June 21 and 22

Tomorrow and Saturday the Quality Market opens its big new Downtown Super Market, and it is our earnest desire that you accept this cordial invitation to come and help us celebrate this gala occasion, which is the culmination of many months of thoughtful planning and tireless effort.

The same loyal group of local food merchants who have served you for so many years at the other market on Torrance boulevard will also be in charge at the Downtown Market, with the noteworthy addition of the celebrated Van de Kamp Bakeries.

We wish to take this opportunity to pledge anew our determination to provide you with strictly First Quality Food Products at Low Prices and to serve you courteously at all times. May we also thank you most sincerely for your past patronage and we trust that the added facilities provided in the more centrally located Downtown Market will prove not only a convenience to some of our present customers but also an incentive to many new customers, who perhaps have not yet learned the pleasure and advantages of doing their marketing at the "Quality."
