Mrs. Paul Blaisdell Republican Speaker

A women's Republican meeting is to be held at the headquarters in the old library building, 1321 El Prado, next Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Paul Blaisdell, a speaker well known in Torrance having addressed the Woman's Club on former occasions, and now a leading speaker via the radio in the interests of the Landon-Knox cause, has been engaged as the principal speaker.

Considerable interest is being manifested by the women in this district and if their sentiment is indicative of the registered Republicans, a large tally for Landon and Knox can be expected according to John Connell who is in charge of the local headquarters.

Many other gatherings are scheduled. The offices are open from 8:30 a. m.

Discusses Propositions on the November Ballot

Torrance Woman's Club opened their club year yesterday with one of the most interesting and varied programs in the club's history.

LOCAL GIRLS AT COMPTON

Jayne Traller, graduate of Torrance high, is now enrolled at Compton Junior College.

Mrs. George Elder, club Bible chairman, who was the after-dinner speaker, likened the Bible to a body of literature in which there is a complete library consisting of 66 books.

Janet Ruth Outhart, who has appeared on radio station KHJ, has taken part in the concerts at Inglewood Bowl and is a teacher of note.

Wayne Malloy, president of the Inglewood club, presided at the meeting and presented the Torrance club with a song and gave as a gift from his order.

At the close of the meeting those present danced to the music of a ten-piece orchestra.

The club held their regular dinner meeting in Cooky's Cafe Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Jas. H. Crumrine, program chairman, presented the program. The following chairmen were introduced during the meeting.

Mrs. Fred Knudsen, American homes; Mrs. Naomi Riley, arts and crafts; Mrs. George Elder, Bible; Mrs. C. J. Merriam, business and protective law; Mrs. Paul Watson, California history and landmarks; Mrs. Phoebe Milburn, historian; Mrs. Ivy Herring and Mrs. Sadie Boyd, decorations; Juliette Johnson, evening diversion; F. C. Winkler, gardens; Mrs. E. M. Johnston, hospitality; Mrs. Ila M. Gilbert, reservations; Mrs. Willis Brooks, seating; Mrs. John Shaw, motion pictures; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, radio; Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, press; Mrs. Carrie Parks will again serve as a member of the district credentials committee.
