Histories In Brief of Business Directory Advertisers

Mr. Carl Schmidt, owner and manager of the Carl Schmidt Interior Decorating Studios, 2915 Wilmington-Redondo boulevard, first came to California four years ago when he was sent to the Pacific coast by the Sterling Welch Company to take charge of the redecoration of the Pacific liners, Lurline, Mariposa and Monterey.

Previous to the California assignment, Schmidt was with the Sterling Welch Company for over 11 years during which he had charge of decorating many famous eastern hotels, among them the Olmstead in Cleveland and the Statler in the same city.

At the close of his two-year assignment working on the liners, Schmidt had become so enthusiastic over California that he decided to stay. He took a position with the Metropolitan Home Company in Long Beach for a short time and then started into business for himself in his present establishment.

Were you ever alone in a strange city?

If you were you know the true value of this newspaper Alone in a strange city. It is pretty dull. Even the newspapers don't seem to print the things that interest you. Headline stories are all right, but there is something lacking. That something is local news. For—all good newspapers are edited especially for their local readers. News of your friends and neighbors is much more interesting than stories of far off places. That is why a newspaper in a strange city is so uninteresting. And that is why this newspaper is so important to you. This is Newspaper Week. It's a good time to get to...
