CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"The life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us." These words from The First Epistle General of John are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "I Ho" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ. Scientific branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Lesson-Sermon includes the words of Jesus, from Matthew, "Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, says: "We all must learn that Life is God. Ask yourself: Am I living the life that approaches the supreme good? Am I demonstrating the healing power of Truth and Love? If so, then the way will grow brighter unto the perfect day."

News From Washington By Your Congressman CHARLES J. GOLDEN

The first day of Congress opened with the usual routine. The members were sworn in, taking the oath of office in a group. This was followed by the election of the Speaker of the House, Joseph W. Byrns of Tennessee, and also the other officers of the House. This is always an interesting event and many noted visitors were in the galleries, including Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the Roosevelt family, and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

The appearance of President Roosevelt on Friday for the delivery of his message to Congress was more thrilling than the opening day. The President had a good voice, read his message deliberately and with much confidence. As he stood speaking to the members of the House of Representatives, the Senate and the members of the Cabinet, he didn't look like he had a real worry in the world. He appeared to be in fine physical condition—better than I have ever seen him. I also thought he walked better than usual. He leaned on the arm of his son, Jim.

The President's message did not arouse as much controversial comment as some of his others. His humanitarianism was broader and, of course, is generally acclaimed. But never will I forget the thrill I received when he delivered his inaugural address and took a sharp thrust at Wall Street bankers.

The President revised his program for relief and practically suspended the former plan of handing out money for doles. He made it very clear that from now on, the government would attempt to provide work for the unemployed but that there would be no "doles" or "handouts."

Dr. Townsend has opened headquarters in Washington and is carrying on a campaign for his Old Age Revolving Pension Plan. Some of us California Congressmen signed an invitation to other members to listen to his program. The attendance was disappointing but members of Congress are so besieged with hearings and there are so many demands upon their time, that I would say that the Dr. Townsend meeting had the usual Congressional attendance.

As to the fate of the Townsend Old Age Revolving Pension plan, the path looks stormy. There is much criticism in the Washington and other Eastern newspapers. The President's pension plan has not yet been submitted. Numerous other plans are being pressed. The big problem is where are we to get the money and how much?

The Utopian Society of America has opened headquarters in Washington and no doubt will present its views before various Congressional committees from time to time.

Before I left San Pedro, I slipped away over a week-end for a visit to Boulder Dam, going by the way of the power line being constructed by the City of Los Angeles and returning by the way of the Parker Dam and the aqueduct route of the Metropolitan Water District. On my way to Washington, I stopped at Muscle Shoals which is now in operation in selling power and light at a much less cost to the consumer than before. The Boulder Dam is much higher than the Muscle Shoals Dam but the latter is longer, being almost a mile in length. I was very much impressed by the striking contrast in the country surrounding these two projects. Boulder Dam is planted in the bosom of the mountains and the desert. Muscle Shoals Dam is located in a farming country. It is the first dam of several now being constructed or planned in the Tennessee valley. That section is very enthusiastic about these government projects. The tremendous reduction in the cost of light and power assures that country of a great industrial development.

Christian Choir Heard in Cantata On Sunday Evening

Sunday evening at the Christian church the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Hazel, will give the cantata, "The Holy Child," by Carrie B. Adams. Following is the program:

"Rejoice Greatly, O Daughter of Zion," Soloists, Mrs. Ludlow, Mrs. Rowell, Mr. Selby. "There's a Song in the Air," Women's Chorus. "Watchmen Tell Us of the Night," Girls trio, Dorothy Elder, Margaret Kibbe, Ruth Granger; soloists, Mrs. Edna Babcock, Mrs. Allen, Mr. Allen, Mr. Hazel. "In the Field With Their Flocks," Scott R. Ludlow. "The Savior Comes," choir quartet, Mrs. Mabel Babcock, Mrs. Edna Babcock, Mr. Herbert Allen, Mr. Earl Babcock; soloists, Miss Betty Ross Harris, Mr. Selby. "Calm On the Ear of Night," choir. "Glad Tidings of Great Joy," choir; soloist, Leonard Babcock. "Solo—Sleep My Little Jesus," Mrs. Alice Hazel. "Trio—All My Heart This Night," Mrs. Betty Wendell, Mrs. Edna Babcock, Mr. Leonard Babcock. "O Night Divine," men's chorus. "Messiah Is King," choir quartet, Mrs. Ludlow, Mrs. Rowell, Mr. Allen, Mr. Schaefer. "The Song of Jubilee," choir; soloists, Mr. Selby, Mr. Ludlow.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL Marcella and Arlington avenues. O. D. Wonder, minister. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. W. E. Bowen, superintendent. Morning worship service, 11:00 o'clock. Sermon by the pastor. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Evening worship service at 7:30 o'clock. A brief message by the pastor. The Ladies Guild will serve dinner in the Guild hall, Tuesday evening. Serving will begin at 5:30 o'clock. All are invited.

Mayor La Guardia, of New York City, was one of the visitors who attended the opening of Congress. He was as jovial and as active as usual. His transfer from the arena of the House, where he was one of its leading battlers, to the Mayor's chair, appears to have made little change in him.

It is exceedingly embarrassing to new members who invite friends from over the country to come to Washington to witness their taking the oath of office, only to find that only one guest ticket is available and the wife usually claims that.
