

Couple Exonerated Of Child Stealing

Two child-theft defendants were commended for their interest in the 18 months old baby, whom they were accused of stealing, and were exonerated of the charges in an unusual case tried in Inglewood township justice court, Monday morning, July 8, by Judge Frank Carroll, says the Gardena Valley News.

mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Langton, with child-stealing. Evidence introduced in the Gardena branch of the township court indicated that 15 months ago, the mother, Mrs. W. R. Pokorning, of Waveria, had given her baby, then three months old, to the Wilsons because she was unable to care for it. After the mother reclaimed the child on June 19th, the Wilsons returned, it was stated at the hearing, and took the child from Mrs. Pokorning. Little Virginia, unaware that she was the center of so much strife, was not in court. She is being cared for by her mother until a decision of her custody is reached.

APPEALS CASE V. J. Cox, who was tried in the Inglewood justice court, before Judge Frank Carroll, of Gardena, last Thursday, on a charge of petty theft gave oral notice of appeal when he was given a fine of $200 or 100 days in the county jail. His bond was allowed to stand until his appeal is perfected.

So easy to save at Safeway, mother can let Junior do her shopping By JIM EDWARDS, Safeway Grocer WE Safeway grocers welcome the opportunity to help youthful shoppers do mother's marketing. Taking care of the requirements of junior shoppers is a special accomplishment of ours. Let your child bring a list of your needs to one of our neighborhood stores the next time you find yourself pressed for time. Let us show you how expertly we can select the items you want. You'll find that with your child's help the shopping will be surprisingly well done. And, because coins have the habit of slipping out of small hands or bouncing from pockets, change envelopes are provided for young buyers at Safeway. Not only will you save yourself time in this way, but you will receive the added advantage of Safeway's low prices. Then too, your child will obtain training in shopping and business contacts that are possible in no other way. In union there is service! Because we Safeway grocers have a WHOLE FAMILY OF FOOD EXPERTS buying, testing and transporting foods to our stores we have more time for special services like this. We who serve you in the store have no worry about obtaining the best of foods at the lowest prices . . . that is done for us by these experts. Our whole concern is to serve you best in offering you food values. MAKE THIS TEST For a single month do all of your food buying at Safeway.
