Birds Win 1-0

Milford Lays Down a Bunt With Bases Loaded In Tenth to Score Winning Run

Ten innings of the kind of baseball that made the Bluebirds champions of the state three years ago, was dished out here last Friday night, when the fighting Birds defeated Hollywood, 1-0. Both teams played errorless ball, but with big Joe Kasser on the mound the home boys had the edge.

Three times they filled the bases, but not until the tenth were the Birds able to cross the plate. In that frame, after a consultation in

Two Good Games Are Coming Up

Next Sunday afternoon, Manager Jack Saunders will have a good game lined up for the fans, with the Whippoorwill outfit, furnishing the opposition. Saunders notified the head man of the association that he wanted no more set-ups, so the chances are that the game next week will be a little more exciting than last Sunday.

On the following Sunday the Los Angeles Colored Giants will be here. No need to tell the public what kind of a game this will be as the Giants are too well known to need advertising. The home boys will do well to hold their own with these veterans.

However, Saunders has a new third baseman coming who has a good recommendation, and also a new catcher, formerly of the Los Angeles Angels and later with the Dallas, Texas, club. Saunders is still not satisfied completely with his line-up and plans to build up still stronger, until he can match base hits with anybody's club. The fans are showing their appreciation by good attendance and liberal feeding of the kitty on Sunday afternoon.

Welcome Home to the Navy At Westside Auditorium Friday

With a Welcome Home Navy Night slated for Friday night, the Westside Auditorium, 645 West Anaheim street, Long Beach, California, presents a card that with the exception of two outstanding civilian fighters, namely, Indian Ralph Holquin and Bud Holzhauser, is a complete all-navy card.

Ralph Holquin locks horns in a return bout with the underdog All-Navy heavy-weight champion Sailor Wild Bill Boyd of the U. S. S. Idaho. These boys met in the most stirring main event in the history of local fistiana last Friday and while Boyd won a well-merited decision the fighter Holquin had him in trouble on two different occasions and in the third round Wild Bill was really tottering on his heels. Holquin took the bout on short notice, substituting for Harry Swanson, and insists that with a few days more training which will give him time to shorten up his punches, he will take the swarthy sailor into camp.

Bud Holzhauser, Long Beach popular light heavy, who has been nursing a sore thumb during the last month, hopes to be able to fight this Friday. He has been having treatments by a Los Angeles bone-setter and expects to be O. K. by Friday. Bud is billed to meet the light-heavy-weight of the U. S. S. Oklahoma, Sailor McCormick, one of the best glove-throwers in Uncle Sam's navy. This fight alone is enough to pack the arena.

In the special event, a new heavy-weight will make his debut at the Westside in the person of Sailor Gallagher of the U. S. S. Oklahoma. Gallagher's fighting weight is 190 pounds. As soon as he has a few more fights under his belt he will be stacked up against Sailor Boyd. This Friday Gallagher will undertake the job of flattening Sailor Garrett of the U. S. S. New Mexico. It is expected that Gallagher will have his hands full disposing of the big husky Garrett.

Sailor Hippis, U. S. S. Pensacola, who has beat some of the light heavy-weights and heavy-weights in local light circles, meets Sailor Hansen, U. S. S. Oklahoma. Sailor Clyde Newton, U. S. S. Idaho, who is leading the All-Navy popularity contest, may find his hands full with the U. S. S. Oklahoma's little thunderbolt, Sailor Dunbar. Sailor Mowry, U. S. S. Vestal's All-Navy welterweight champion meets the U. S. S. Saratoga's Sailor O'Brianovich, one of the best crowd pleasers in the Navy. This fight may "steal" the show. Two glove-throwing middleweights, Harry Jones of the Merchant Marine, ex-fighter with Sailor Cunningham, and U. S. S. Oklahoma, in the curtain-raiser beginning at 8:30.

There will be a slight increase in prices for this spectacular card. General admission price will be 50 cents; reserved seats 75 cents; and ringside $1.00 tax paid.

Sportsmen Outclassed

City of Torrance Slaughters Los Angeles Team Sunday, 13-3

The Sportsmen's Athletic Club, advance noticed as a fast, hard-hitting aggregation from Los Angeles, turned out to be a soft touch for the City of Torrance Sunday afternoon. They lost 13 to 3, in a game that was too one-sided to be exciting, although the home boys did their best to give the cash customers a show.

With Lefty Hart on the mound in the first three innings, the Sportsmen got exactly nowhere. Hart struck out two of the first three batters, and walked one who was caught trying to steal second, the only pass issued by Torrance during the game. He allowed no hits and no runs.

Saunders' men batted almost completely around three times during their halves of the first three frames and piled up a lead of 9-0.

In order to stop the slaughter and make the game a little more even, Saunders called Hart to the bench at the end of the third and went in Lightfoot, former pitcher for the Los Angeles Angels. Lightfoot was hit for five and yielded three runs in his first inning, but after that the Sportsmen were mowed down regularly, only one hit being registered and no more runs.

The Torrance boys staged some lively fielding, and slaughtered the Sportsmen pitchers with stinging base hits. Moos was relieved in the fifth, when the score stood 11-3 and he had been nicked for 12 hits. Tony, first baseman, struck out three in a row in the sixth and gave up only one hit and two runs for his part of the entertainment.

MOTORISTS WILL PAY DOUBLE TAX

SACRAMENTO. (U.P.)—Motorists must pay a double value tax on their automobiles for the first six months of 1936 as a result of legislative action levying a new state tax in lieu of county and city personal property taxes on vehicles.

The state tax becomes effective with sale of 1936 license plates, but it will be necessary for motorists to present certificates showing their city and county taxes for the 1935-36 fiscal year have been paid. The personal property tax already has been levied, so motorists, in addition to paying it until June 30, 1936, will be required to pay a state tax for the calendar year 1936.

Cars will be taxed at the rate of $1.75 per $100 market valuation. The tax will be collected when license plates are issued, and will be in addition to the $3 paid for the plates.

The local school, Johnny is in great shape, weighing around 170 pounds. Coach Bernie Donahue and his Torrance Fighting Tartars will start their training grind next Tuesday for the coming season. Their first league game is October 1. Torrance has a fine chance to repeat their 1934 act, by winning another championship this year.
