"Faster, Faster!" by E. M. Delafield (the title is out of "Alice in Wonderland") is a first-rate light novel. An amusingly deft sketch of a modern woman, the author paints a delightful portrait with devastating strokes and malicious humor which every woman will relish and every man will chuckle over.

Dr. Cronin's latest novel, "The Stars Look Down," contains all the ingredients for a great novel and is without doubt one of the outstanding books of the season. It presents a most convincing picture of life in a mining community between the years 1903 and 1933. There are no dull moments and with vigorous characterization it offers excellent and unflagging entertainment.

"The African Queen" by C. E. Forster is a picture of the stirring adventures of a young missionary and a cockney engineer employed by a mining company 200 miles up a jungle river in German Central Africa, at the beginning of the World War. It is a most stirring yarn which holds your attention from the first to the last word.

"National Velvet" by Enid Bagnold. Christopher Motley says, "I do not know where you would go in recent fiction to find a family interior more carefully captured and made real, every line of dialogue and every progression and relevant to the plot." "Velvet Brown," 13-year-old girl whose life was absorbed in her horse and how she came to win a great race; Ma Brown the former champion swimmer; Pa Brown the Butcher and all the rest, not forgetting the argumentative Donald, are all to be found in this most diverting story of English family life.

North Torrance Matron Entertains

Mrs. Lela Gonner, North Torrance, was hostess at a very artistically arranged luncheon on Thursday, Sept. 24, given in honor of Mrs. Adelle Fitzpatrick, who is leaving for an extended visit with her brother and family at Sonoma, Calif.

The guests were all friends of long standing. Those present were the hostess, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, of Hawthorne, formerly of North Torrance; Mrs. Kate Mann, Mrs. Lena Gahwolf, Mrs. Georgia Elliott, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Lorraine Mann, all of North Torrance, and Mrs. L. E. Bottamy of Long Beach.

Mrs. Gonner was assisted by her charming daughter, Mrs. Mann. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers from the park-like garden.

Surf and Sand Club May Close

Unless the city of Hermosa Beach concedes to the demands of the Surf and Sand club, located on the strand at that city, the club will close its doors forever on Nov. 1, says Manager Frank Garbutt. For some years the club has been trying to effect an exchange of beach frontage with the city, and has not been successful. It is impossible, says Garbutt, to operate a beach club successfully, unless the club can control the beach in front of it. In the past five years, or since the Los Angeles Athletic Club took over the management of the Surf and Sand Club in 1930 when the latter was ready to fold up, the financial losses have amounted to $176,387.52. No possible way to offset these losses and show a profit is visible unless the Surf and Sand club can gain control of its beach frontage.

CURRENT AFFAIRS at TORRANCE HIGH

By JOHNNY McDONALD

We hope the new teachers at Torrance high school feel thoroughly at home by this time and like their new location for teaching. A list of teachers follows, with their replacements and departments: Mrs. M. Allen for Mr. Barrow in the science department. Mr. Barrow is now teaching English. Mr. Stone for Mr. Crow, science and agriculture; Miss Shearer for Mrs. Granger, mathematics; Miss M. Janevics for Miss Weaver, commercial. In the office, Miss E. Rubin replaces Miss A. Herron. In addition, Mr. Bert Merrill takes over the basketball team and some of the physical education periods. He is assisting Mr. Donahue.

Here is the complete staff of editors for the Monthly Flame: Editor, Irma Shafer; associate editor, Daphne Landreth; joke editor, Norma Jacobs; activity editor, Henrietta King; boys' sports editor, Charles Smith; girls' sports editor, Helen Eriker; alumni news, George Higgins and Jean Hudson; art editor, Wesley Javens; circulation and exchange manager, Harvey Abramson.

During the practice football game held last Friday, Sept. 25, Bob Trezise broke his left elbow. It will keep him out of the games for the remainder of the season. This writer is not what would be called a football observer, but he knows a good player when he sees one, and Bob was sure it.

Something which bids fair to become a worse obsession than "knock-knocks" and "handles" is the fad of wearing those cute little red and gray sailor-type hats. The cheer leaders were wearing them last Friday, and even the girls are seen wearing them. They even wear them in class!

Paris Styles

PARIS. (U.P.)—Schiaparelli has been making the fall wardrobe of Mrs. Byron Foy, daughter of Walter Chrysler, American automobile magnate.

Mrs. Foy selected one of the most outstanding costumes in the entire collection—the suit which is half made of black cloth and half made of inkly seal. The front of the skirt is of seal and the back of cloth, while the back of the jacket is fur and the front is of wool. Crown buttons fasten the jacket.

Two of Mrs. Foy's selections are identical with those chosen by Marlene Dietrich from the same house. One is a cocktail ensemble in black wool, consisting of a dress and jacket. The jacket of the ensemble is trimmed with gold embroidery in a palm tree design. The second costume, like that of the cinema actress, is a deshabille in black velvet. The clinging hostess gown consists of a black velvet robe worn over a foundation of orchid satin.

Wine red (called Chateaufort du Pape at Schiaparelli) makes a dinner dress. There are touches of black taffeta on the gown and the jacket is of black taffeta.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP
Sealskin and black wool are used in a new fall suit.

Lewis-Walton Wedding Saturday

Alma May Lewis will become the bride of Wilford Earl Walton at a ceremony to be performed in the library of the Blue Triangle Court in Fresno, Saturday, Oct. 3, at 3:30 p. m. in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends, by the Rev. J. L. Lyons. The wedding unites two pioneer Fresno county families. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Albert Lindsay Lewis, of Coalinga, and the late Adeline May Lewis. She was educated in the Coalinga schools and was graduated from Central California Commercial College. For the past nine and one-half years she has been employed in the civil department of the Fresno county sheriff's office. Miss Lewis is an active Y. W. C. A. worker and served as delegate to the national convention at Colorado Springs in April. She is a past president of the Palomar Club and a member of the Legal Secretary's Association. Reside in Torrance.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Walton, of Oakland, was graduated from Fresno schools and University of California, where he was affiliated with Chi Pi Sigma fraternity. He is employed as junior metallurgist at Columbia Steel Company in Torrance where the couple will make their home.

Lunds to Attend World's Series

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lund, 1310 Manuel avenue, leave Friday (tomorrow) for 30 days' vacation in the east. They plan to go east on one of the new streamline trains. They will visit with Mr. Lund's three sisters in New York, and with relatives and friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lund, both enthusiastic sports fans, plan to attend a part of the world series baseball games and take in some of the horse races on eastern tracks. They plan to purchase a new Buick car and return home about Nov. 1.

Will Join In Gay Affair At New Auditorium

Sure and it's the talk of the town. The funny paper ball, Saturday, Oct. 3, at 8:30 p. m., in the civic auditorium. Prepare to see your favorite comic character for each and every one will be there. St. Cecelia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church has planned the affair with the utmost care. Cash prizes will be awarded and only those appearing as funny paper folk may compete.

Of course, if Napoleon, Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck or Sparkie win, the animals will have their day. If you do not care to wear costume, come anyway, and enjoy the dancing. Jack Gledhill's very best orchestra will furnish the music.

Guest Artist
Jimmy Newell will be a guest at the affair and if his contract with Allen and Burns permits, may warble a tune or two. Don't miss out on this affair. Secure tickets from members of the dance committee or at the door. Mrs. Frank Paours, chairman for the affair, has as her assistants Mrs. Guy Kelley, Jack Snow, Fred Quaggin, Ray Brooks, L. H. Delinger and Edward Rothen.
