

DANCE CLUB HAS ANNUAL FORMAL

Triple T's Fete Ends '36 Season

One of the outstanding social affairs of the current season was the annual formal dinner-dance of the Triple T dancing club of this city which was held at the Del Mar club in Santa Monica last Friday night. This was the final party given under the auspices of the retiring committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kelly.

The Triple T's, who enjoy monthly informal dances at the Hollywood Riviera clubhouse here, are now anticipating a continuance of their parties for the 1937 season with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears, Mr. and Mrs. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whyte on the directing committee.

Those attending the Del Mar gathering were entertained by an elaborate floor show staged by the Santa Monica club management in addition to the dinner-dance. The Triple T's are now in their sixth season as a Torrance social unit. The attractive gowns of the ladies made a colorful setting to the function last weekend while the gentlemen were attired in evening dress.

PINOCHE PLAYERS AT BARLOW HOME

The home of Mrs. E. H. Barlow, 1450 216th street, furnished the setting for a pinocle party Friday evening, when the Jolly Joker Club held their regular get-together. Prizes for high scores were captured by Mesdames Esther Dennis and Sarah Murray. Others in the party were Miss Eva McCormack, Mrs. Mary Lewis, Mrs. Alice Spehger, Mrs. Elizabeth Brod, Mrs. Betty Miller and Mrs. E. H. Barlow.

Club Women Are Fingerprinted

Laws Of Colonists

Reviewed at Dinner Meeting by Woman Attorney

Betty Marshall Grayden, prominent Los Angeles lawyer, was the guest speaker at the meeting of National Business and Professional Women's club held in Daniels' cafe Monday evening. It being the annual legislative meeting, Mrs. Grayden spoke on laws of the early colonists. Humorously pointing out how these folks came to America so that they might have freedom and proceeded to make laws more drastic than those in England.

In compliance with a request of the national research chairman, Captain John Stroh attended the meeting, explained the merits of finger-printing and finger-printed 21 club members.

Musical Program
A delightful musical program was given under the direction of George Mershon, who presented his Junior Music Club orchestra in three numbers. Children included Betty Mae Weaver, Bobby Crandall, James Price and Benjamin Price. Barbara Woodcock directed.

Mr. A. Reeker, accomplished accordion teacher, played a medley of popular tunes. New members present at the meeting were Pauline Binder and Florence Perovich. Tables were attractively decorated with large yellow pumpkins from which tapers gleamed. Thanksgiving turkeys and horns of plenty served as favors for the 38 present. Miss Beatrice Hughes, chairman for the affair, was assisted by Ada Chase, Ethel wyn Niles and Arvilla Owens. Next meeting of the club will be held at the Billini home, 1304 Portola avenue, Monday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p. m.
