Eubank Elected To High Office

Dwight Eubank, a graduate of Narbonne high school, has recently been elected to the presidency of the student body at Compton Junior College. His election was most unique, inasmuch as he was the first lone candidate for the presidency since the founding of the junior college in 1927. Dwight has been a huge success at Compton, due perhaps to his splendid personality and initiative. He is one of the most important and popular men on the campus, having held nearly every high office. Eubank is also president of the Tartar Knights and a former editor of the Tartar Shield, weekly newspaper. With the capable and dependable Dwight Eubank at the helm Compton Junior College looks forward to another banner year.

RECREATION Department Notes

The Torrance Horseshoe Club has now been organized, with Harry Root as president; David (Lefty) Williams, secretary, and Charles Gibson as treasurer. Mr. Root has issued a call for all members of the club to be present next Sunday, Oct. 11, at Torrance city park.

All horseshoe players in this vicinity are invited to attend. No charge is made for entry into the club. The third local match game with Gardena will be played at Torrance city park, Sunday, Oct. 11, at 9:30 a. m.

The Torrance recreation department urges all who are able to do so to attend the handicraft display at Patriotic hall, 1316 So. Figueroa, Los Angeles. Time is from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. except Friday, Oct. 9, when the display will be open until 10 p. m.

The girls' ball team practice days have been changed to Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings after school, according to an announcement made by Roy Chambers.

Lomita Citizens Ask Local Office

For some time citizens of Lomita have felt the need of a local gas company office and for the past two weeks have been circulating a petition requesting that such an office be installed. They plan to present it to the Southern California Gas Company officials soon.

At the present date well over 1,000 names have been signed to the document which, it is reported, has been received with favor by almost all persons to whom it has been submitted.

It was pointed out that within the city limits of Lomita over 2,500 meters are installed, and by the present system all persons who use gas must drive to the Torrance office to arrange for any desired service or to pay their bills.

With a subscription total of this size using the service the Lomita people think that there is sufficient business to warrant a separate office being installed to provide them with the necessary service.

Lamb and Rice a Delightful Combination

Lamb and rice, according to history, is a food combination of strictly oriental origin. Since lamb has been the favorite food in oriental countries for many, many years, it is not surprising that these two foods form the basis of a desert feast. It is a common sight, say oriental travelers, to see a whole lamb being roasted over an open fire in preparation for a feast day. The lamb is roasted whole, then torn apart with the hands and served with a steaming bowl of hot, highly flavored rice.

The platter of lamb and rice, pictured here, while it is not too oriental to be enjoyed, is suggestive of those far away desert scenes. Instead of the whole lamb roasted over an open fire, it makes use of the ever popular rib chops, which are broiled by direct heat, the method most nearly approximating outdoor cookery.

To broil lamb chops perfectly, thoroughly preheat the broiling oven with the regulator set to "high." Place the chops on the rack far enough from the flame or heating element that by the time the top is nicely browned, they will be about half done. Then season with salt and pepper, turn, and allow them to finish cooking.

For the chops, pictured here, the meat has been removed from the ends of the rib bones, and ripe olives placed over these bones, another oriental influence.

Rather than seasoning the rice highly, you may want to serve it as a mound of plain boiled rice, and serve the highly seasoned sauce separately so that each person may add a quantity large or small as he prefers. A spiced tomato sauce such as the one given below is delicious with both lamb and rice.

Tomato Sauce
2 cups cooked tomatoes
1 tablespoon fat
1 small onion
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup catsup
Black pepper, red pepper, salt and mustard to taste
Cut the onion and garlic into very fine pieces and let brown slightly in hot fat. Add the other ingredients and let cook until flavors are blended and the mixture is slightly thickened. Serve with lamb and rice.

Citizens Should Co-operate With Department Against Fire Hazards

Reports received by the insurance department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, indicates that effective work is being done during fire prevention week by the fire departments of the country. Not so many years ago the only duty of fire departments was to extinguish fires after they had started. During recent years the work of the fire department has broadened to include fire prevention. This is a recognition of the axiom that the easiest fire to put out is the one that never starts.

The Torrance fire department is co-operating with others throughout the country in carrying on this important work. The fire chiefs' own organization, the International Association of Fire Chiefs, is an active member of the National Fire Waste Council, which is affiliated with the insurance department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in conducting a nation-wide program of fire prevention among local chambers of commerce and trade associations.

Dangerous Practice
There are many ways in which citizens can and should co-operate with their fire department. Motorists can do their share by refraining from following apparatus to a fire. This dangerous practice has resulted in a number of deaths and injuries and in addition frequently delays trucks in reaching the scene of the fire. Business men may be of assistance by co-operating with members of the fire department who visit their establishments to make inspections.

County Activities

Personnel for the 4,296 election boards that will serve at the Nov. 3 presidential election one month hence has been decided upon by the board of supervisors and publication will be made soon.

The second district has the larger number of boards, totaling 910. The other four districts all have less than 900 boards. Supervisor H. C. Legg has 888 in the first district, Supervisor John Anson Ford has 896 in the third district, Supervisor Leland M. Ford of the fourth district, new chairman of the board, has 816 boards, the smallest number of the five districts.

There are about 32 consolidations throughout the county where one election board will serve two precincts, due to a small handful of voters in one precinct. Nine of these are in the fifth district. No new boards were added following the Aug. 25 primary election.

First installment taxes will be due and payable on Nov. 1, three weeks hence, according to a reminder issued today by H. L. Byram, county treasurer and tax collector.

One-half real property taxes and all secured personal property taxes are due at that time. First half taxes may be paid as late as Dec. 5, but after that date they become delinquent and a penalty of 8 percent is added. The general county tax levy this year of $1.27, will not be reflected to a noticeable degree in many county tax bills, according to the county assessor's office. Although this is an increase of nine cents over last year's levy for general county purposes it will be offset in some districts by decreases in assessed valuation, while in others the valuation also has been increased.
