Compton Jaycee Meets USC Frosh

Members of the prospective 1937 national championship football team will be on parade tomorrow night, when the powerful University of Southern California Frosh eleven tackles a heavy and fighting Compton Junior College gridiron machine in a game to be played under the stars on the Tartar gridiron. More than 7,500 fans are expected to witness this galaxy of talent that will trot onto the Compton gridiron in the uniforms of the Tartars and the Trojans. The game is slated to start at 8 p. m.

Filipinos to Sail For Home

District Director Walter E. Carr of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service at Los Angeles, reports that the next Filipino repatriation party to leave for the Philippine Islands will sail direct from San Francisco on the SS "President Hoover," Oct. 30, 1936.

Annual Narbonne-Torrance Beef Tomorrow Afternoon

Yea Man, tomorrow afternoon, on the Torrance high school gridiron, the Narbonne Gauchos will fight it out with the Torrance Tartars. This game will be the 11th time these two great teams have met on the field of battle in league games. The big question of the day is: "Who will be the victor, after the dust clears off the field, Narbonne or Torrance?"

Both teams are great again this year, with Narbonne on paper the strongest, beating Leuzinger and El Segundo by very large scores, and showing plenty of class. While Torrance dropped their opening game to Leuzinger, by two touchdowns, and beat San Pedro by one score, the Torrance team showed plenty of football in the latter game.

In ten years of play the great teams coached by Ben Comrada, have beat the big Red and Grey teams of Torrance eight times, with one tie, and Torrance winning one. Last year's game ended a tie, after both teams had scored twice and both had failed to convert. Narbonne has scored 267 points during the 10 previous games, while Torrance has only tallied 37.

Comrada uses the double wing back formation, with plenty of passes, speed and flea-flickers, while Donahue uses the Notre Dame style of play, with speed, power and deception. Who will be the victor tomorrow? Game starts at 3 p. m., and a crowd of 2600 fans are expected to witness this year's struggle.

Pedro Game Has Many Thrills; Including Young Riot

Last week the Tartars of Torrance proved to the fans that they are able to fight, and fight plenty hard (even the spectators can fight). With little Jim Amman, plunging left half leading the Tartars for gain after gain, the San Pedro Pirates went down to defeat, with a score of 7-0, after a terrific battle, with Torrance doing most of the ball packing. The Tartars should have won by three touchdowns.

Outstanding players of Torrance were, Amman, Leo Rosssett, Gerald Grubb, Louis Madore, Al Winkler, Jack Kent, J. D. Radford and Carl Gilbert. Outstanding for San Pedro, were Paul Hill, Bob Gray, Chester Metzger, Bob Meacham and Anton Vladic. The game was a "wow" from start to finish, with the Tartars furnishing most of the "wow."

Between halves the spectators were furnished a young riot, between the Torrance and San Pedro fans. About 20 rabid ex-players and students of both schools tried to decide the game with their fists, but the San Pedro police, finally persuaded the fist-slingers to let the football players on the field decide the game. It was a great show while it lasted.

Two Former Torrance Stars Now Playing For Riverside J. C.

According to information, received this week (newspaper clippings) Roger McGinnis, former all-league tackle, and captain of the Torrance Tartars, and Bert Hoffman, former great linesman, are now furnishing thrills to the fans of Riverside, with their spectacular playing.

Greater Crowd Turns Out For Badminton Play

Tournament Will Start Next Tuesday; Basketball Teams Meet Same Night

More people turned out last Tuesday night to enjoy the badminton games at the civic auditorium than were present on the first night of play and the game seems to be taking hold of the popular fancy. Four courts were in play with table tennis on the side. Over 100 players and spectators were on hand and Commissioner Art Hodge is well pleased with the outlook for this lively sport.

Next Tuesday night the sponsors and members of basketball teams will meet at the high school gymnasium to lay out the rules and a schedule for the tournament which will start at an early date.

Teams have already been organized by the National Supply, Columbia Steel, Paul Smith, 2030 Club and Glen Hammack, manager of the Cabrillo avenue Safeway Store.

Others who wish to sponsor teams are invited to attend this meeting.

More badminton will be furnished to the public next Tuesday night at the auditorium when a tournament will be started. Two of the four courts will be used for the tournament play and the other two will be free for the use of beginners and non-tournament players.

The public is urgently invited to attend these games and take part if they wish. Badminton is a sport that anybody can play and affords much fun and healthful exercise.

IN REVIEW

'35 Tartar-Gaucha Clash

But the Gauchos refused to be beaten and opened a passing attack that was probably the most perfectly executed drive of its kind ever staged on prep school turf. Again and again the Gaucha passes found receivers and with but four minutes remaining in the game the Tartar band of Narbonne knifed down the gridiron to tally another six points and tie the contest, 12-12, as the final gun cracked.

