Sleepy Hollow Boys

Take First Money In Giant Sweepstake At Monticello Bowling Alleys

The Sleepy Hollow boys, representing Lynwood, ran up a total of 3032 to capture first money in the Giant Sweepstake last Saturday night as the feature of the new Monticello Bowling Academy opening. The Vanite Beauty Shop of Los Angeles totaled 2891 to place second and the Torrance Electric Shop grabbed third place with 2875. A total of 23 teams competed.

The new mineralite ball was awarded to Ira Simpson of Walnut Park American Legion.

The opening was a huge success from all angles, with one of the largest crowds of the bowling season. Al Setzer, genial Los Angeles alley owner, was master of ceremonies and introduced the owners and celebrities.

Managers Bailey & Bolander are grateful for such a wonderful turnout and also for the numerous flowers that were sent in for the occasion by admiring friends.

The following are the teams and their scores:

Double Header Won By Lomita

Walt Morris's Lomita Merchants had a field day Sunday when they cleaned up the Santa Monica Artisans 17-16 in the second game of a double header. The Lomita boys came from the rear in the ninth to score four runs which put them in front. Cecil was driven off the rubber in the fifth and gave way to Lefty Grant. The Artisans also used two pitchers. In the opener the Merchants out-grewed the Pedigreed Dogs 10-4.

Harbor City defeated Anaheim 11-4 in an Inter-City league game played on the Harbor City field.

"Wild Bill" Boyd Featured In Double Main Event At Westside

The Westside Auditorium, 645 West Anaheim street, Long Beach, offers to the fight fans of this vicinity a big double main event. In the first part of this event, "Man-Killer" Sailor Wild Bill Boyd of the U. S. S. Idaho, will meet the winner of last Friday's main event, Eddie Shea, the big boy who put Sailor Pat Donahue of the U.S.S. New York on the canvas for the count of nine and beat him in one of those torrid fistie battles so dear to the hearts of the fight fans. In meeting Boyd, Shea will be put to the acid test, and if he beats Boyd he will be listed as number one heavyweight in these parts.

In the second half of the double main event, the popular local light heavyweight, Bud Holzhauser will return to the Westside ring after a five weeks' layoff, meeting Fittin' Bob Eagan. This bout should be a great event. Both Holzhauser and Eagan have won a decision over Buddy Beck, Indiana light heavyweight champion. Holzhauser could get no better than a questionable decision over Beck in Huntington Park three months ago, and Eagan won a decidedly close decision over Beck in the Westside arena about five weeks ago. If these statistics mean anything at all, then this battle between Holzhauser and Eagan should be a 'whale' of a good one.

In the special event, "Red" Morris, Redondo Beach ace junior welterweight, who literally "stole" last Friday's show, will open his feud with the veteran local fighter, Nat Mills. Morris beat Mills last Friday after four hectic rounds of fighting and fans have demanded that these boys be re-matched. "Red" fought two fights last Friday, knocking out Earl Callahan in the curtain-raiser and then coming back to beat Mills in the spot on the preliminaries. Heading the preliminaries, a bout that will be of main event proportions brings together Jack Walbridge, popular Compton boy and Eddie Grogan of Huntington Park. This fight will undoubtedly steal a great deal of the glamor from the big double main event. The rest of the card will be made up of events that will be of main event calibre. The Westside side puts on its preliminaries bouts that many other amateur fight clubs schedule as main events. A glance at the papers will bear out this fact.

MY OPERATION; SOME FUN

Well here I am after a nice vacation in the Torrance Hospital, and believe me if you are planning to take a vacation the local hospital is the place. The nurses are the finest in the west, in fact they were so nice to yours truly, that he would still be in the hospital, but became ashamed of himself and decided to go home. Well, anyway I will have my operation to talk about these long winter nights this year.

HUBERT LUCK, FIRST INJURY

Hubert (Harv) Luck, star trackman, who suffered an injury of the left ankle last track season, was the first injured of the 1935 football season at the local school; Hubert received a bad sprain on his right foot during the first scrimmage of the year last Friday afternoon, and will be on crutches for a few days. With the failure of Chuck Smith to return to Torrance high school this year, who was to be the fullback for Bernie Donahue, Hubert was switched from end to that position and was making good, until his leg gave way. This great athlete wonders if hard luck will chase him forever.

SHORT AND SNAPPY—FOOTBALL

Well, the annual American pastime of busted heads, torn muscles and broken bones is with us... During the 1934 season there were thirty-six men killed in the great game, as follows: college 1, high school 16, sand-lot 6 and clubs 3.

Inky Wolkyns, former U.S.C. backfield star will play professional football back east this year... Stan Williamson, also another great player for the Trojans has accepted an assistant coaching job at Kansas State university. Stan has been coaching at Oklahoma City university the past season... Torrance plays its first practice game this Friday, against Banning high of Wilmington, the game will be in Torrance... John Miehuet, Notre Dame tackle, 22-years old, 190 pounds and 6 foot tall is the former Detroit golden glove boxing champion... Two brothers, Bob and Bert Collier are co-captains this year for Lawrence college, Appleton, Wisconsin... Two Southern California boys, who will be stars for Chicago university this year, are Ned Bartlett, halfback, 6 foot 17 1/2 pounds, of Glendale and Merritt Bush, tackle, 6 foot 5 inches, 210 pounds, of Fullerton. Wonder why U. S. C. list these men as east? Ted (Star) Adzovich, 1934 Torrance fullback is playing on the New Mexico State Teachers varsity team in Silver City, Mexico. Ted will be a great college player... Hal Smith, quarterback and Billy Aeree, halfback, both former Torrance stars are out for the Loyola freshman squad.

