VETERANS CO-OPERATIVE GROUP CHRISTMAS TREE

Veterans Co-operative Association will give a Christmas program in their headquarters, 1916 Border avenue, Friday evening, December 21. Several well-known stars of radio will be on the program. There will be a Christmas tree and Santa Claus will distribute gifts of candy to children of members of the group.

Following the children's program there will be dancing to music furnished by Mrs. Ellis and her five-piece orchestra from Hawthorne. The public is invited to attend the entertainment and dance.

WED AT WEE KIRK O' THE HEATHER

Helen Isabel Adams, daughter of Mrs. and Mr. Samuel O. Adams, of Hollywood Riviera, was married to Michael Bartmus, nephew of Peter Bartmus, of Hollywood Riviera in the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Glendale, Tuesday evening, December 11, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Glenn Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist church of Hollywood, performed the ceremony.

The bride, lovely in her mother's wedding gown of ivory net, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white sweet peas and bouvardia. Her short tulle veil was fastened to a cap of lace and caught in the back with orange blossoms. The bride's sister, Cornelia Adams, as maid of honor, wore a gown of green chiffon velvet and a turban of gold. She carried a bouquet of tallinn roses and sweet peas. J. J. Stout served as best man, and Gage Parnell and Arthur Bonfret, as ushers.

TO SPEND CHRISTMAS WITH MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Donette, Cota avenue, will leave Saturday to spend the Christmas Day with Mr. Donette's mother, Mrs. Mary Donette, in Cucamonga.

R. N. A. PARTY

Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, held their annual Christmas party in the Torrance Social hall, corner of Torrance boulevard and Portola avenue, Tuesday evening.

Games furnished entertainment after which there was the usual exchange of gifts and Christmas refreshments.

CLASS PARTY THIS EVENING

Members of the Philathea Class of the Methodist church school will hold their Christmas party this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morgan, 2119 Arlington avenue.

O. E. S. CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

Following the meeting of Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple, Thursday evening, children of Star members presented a program which included a piano solo by James Parks, song by Jean Hamilton, duet by Barbara Watson and Whitford Phillips; song, Myrna Lou Fossum, with piano accompaniment by Lloyd Fossum; selections on the steel guitar by Doraleen Scribner, tap dancing by Thelma Stegemeyer and Ruth Kerber, reading by Ruth Kerber, and a vocal duet by Yee Kasper and Mary Ann Taylor. Thirty children and 80 adults attended the affair. Following the entertainment all went to the banquet hall where refreshments of cookies and hot chocolate were served. A lighted Christmas tree was an added attraction as were the Christmas stockings which were presented to each of the 30 children.

TO SPEND HOLIDAY WITH DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bishop, of Sprulin Court, have as their guest for the holiday season, Mrs. Bishop's father, Mr. O. Wiley, of Wheatland, California.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

The birthday of Stanley Sach furnished the incentive for a party which was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Sach, 1016 Cota avenue. Games and dancing furnished diversion after which refreshments were served to Betty Neelands, Blossom Roque, Hazel Bruno, Peggy Davies, George Higgins, Ivan Eckersley, Wilton Henaley, Ralph Sach, Virgil Henaley, Stanley Gilbert, Marshall Tappin, all of Torrance; Peggy Day and Irving Crowther, of Long Beach; Kenneth Clark, of Altadena, Eula May Rose, of Upland; Jeanette Smith, of Lawndale, and Ruth Seaman, of Ventura.

QUESTS FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. J. Mills, 741 Sartori avenue, have as their house guests for the holiday season, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Preston, of Beverly Hills.

Texas Mohair Market Lively

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (U.P.)—The West Texas mohair market, stagnant for 14 months, opened up when 600,000 lbs. were sold in Uvalde recently. The lot was sold to Collins & Aikman of Bristol, R. I. It brought 20 cents a pound for mohair and 30 cents for kid hair.

From Hula to Fan

She went away a hula girl and came back a fan dancer. That's MESSIE ORNELL, who left her native Hawaii seven years ago to dance the hula for the rest of the world. She recently departed for Hawaii on the S. S. Mariposa and she will be the first fan dancer Hawaii has seen.

New Committee Assignments Are Made This Week

Quinn Named Chairman to Have Supervision of Eight Departments

Supervisor John R. Quinn of the Fourth district is given the chairmanship of a committee having eight of the fifty-odd county departments. In the new committee assignments made this week by Chairman Herbert C. Legg, of Downey, new supervisor from the First district.

Quinn's committee, of which Supervisors Legg and Gordon L. McDonough are the other two members, has supervision over the following offices: Efficiency bureau, mechanical department, patriotic hall, purchasing agent, recreation-parks and playgrounds, recorder, sealer of weights and measures and surveyor's department.

Quinn also is a member of Chairman Legg's committee of three, having supervision over the most important county departments. These are the agricultural commissioner, assessor, a auditor, supervisors, civil service, county counsel, county library, district attorney, janitor, labor co-ordinator, registrar of voters, tax collector-treasurer and the telephone department.

With Supervisor Roger Jessup as chairman, Quinn also is a member of the committee having supervision over the following: Farm advisor, forester, justice courts, livestock inspector, regional planning commission, road department and board of education.

The flood control department and the charities department both will be under all five board members who will sit as a committee of the whole this year, Chairman Legg announced this week.

Mass Meeting of Townsend Pension Clubs Next Thurs.

A mass meeting of all Townsend Pension clubs, organized in the southwest district (Inglewood, Lennox, Hawthorne, Lawndale, El Segundo, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Gardena, Torrance and any other Townsend clubs) will be held at the Leuzinger high school, Lawndale, Thursday, December 27, at 7:30 p. m. The speakers are Dr. Sanford MacDonald, chairman of the Townsend speakers' bureau; Dr. Chas. La Fontaine, district organizer, and others.

Entertainment will be furnished by Diamond D. Hillbiller who has made a reputation for themselves with the Townsend clubs, and their songs on the Townsend Old Age Pension. Each high school in this district has also been invited to add a number to the program of entertainment.

This meeting has been called by national headquarters and is held for the express purpose of bringing the high school students in touch with the Townsend movement.
