chief electrical engineer for the Dominion Iron and Steel Company during the construction of their $20,000,000 plant at Sydney, Nova Scotia. When he arrived in Torrance Mullin took a job as foreman of an electrical gang at the Columbia Steel plant. During the war he was employed as an electrician in the ship building yards and in 1918 he returned to Torrance and served as an electrician at the National Supply Company. It was following seven years of employment with the National Supply that Mullin took over his present business. The advertisement for Mullin's Complete Auto Service is found below under Service Stations.
