N. B. P. W. MEETS AT CHASE HOME
Members of the National Business and Professional Woman's Club will meet Monday evening at the home of Miss Ada Chase, 2118 1/2 Carson street. Meeting starts promptly at 7:30 p. m. at which time there will be a surprise. Don't be late.

Candlelight Service Makes Gardena Girl Bride of Frank Perkin

All white asters and larkspur with a background of palms and ferns decorated St. Andrew's Episcopal church for the candle light ceremony Sunday at 4 p. m., when Miss Viola Fevertson, of Gardena, became the bride of Frank E. Perkin, 2208 Gramercy avenue. Rev. F. Murray Clayton performed the ceremony in the presence of 126 persons.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father was lovely in a gown of dusky pink lace over pink satin. She wore a tiny pink lace turban with shoulder veil and slippers of pale blue satin. Her bridal bouquet was of tuberous begonias and bouvardia.

Bridal Party
Miss Fay Brockman, of Gardena, was Miss Fevertson's only attendant. She wore a gown of chartreuse green and carried a shower bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Irwin Landenburg, of Los Angeles, served as best man. Judge Robert Lessing and Donald Hyde were ushers. Madame Teala Billini at the organ played the wedding march and played softly while the guests assembled.

A reception for the couple was held at the home of the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Melz, 2216 Gramercy avenue. Seventy-five were present. The couple then started on a northern honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Los Angeles.

Affiliations
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fevertson, of Gardena, graduate of Gardent high school, and has for the past five years been employed as secretary to Jack Morgan at the National Supply Company.

Mr. Perkin has resided in Torrance for the past 15 years, was graduated from Torrance high school with the class of '23. Later he attended the South Western Law school. For the past few years he has taken an active interest in civic affairs in Torrance. He recently accepted a position with the Southern California Telephone Company, resigning from the Columbia Steel Company in Torrance, where he had been employed for a number of years.

D. & B. SALES MANAGER MOVES TO TORRANCE
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phillips, of Bakersfield have established a residence in Torrance at the Gaylord Apartments, 1116 Sartori avenue.
Mr. Phillips is sales manager for the D. & B. Pump and Supply Company in this district, having served the company in this capacity for the past three years.

Telephone Exchange Scene of Party

Coming as a complete surprise to Mrs. Alice Groves, who resigned as telephone operator at the local exchange today, was the shower given in her honor Friday afternoon. The parlor of the telephone exchange where the affair was held held was gayly decorated. Huge baskets of mammoth dahlias in rich browns and purple were placed about. Smaller baskets of pom poms in gold and brown were placed on tables. In the center of the room a basquette was filled to overflowing with gifts for the little boy or girl expected at the Groves' home. Each gift in the basquette was attached to a pink or blue crepe paper streamer extending from the chandelier.

Refreshments served were ice cream roll in white with a pink stork in the center, white and chocolate cake and coffee. In the party were the honoree and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. N. Groves; Lillian Faulkner, Naomi Gerry, Merrill Rankley, Jane Roberts, Margaret Schatz, Marie Smith, Helen Hart, Laura Turcott, Muriel White, Orda Feitzke and Marjorie Irvine.

JENSEN-BUFFINGTON WEDDING SUNDAY

Coming as a complete surprise to their host of Torrance friends was the wedding in Zion National Park, Sunday, of Lulse Jensen and Frank Buffington. Mrs. Buffington's son John was present at the wedding. The party returned to Torrance Wednesday morning but plan to make their home in Monrovia. Mr. Buffington recently opened a shoe store in that city.

J. A. Host At Pirate Party

Captain Kidd, that notable pirate of long ago, had nothing on the daring group who gathered at the Barrington home, 2368 Torrance boulevard, Saturday afternoon to help J. A. Barrington celebrate his 11th birthday. It was a pirates' party with pirate hats, pirate nut cups and chests of gold. In the center of the luncheon table was a cake in the shape of a ship with paper sails and 11 candles around the outside. As the candles burned the paper caught fire and all together the children cheered. Best of all, the cake contained treasures and never was a cake demolished so quickly, for pennies were baked in the cake and each piece had at least one shiny penny wrapped in wax paper. A tug of war started the play after luncheon and all games were played with sides chosen by leaders.
