

Giants To Return

Colored Boys Coming Again October 25th; Merchants Lose to Whippets

Next Sunday the Johnson Brothers, who lost to the Merchants 4-3 in the recent game here, and on October 25 the Los Angeles Colored Giants, who also lost their last tilt here, will be the program of baseball at the city park. Manager Walt Morris of the Lomita Merchants is always a couple of jumps ahead with his arrangements and has a good list of games in the offing.

Last Sunday the Merchants were nosed out by the Whippet Gasoline team 6-5 in a tight combat that had the fans in a dither all the way.

Lomita led off with a run in the first inning and managed to get another in the fourth which put them ahead 2-0. Morris took his turn in the box to start the game and for four frames let the Whippets down with two hits and no runs.

The Whippets found the way to Walt's slants in the fifth when they smacked two hits and two runs, while the Merchants went scoreless. In the sixth the same situation came up and Manager Morris retired from the mound in Patalano's favor. The Merchants tried hard but were able to put over only one run in their half of the sixth and visitors were out in front 4-3. Two more runs were scored in the seventh, while the Merchants also got two. Neither side was able to do much in the last two frames and the game was lost to the home boys.

While the Lomita boys got only four hits off Burton, two of them were homers, but sad to say with nobody on base. League drove out his fourth homer since the boys have been playing at the Torrance park, and Joe Venable got his second circuit blow. Joe did well for himself Sunday with a homer

Free Lance Championship To Be Decided

Compton Junior College and Pasadena Meet Friday at Rose Bowl

The free-lance championship of Southern California will be determined tomorrow night, when Compton Junior College battles the powerful Pasadena Junior College eleven in the historic Rose Bowl. Besides being a title game, the tilt is also billed as the coaches "grudge" fracas, since the Tartar mentor, Gordon Clark, and the Bulldog mentor, Bob McNeish, were team-mates and buddies on some of U.S.C.'s greatest football teams.

Compton displayed tremendous power last week in setting the vaunted Fresno State College Frosh back on its haunches to the tune of 13-0 and the score might easily have been doubled, had Clark elected to keep his regulars in the lineup. As soon as the Tartars had a two touch-down lead, Clark removed his regulars to guard against possible injuries before the Bulldog game.

Tommy O'Laughlin, brother of the captain of St. Mary's College varsity, is slated to start at quarter for the Pasadena Bulldogs with Granville Lansdell, one of the best jaycee backs in the southland, to alternate with him at the key position. Marvin Wright, and two Bills, Schuelke and Brock, will divide plunging duties at fullback.

Compton's hopes rest upon team play, a big and fast-charging line and a lighter and faster backfield. Zip Kennedy, the sensation triple-threat ace from Jordan High, and David Mushakian, smashing fullback from Downey, will lead the offensive. Kennedy ran wild against the Fresno Frosh to score all thirteen points.

Whittier Poets Meet Occidental

Invading Patterson field Saturday come the potent Whittier Poets to do battle with Occidental College Tiger gridgers.

Whittier is rated pre-game favorite because of its huge veteran line and superior reserve strength, and a record of three victories since 1932.

Against the defending champions for the last two years, Occidental gridgers will offer a sparkling and deceptive forward and lateral passing attack which brought a brilliant 19-6 victory to the Tigers against Mexico last week.

For Whittier the contest will open the conference season, while the Tigers will be engaging in their second conference tilt and pointing for a victory.

The rivalry between Occidental and Whittier is ancient and venerable dating its inception back to 1895 when Occidental trounced the Poets 16-0. Since that time Occidental has won eighteen of the twenty-eight games played, dropped eight and tied two.

Tartars Defeated

First Game of Marine League Season Lost to Leuzinger Friday 14-0

A sad bunch of boys left the field at the close of the Tartar-Leuzinger game last Friday afternoon with the score Leuzinger 14, Torrance 0. In the first game of the Marine League season Torrance ran up against strong opposition, and after the first half were completely out-fought and outplayed.

