SPORTSMANSHIP

Although the Tartars were badly beaten Friday, the general attitude of the Torrance students was one to be commended.

EX-GRID STAR

Speaking of football, rumor has it that Mr. Barrow, sedate faculty member, was once an all-star drop kicker and could place the pigskin between the uprights from almost any position on the field.

MORE SUPPORT

While on the subject of sports the basketball season opened auspiciously enough with the home team hanging up an 18-17 victory over Banning. The team surely deserves more support than it has been given and, if at some time the Pep Club or a similar organization should lend its support, we may see the time when basketball will rank nearly as high in importance as football.

MONTHLY MEET

Members of the Torrensic Forum held their monthly meeting Monday evening in the music room. Mr. Casey, principal speaker, related incidents of his vacation trip. There were several impromptu talks. Popcorn balls and apples were served by the refreshment committee.

CHORUS REPEATS

After the Senior Jubilee Friday night, the chorus was asked by the Rotary club to repeat its performance at tonight's meeting. Although the attendance at the Friday night performance was not so large as had been hoped for, the Seniors wish to thank townspeople who attended for their support.

REORGANIZE

In order to reorganize the World Friendship club and to decide upon definite policies for its progression, an unofficial meeting of the sponsors and officers was held Nov. 10 at Quercy's cafe in Los Angeles. Mr. Barrow, one of the sponsors, presented the ladies with corsages of gardenias. The table was decorated with a floral centerpiece containing the letters "W. F." Those present were the sponsors, Mrs. Margaret Allen and Mr. Barrow; the officers, Paul Kasper, Laura Mae Hyde, Florence Buchman, William Keefer, Gerald Templeton and Daphne Landreth and Mrs. Barrow, Constance Barrow and Mr. Casey. This group was later joined by Bob Blischoff, president of the Torrensic Forum, and his sister.

LIGHTEN BURDEN

A new scheme of sponsoring clubs, especially those meeting in the evenings or engaged in off-campus activities is being tried out this school year. A form of co-sponsorship has been inaugurated. It is hoped that such an arrangement will lighten the burden on the sponsors and also eliminate cancelled meetings due to the inability of a sponsor to be present.

PEP PARLEY

Officers and a committee of the Pep club, Merle McHenry, Evelyn Vincent, Henrietta King, Pauline McNeese, Evelyn Maloney, Arly Fossom, and Charlotte Gots will meet at the home of one of their sponsors, Mr. Barrow, to discuss and arrange for future social activities of the club. After the business meeting a picnic luncheon will be served in the patio. Expected guests: Mr. and Mrs. Waddingham, Mr. and Mrs. Elson and Mrs. Adamson. The two sponsors of the club, Mr. Barrow and Mrs. Allen, will be assisted by Mrs. Fossom.

TEST BRAKES

The first thing a safe driver does when he takes his car out of the garage is test the brakes.

GRADING ROADS AT ROLLING HILLS

Connecting the gate house of Rolling Hills, Rancho Palos Verdes with highway 101, an extension of Crenshaw boulevard, two miles in length, is under construction.

Planting about the gate house seen in the background is typical of the fine landscaping which is making this scenic part of the historic rancho one of the most beautiful residence suburbs of Southern California, where architecture and planting conform to the fine contours of the hills.

Similar gate houses at all entrances to the property insure seclusion as well as safety for children.

Hospital Notes

Three new babies—all boys—arrived at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital this week. The infants and their mothers are reported making splendid progress. Their parents and their birth dates were:

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindquist, 1183 West M street, Wilmington, Nov. 17, their second child.

To Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, 460 New York avenue, Hawthorne, Nov. 15, their first child.

Other new patients at the hospital were: Mrs. Martha Chastain, 1415 East L street, Wilmington, received Nov. 13 for surgical attention; Mrs. Mary Haefs, 619 Avenue C, Redondo Beach, entered Nov. 13 suffering from a fractured leg as result of a fall.

Townsend Club Activities

As Reported By Beth Paige

Our club was greatly saddened to hear of the passing Tuesday of one of its most loyal members, John J. Colwell of Date avenue. He had been ill for months but to the very last of his strength, he used it to attend club sessions, always alert, always interested, and an example of unswerving loyalty we would do well to follow. Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Colwell.

Another member lies very low at this writing, E. Murray Buchanan who also has been ill for many months, at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright, 1024 Arlington. Let us show the true club spirit by a call and a word of help or cheer.

Illness accounted for the absence of quite a few last Thursday evening, among them your humble scribe. However, the trusty old pen salvaged the following facts: In the absence of President Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Frank Clark vice-president, served in her place. An interesting document from 17th district headquarters will be acted upon tonight, as well as certain matters from Chicago headquarters. Visitors from Lomita No. 1 were present to invite us to visit them next Monday evening.

A fine report on the progressiveness of Gardena was given by a visitor, a Mr. Williams, from the 14th district, who had visited there.

Along that line we announced

Redondo Officer Takes Life, Was Known Here

Asserted suicide of Radio Patrolman Clarence L. Kipp of Redondo Beach early Monday morning while on duty shocked members of the Torrance department, who knew him intimately. Kipp, 35, left a widow and a 12-year-old daughter by his act.

While patrolling his beat in the beach city, the officer left his partner, William Prichard, saying he was going to get a cup of coffee and would be back in 10 minutes. An hour later when he did not appear, Prichard called headquarters, started a search for the patrolman. His body was found slumped over the wheel of the police car at Center street and Inglewood avenue, Lawndale, apparently a suicide with his service revolver.

Everybody's getting a new ELECTRIC RANGE

OLD FASHIONED COOKING METHODS are on the way out and they're going faster all the time. Last year in Edison territory alone, 150 women changed to electric cookery every week. This year, in the same territory, 250 homes are installing electric ranges every week... an increase of 66%. Think of it!

And, right now, in Southern California, there are over 75,000 homes equipped with modern electric ranges. Think of that, too!

Electric ranges must be better, they must be economical, they must be practical... or surely so many women just like yourself wouldn't be buying them.
