

Captivating Food Show Exhibit

Hand-ling of pretzels is just one of many novel displays of processing methods to be demonstrated at the 1936 Food and Household Show, November 8 to 15, in Los Angeles' Ambassador Auditorium.

Lang Now With Electrical Firm As an Advisor

Announcement was made today that A. G. Lang, former home lighting advisor with the Southern California Edison's local office, is now with the Industrial Electrical Company of 1905 Cabrillo avenue.

Lang will use methods approved and recommended by General Electric and Westinghouse, nationally known firms who have made extensive research of lighting effect on health and home conditions.

Opens Pontiac Agency Monday

Earl H. Forbes, well known in local automobile agency circles, announces the opening of a new Pontiac agency at 1528 Craven avenue.

Mr. Forbes has been actively engaged in automobile sales work in Torrance for the past six months and previous to that was identified with the same work in Gardena for a number of years.

FUNERAL PLANS FOR D. L. POST CHANGED HERE

Instead of sending the body of the late David Lee Post, who died Oct. 29, at his home, 1312 223rd street at the age of 58, to Bakersfield for interment, relatives changed their plans and had the funeral service at Stone & Myers' chapel last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Post was survived by his mother, Mrs. Sarah Post, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Wilburn, both of this city; another sister, Mrs. Belle Price of Roswell, N. M.

Tree Planting At Rolling Hills Shows Results

Development Program Has Made Great Strides In Palos Verdes

To ears long accustomed to the stillness of inactivity no music is sweeter than the hum of awakening industry, those sounds denoting building and progress.

Here the ring of hammers is daily accompanied by the hum of tractors as roadmaking and home-building are carried on simultaneously.

Every phase of activity at Rolling Hills gives visible evidence of the wisdom and foresight with which plans for this residential district were conceived.

At Rolling Hills the program of development has already caused many thousands of trees to be planted, and so well have they been tended that their growth even during one year has been phenomenal.

Resident for 20 Years Succumbs

Mrs. Anna Krampf, of 2208 Andree avenue, and a resident of this city for 20 years, died early Tuesday morning after a six months' illness.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at Stone & Myers chapel. Interment followed at Roosevelt Memorial Park.