The Tartars kicked off. Leuzinger failed to gain in three tries through the line and punted to Amman who fumbled. Amman made a first down around left end. Pupkoff made five yards through center. McHenry made 15 yards on an end around. Amman failed to complete a pass to McHenry and on the next play lost two yards on an end run. Amman punted out of bounds on the 12 yard line.

Lloyd Freeburg, 135-pound quarter, failed to gain, Grubbs making five yards over tackle and on the next play failed to gain. Leuzinger punted to the 40 yard line, and Torrance took the ball. Pupkoff gained one yard. A pass from Amman intended for Schmidt was knocked down by Freeburg. Amman tried another pass to Kent which fell incomplete. Amman got away a 30 yard punt to the 20 yard line, but the play was called back, Torrance off side, and Amman got away another to the 15 yard line. Leuzinger failed to gain and punted out to Amman. Schmidt made two yards and the gun sounded the end of the first quarter.

Torrance sent in six substitutes to start the second period. Amman tried a pass but was thrown for a loss of 11 yards. Pupkoff lost three yards and Torrance was penalized five yards for having 12 men on the field. Amman got away a short punt of 15 yards.

Gilbert made a nice tackle on the Leuzinger runner and tossed him for a loss of a yard. Both teams failed to gain in mid-field play and Leuzinger was forced to punt.

Schmidt made a first down but on his second try failed to gain. Amman made four yards. Hardesty, Leuzinger fullback, was knocked out on the play and Leuzinger called time out. Amman tried a pass to Gilbert, knocked down by Freeburg. Amman punted over the goal line and the ball was brought out to the 20 yard line. Leuzinger failed to make a first down and punted. Kent went in for Richardson. Amman passed to Kent for a first down. On the next play a Torrance fumble was recovered by Leuzinger. The first pass was incomplete, the second completed for 20 yards to the 15 yard line. Freeburg gained six yards around left end. Leuzinger tried three passes in a row all incomplete.

Amman made five yards over left guard and the quarter ends. Torrance kicked off to start the second half. Leuzinger made two yards, and an attempted pass was incomplete. Leuzinger punted to the 15 yard line and Amman made five yards over center. Amman punted out and Grubbs stopped a Leuzinger play with a nice tackle. Freeburg tore through the entire Torrance line to make a first down, but on the next play Leuzinger lost three yards.

A pass from Arico to Freeburg was good for another first down. Hardesty made five yards over center. Leuzinger's fumble was recovered by Schmidt. Torrance fumbled on their own five yard line and the ball was recovered by Leuzinger. Smith went in at left guard for Grubbs. Leuzinger made two yards, Schmidt making the tackle. Hardesty takes the ball to the Torrance two-yard line, and Freeburg went over for the first touchdown of the game. Dowd converts and the score is 7-0.

Leuzinger kicked to Amman who returned the kick 25 yards. Schmidt lost three yards on an end around. Kent made five yards on an end around and McHenry made three yards on the same play. Amman punts. Leuzinger took time out and Torrance recovered a fumble on the 40 yard line. Richardson

New Old Sport Introduced to Torrance Tues.

Badminton Games Attract 50 Players and Spectators at Auditorium

Badminton, the popular new old pastime, made its appearance in Torrance last Tuesday night. Fifty players and spectators gathered at the civic auditorium where the Torrance Athletic Club put on the first games ever held in this city. Art Hodge is commissioner in charge and ran the first session in peppy fashion.

Three nets were put up and the players took turns at hitting the little cork and feather shuttlecock over the barrier. Play started at 7:30 o'clock and lasted till after 10 and those who took a hand in the game were reluctant to give it up.

For those who think badminton is a sissy game, the answer is try it some time. It is a game of skill and agility and requires a lot of skipping about that takes stamina and wind.

Since the first games went over so well, the Athletic Club has asked for the auditorium again next Tuesday night and will mark out another court, making four in all which gives room for 16 players. In addition they will move in a couple of pingpong tables for those who want to do something while waiting their turn at the badminton nets.

