TARTARS GO THRU HARD SCRIMMAGE FOR GAUCHO TILT

Coaches Comment On 1936 Tartar-Gaicho Tilt

Coach Ben Comrada of the Narbonne Gauchos says:

"The Gauchos will be badly limited by injuries in the game this week as three of my first-string men may not be able to start.

"As far as the comparative scores go we should have the edge; but the Tartar-Gaicho game is always different in this respect. I feel that if we have the edge in any department of the game it is in Haslam's passing, but I also think that this is balanced on the Tartar squad by the kicking of Trezise.

"When you total all these things up and try to come to a conclusion on the game the only thing that anyone can say is that it will be an evenly matched contest, in which the breaks will decide the issue."

Coach Bernard Donahue of the Torrance Tartars says:

"Of course a team always hopes to win but there are many ways of winning in football. Personally if my boys can hold the Gauchos to a three touch-down win I will consider the game a moral victory for us.

"I think this year's Tartar club has fine possibilities for the future, but they are a green team compared to the Gauchos. The fact that Trezise will start may have a steadying influence on the squad but to date the boys have not shown themselves tough enough and have not developed team fight enough to beat the Gauchos."

Fullback

Fanny C. King
Insurance - Real Estate
1324 Sartori

"FULL-COVERAGE" KING

A hard-smashing fullback responsible for plenty of yards for the Torrance squad on the offensive. Covers the whole field on the defense and saves the team a lot of losses.

Quarterback

Baker Smith Jewelry
1221 Sartori

"FLASH" SMITH

The most brilliant offensive man on the squad. Plays a beautiful brand of ball and carries the pignkn consistently for big gains. Outstanding on defense as a safety for the good old diamond formation. Really makes the team tick.