This closed the 1935 Tartar-Gaucha clash, a hopeless deadlock which left no solution as to which team was the better. Perhaps tomorrow when two equally determined teams meet to contest the yearly feud these hither-to evasive answers will be found. Regardless of the outcome, local fans can count on seeing more football for their money than in any other contest of the year.

Local Bowling Team Defeats Luxor Outfit

Fenwick Shoe Shop Now Leads in Industrial League Matches

Recent matches in the Industrial League, bowled at the Monticello alleys, found the Fenwick Shoe Repair Shop team at the top of the list with a 50-point lead over the Westinghouse Refrigerators. National Supply and Union Ice Company dropped to the middle of the list.

E. J. Scott, of the Westinghouse team, is leading in high average and fattened his score considerably last week by rolling three games for a total of 647. C. Romeo of the Stephens Fountain team, San Pedro, is close on Scott's heels.

Scores for last week's games are: Fenwick, 2512; Union Ice, 2473; Westinghouse, 2453; National Supply, 2137; Stephens Fountain, 2388; Soule Steel, 2242; Torrance Plumbing 2195; Acme Beer, 2189.

A Torrance team made up of R. Quayle, Al Pennington, D. Bolander, L. Deinger, and Ed Schwartz defeated the Luxor team two games and total pins, 2701 to 2636.

Pennington led the Torrance boys with a score of 596, and C. Wind of the visitors topped his team with 583. The same teams will bowl at the Luxor alleys next week.

Crack English Rider to Race

Wal Phillips, crack member of the British test team, member of the great Wimbledon racing team of London, England, will arrive in Los Angeles this week. He will race at Atlantic stadium Friday night, Oct. 30.

Phillips is expected to challenge any American rider for any distance according to a telegram received by Manager Floyd Clymer.

Leading riders who will qualify to meet Phillips are Myny Wain, Pete Coleman, Bo Lisman, Dutch Mueller, Shorty Campbell, Bert Lewis and possibly the eastern champion, Benny Kaufman.

Big Game Tomorrow

Annual Clash Between Torrance and Narbonne Will Be Played At Torrance

People with weak hearts and hardening of the arteries should stay away from the Narbonne-Torrance football game tomorrow on Woods Field, for this annual clash between the rival schools will be a honey. Provided that Torrance is wise to the Narbonne strategy which is full of speed and deception mixed with power plays and top kicking.

The Gauchos ran wild over the luckless youths from Leuzinger last Friday, stopping them cold with a 45-0 score. On the previous Friday they swarmed all over El Segundo and rolled up another impressive score.

Leuzinger did not even have a chance against the flea-flicker plays that flashed over the gridiron at Griffin Field last Friday and were lucky to get off without losing their shirts. No less than seven touchdowns were made with three points added, and one pass over the goal line went for no score because the receiver had one foot outside of the end zone.

With the ball tossed from hand to hand, going to at least four receivers during the course of a play, the Leuzinger boys were completely bewildered. Narbonne's aerial circus is something to watch and unless the Tartar lads can break it up when it starts there will be trouble for the red and gray in large gobs.

If the Gauchos can get by Torrance tomorrow they will be headed for another championship. They will take San Pedro and Gardens in their stride and finish undefeated this year unless the Tartars can stop them. If the Tartars take tomorrow's game, Torrance has a good chance to tie for the championship again with Narbonne as was the case last year. Their defeat by Leuzinger in the Marine League opener was unfortunate, and probably due to over-confidence as that game was believed to be in the bag.

With their self-respect restored by their win over San Pedro, which team has been feared as the dark unknown quantity since its entry into the Marine League this year, the Tartars are primed to give Narbonne the battle of the season. Just how good they are will be demonstrated by this game, and they have got to be good if they expect to win tomorrow.

Extra bleachers have been moved on to the field, there will be a public address system to announce the plays, and the football fans of Torrance are expected out in large numbers. Game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock, as all games in the city schools must be concluded by sundown or they are called on account of darkness.

A small admission fee will be charged.

Upsets Upset Old Masters In Football Picks

Three Ties Rob Selectors of Many Points in Last Week's Round

Dearie me, such a Saturday of upsets in the football world. Three tie games took a lot of points away from the master minds, but they're coming back groggy but game for another round this week.

Master Mind Hinds holds on to his lead, but Old Master Lewellen took a tumble on the week's scores and landed in fourth place, with Brooks second and Fraser third. Perfect picks were registered by Hinds in the Santa Clara-San Jose game and Nichols in the Washington-Oregon State fracas.

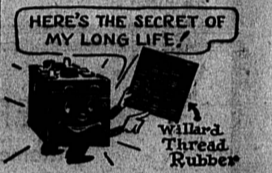

Scores for the week:

	W.	L.	Plus
Hinds	8	4	38
Brooks	8	4	45
Fraser	7	5	70
Lewellen	7	5	72
Nichols	5	7	127

Standing of the master minds for the series to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	Plus
Hinds	34	9	37
Lewellen	30	13	92
Brooks	33	10	93
Nichols	27	16	212
Fraser	27	16	223
