DESSERT BRIDGE HELD AT MORGAN HOME Spring flowers in pastel shades formed the decorations for a prettily appointed dessert bridge party at the home of Mrs. Jack Morgan of Los Angeles, Friday. Prizes for high scores in con-tract bridge were awarded to Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. Floyd Olson and Mrs. R. A. Huber. A consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Ray Young. Those invited were Mes-sdames Edgar Ramsey, Floyd Olson, and Ann Wilson, of Los Angeles; Kenneth Falkner, Alice Quirk, Nell Wyoost, of Long Beach; R. A. Huber, Lindsay B. Kelsey, C. T. Hipp, Tom McGuire, Ray Young, Grover C. Whyte, Ted Prentner, John McMillen, Sam Levy and E. C. Nelson, of Torrance.

Following the business session, the members of the Lomita lodge spent a couple of hours in dancing. Invitation dances are to be held regularly on the first and third Monday in each month. These affairs have proved to be very popular and highly enjoyable affairs.

Second place was taken by Hilda Conkey, Al making her alternate for Harold in the regional meet. "Is Permanent Peace Possible?" was the theme of her speech. Other contestants, all of whom are members of the advanced pub-lic speaking class, were Nell Haynes, All, who spoke on "The Pure American Ideal"; Alfred Thorsen, All, whose subject was "Co-operation—A Means of World Peace"; Merrill Pankey, B12, whose topic was "International Co-opera-tion"; and Frank Andersen, B10, who selected "World Peace" for his subject.

The judges stated that the con-test was very close one. Mem-bers of the faculty selected as judges were Miss Stiff, Miss Wylie, Miss Rose, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Peterson, and Mr. Willebrandt. The students were coached by Miss Holloway, who has been named chairman of this district of the oratorical contest. The contest is sponsored by the World Friendship committee of the Los Angeles board of educa-tion and is open to any under-graduate student under 21 who is now enrolled in day or evening high school in the Los Angeles district. The requisites of the contest are that the speeches have a max-imum limit of ten minutes time; and that the judges base their de-cisions on dynamic power of del-ivery and convincing arguments.

at Narbonne High School

"Youth and Peace" was the topic of the oration given by Harold Smith, an All, April 4, in the Narbonne auditorium, which won him first place in the school finals of the oratorical contest on World Friendship. He will have the privilege of representing Narbonne in the regional finals to be held this month.

The ladies enjoyed various card games and bunco. Later various prizes were given for those pos-sessing such qualifications as being the tallest, the shortest, hav-ing the most children, etc. Mrs. Willis, head of the cafeteria, had charge of the refreshments which consisted of home-made cake, ice cream with chocolate sauce, and coffee or tea.

A party held jointly by the Nar-bonne Vigilantes and Jane Addams, boys' and girls' honor clubs, was the occasion for much gaiety Thursday afternoon, April 5, in the school gymnasium. Dancing was the chief source of entertainment, the music being furnished by Otis LeGrande. Cake, punch, sandwiches and potato chips were served.

The entertainment committee was composed of George Taylor, Alfred Thorsen and Otis LeGrande. Helen Hart, George Gould, Allan Rider and Joe Wales made up the food committee. Twenty-two students attended. The Jane Addams present were Helen Hart, Phyllis Myerscough, Winifred Milner, Geneva Straub, Dorothy Springman, Joyce Hunge, Melba Shafter, Ruth Todd, Dorothy Morris and Etta Tucker. The Vigilantes included Joe Wales, Stanley Nietupski, Allan Rider, George Gould, George Taylor, Al-fred Thorsen, Moto Tawa, Donald Davis and Otis LeGrande.