At the close of the council meeting the members of the council were invited to come over to see the games in progress, since they had kindly donated the use of the auditorium to let the sport have a try-out and all were pleased to see so much interest displayed.

Badminton should appeal to everyone who wants to take a little exercise since it is not hard to learn and while an active game is not so strenuous as tennis, basketball or the like. Women as well as men can play, boys and girls, so that it is a sport for all.

Next Monday night the Torrance Athletic Club directors will meet with the sponsors of basketball teams to form a city league, when the pros and cons of the matter will be hashed over and some arrangements made to start this sport. All who would like to enter a team or who have already made arrangements to sponsor an outfit should attend this meeting.

Americans See Hope of Taking Aintree Chase

LONDON, (U.P.)—Horses, owned and bred in the United States, will make a strong bid for the Grand National Steeplechase, at Aintree next March.

Alvin Untermyer's Bagatelle II, which came over for the National last March, is to stay here in training for the next running of the world's steeplechasing blue ribbon. In addition, two American-bred horses have arrived in this country, and one of them, at least, is a potential National runner.

They are Battleship and War Vessel, both owned by Mrs. Marlan Du Pont Somerville, member of the Blenheim Syndicate.

Battleship, the hope of the stable, is an eight-year-old chestnut by Man o' War from the French-bred Quarantine, by Sea Sick from Queenie by War Dance, a line in much repute in France.

Battleship has not raced for the last two years, but in 1934 he carried Mrs. Somerville's colors in six races under United States National Hunt rules. In the autumn of that year he won the American Grand National at Belmont Park, and in 1933 he won the Billy Barton steeplechase and the National Hunt Club at Brookline.

Battleship and War Vessel are in training at Reginald Hobbs' Lambourn quarters.

San Pedro Pirates vs. Torrance Tartars, Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Friday, October 16 the teams of Torrance and San Pedro will meet for the first time in a league football game. The contest will be held in San Pedro, with the kick-off at 3 o'clock sharp.

The Pirates have a fair team this year in their varsity, but had a hard time taking the big team of Gardena last week, 7-0. Little Gene Gray, substitute half back intercepted a Gardena pass and ran the pigskin for the only score of the game. According to Manuel Laraneta, former U. S. C. star, and now coach of the pirates, they expect to take the Donahue boys into camp with ease, after the poor showing of the Tartars last week against Leuzinger. The game will be another Notre Dame-U.S.C. pocket edition, as the San Pedro team uses the Trojan system, while Torrance uses the Notre Dame style of play.

Here the probably starting line-up:

Torrance	San Pedro
Kent	L. E. Molton
Winkler	L. T. Jonich
Grubb	L. G. Kostrenich
Richhart	C. J. Dimalanta
Rossett	R. G. Martin
Thompson	R. T. Monson
McHenry	R. E. Wilson
Madore	Q. Sidel
Pupkoff	R. H. Banich
Amman	L. H. Vladek
Schmidt	F. Castelet

Lightweight Tennis Fight It Out This Afternoon

Today on the local gridiron, the Torrance and San Pedro "B" teams (lightweights) will fight it out, admission is free, with the game starting at 3 o'clock. San Pedro has the edge and should take the Tartars in stride without exerting themselves. According to information, San Pedro lightweights are about the best in the Los Angeles school system. Last week the Pirates took Gardena to the tune of 26-0, and could have run up a score of 50-0, if Coach Adams had left the first string in the game. Torrance lost to Leuzinger, 13-0. A large crowd of fans are expected from San Pedro, to boost this great team to victory.

Loss To Leuzinger, Puts Tartars Out of Title Race

Yes Torrance finally lost a Marine league game. For three seasons the Torrance boys were able to keep their slates clean, but last week, the big hard hitting fighters of Leuzinger spilled the local lads for a 14-0 victory. It is the first time in several years that the Hawthorne boys have defeated the Red and Grey of Torrance and did they celebrate.

Chalk up the Torrance defeat to inexperience, and poor blocking. The local lads were out-classed in every department in the last half, after putting up a great battle in the opening period. The Leuzinger line out-
