L. A. Will Ask Legislature for All Tide Lands
Instructions for the Los Angeles city attorney to prepare a bill for the next session of the state legislature that would grant Los Angeles city all tide and submerged lands within the present city limits were given this week by the Los Angeles city council.

Suggested by the city playground and recreation commission, it was explained that certain portions of the tidelands, particularly those lying north of Santa Monica, have not been granted to the city by the state of California. Other tidelands, adjoining Venice, have been granted only for navigation and fishing, according to Charles L. Lamb, secretary of the city commission.

The legislation will provide that "all of the tide and submerged lands, including those previously granted, may be used for commerce, navigation and fishing and for public parkways, highways, playground and recreational purposes."

Siren Signals Test Mobilization Sunday
What sounded like a six-alarm fire Sunday afternoon as the department's wailed went in for some extensive screaming turned out to be a test "emergency mobilization." Mayor W. H. Stanger transmitted the general practice call he received from Los Angeles to the fire department who touched off the siren.

Police, firemen, Legionnaires and Boy Scouts here rushed to their appointed places to check in and report they stood ready for any major emergency.

Lomitan Files for Parents' Estate
James P. Worthington, 25029 Narbonne avenue, Lomita, today had on file a petition for letters testamentary to the estate of his late mother and father, Mrs. Ella F. Worthington, and James H. Worthington. The mother died last Oct. 5, and the father preceded her in death Aug. 10, according to the petition.

The son in Lomita and another in San Francisco are to receive the entire estate of the father and mother, under the provisions of the will. The mother's will was witnessed by Orilla J. Comstock and Mary I. Colburn, both of Torrance.

Hospital Greet Christmas Baby, 5 Other Arrivals
L. B. Parents Disdain Usual "Carol" Name for Own Earlier Selection
Born at 12:50 Christmas afternoon, a six-pound, nine-ounce daughter, their first child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey, of 2814 Cameron street, Long Beach, at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital. Altho she was a splendid Yuletide gift to the proud parents, they did not name her "Carol" having chosen the name Barbara Joanne in advance.

Bailey is a checker for a wholesale grocery concern in Long Beach. The 20-year-old mother and baby are making splendid progress.

Other new arrivals during the past six days at the hospital were: A daughter, Sonia Isabelle, born Dec. 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denman, 2109 Mackay Lane, Redondo. She is the second child of the Columbia Steel worker and his wife.

Two Local Babies
A son, Joseph Merritt, born Dec. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edwards, 2271 Torrance boulevard, apartment B. Edwards is a machinist at the National Supply Company. The baby is their first.

A son, Jon Alan, born to Mr. and Mrs. William Henninger, 1007 Beech street, on Dec. 24. He is the third child of the Henninger family and the father is cost accountant at the National Supply.

A daughter, Carol Ann, born Dec. 28 to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kemble, 4077 Broadway, Huntington Park. She is their second child. Kemble is a Los Angeles school bus contractor.

A son, Russell Warren, was born Dec. 28 to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scrivner who live on the Texaco Oil lease off Torrance boulevard. He is their second child.

They're Going Home
Scheduled to be taken home Wednesday is the Caesarian baby, Nancy Joyce, who was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hough, 853 Ninth street, Manhattan Beach, on Dec. 21. Both mother and daughter, who weighed seven pounds, seven and one-half ounces at birth, have made splendid progress at the hospital. The Houghs (pronounced "How") have another child.

Another baby due to go home Wednesday is Robert LeRoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ostromer, 1168 Eighth street, Hermosa Beach. He arrived Dec. 21 to become their first child.

Tiny Elouise Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hoggard, 2501 287th street, Lomita, is expected to join her brother and sister on Dec. 31. She arrived Dec. 21.