AT RANDOM, HERE AND THERE

October 12, the Trojans of Los Angeles will entertain Coach Bob Zuppke and his Illinois team. If you happen to witness this game, watch for the famous Illinois "Flying Trapeze" play. Anthony Zamperini, father of the famous brothers, Louis and Pete is considered one of the best players in the Harbor District in Je Boelle, to you Le Boelle is the Italian name for lawn bowling... Washington State will have two of the best backfield men on the coast this year. A Ted Christoffersen, halfback of Honolulu, 200 pounds, 6 feet 3 inches, and Ed Goddard, quarterback, 180 pounds, 5 feet 9 inches, formerly of Escondido, Calif. Watch these two boys this year.

Jones plans to continue the twice-a-day workouts for the rest of the week as classes do not open at the university until next Monday. Because of the two full weeks of practice before the opening game, the Headman believes he can go slowly about the matter of giving his boys plays so that most of the time can be spent correcting the poor fundamental play that stunk the Trojans last year.

Sheiks Are One Up

First Game of Play-off Series Featured By Home Run Slugging; Kasser Hurt

Hollywood took the first game of the three-game play-off series Tuesday night before one of the largest crowds these teams have played to this season. The score 15-14 in favor of the Sheiks made off a total of 24 hits is a good indication of the slashing attack on both sides in which homers were more numerous than in any fray so far seen here.

The Bluebirds started off with their customary dash and piled up four runs in the second inning but the pins were promptly cut from under them when the Sheiks came back with five in the third when Forney was bombarded with two homers and two doubles. Big Joe Kasser, who had been slated to pitch failed to show up, and Forney was put in to do or die as a last resort. Hal is a pretty fair pitcher, but under the hammering of the Sheiks was nosed out of a decision by an eyelash.

The Birds forged ahead again in the sixth inning with another four-run rally but were smothered in the seventh when Vieth walked and Worley drove him in with a homer. Johnson followed it up with another circuit blow and Saunders singled. Duda also met one but was out at second when Leyoy made first on an error. Swanson grounded out and Thrasher came through with his second homer scoring Saunders and Leyoy ahead of him. Rime flied out to center, ending the inning with six runs over the pan.

The Sheiks added two more in the ninth, and the Birds staged a game rally that netted four runs, just two short of a victory. According to Murphy, either Earl Morrill or Pete Hargis will be on the mound tomorrow night, as Kasser will be laid up for a month on account of a broken leg. Kasser played Monday night with the Union Oil outfit, and snapped a bone in sliding to second. This is a severe blow to the Bluebirds, who have been depending on the big chucker as their ace in the hole, but they will have to get along without him for the rest of the season.

The second game for the champions of the Federal League will be played here tomorrow night, and the third game next Tuesday night should the Birds win.

Colored Giants At Lomita Sunday

Walt Morris's Lomita Merchants are going to take a fling at the L. A. Colored Giants next Sunday, hoping to better the performance of the Torrance team which held the colored stars to a 4-3 score in ten innings last Sunday. The Merchants have been winning consistently all season and have a crew of veterans that can dish it out. On the following Sunday the Glocos team will invade Lomita and on October 6 the Pedigreed Dog Food outfit has insisted on a return match after their defeat of last Sunday.

On September 28, the Merchants and the Harbor City team will stage a benefit dance at Cabrillo Beach, to which all their friends are invited.

The game between the San Pedro Merchants and the City of Torrance has been definitely booked for next Sunday, which will give the local fans one of the best games of the season. Gay Patalone will be on the rubber for the Merchants and Saunders will probably start his crack southpaw, Lefty Hart, who held the Colored Giants to five hits in the nine innings he pitched last Sunday.

Joe Storti, Merchant field manager will be held in reserve for the pitching duty, should the Torrance boys get too rough with Patalone. Lian Storti, now with one of the eastern league teams, will play if he gets home in time.

Ten Inning Thriller

Torrance Outfit Loses Tight Game to Famous Colored Team Here Sunday

After winning four consecutive games, the City of Torrance lost last Sunday, 4-3, but it took the Los Angeles Colored Giants ten innings to do the trick. The feature of the game was Hart's marvellous pitching. He allowed the Giants only five hits in nine frames.

The strong support of the infield was another great treat to the fans, with two fast double plays, Gordon to Lopez to Atwood bringing the crowd of 800 people to their feet. Both of these plays were made in the first four innings and in the seventh another sparkling double, Gordon to Atwood to Toomey set the crowd roaring.

The players greatly missed Gerrie behind the bat, but he will be back in the line-up next Sunday. Gerrie was at home with an attack of flu, but expects to be in good shape to help the boys down the fast hard-hitting San Pedro Merchants who will furnish the opposition next Sunday. Joe Storti's aggregation has won 13 out of the last 20 games, including two victories over the L. A. Colored Giants, which makes them tough meat for anybody's club.

Manager Saunders took Hart out of the box at the start of the tenth, and sent in Johnny Yelovich, Lomita boy who has been playing this season with the Toronto, Canada club. Johnny made his first appearance here and the crowd gave him a great ovation, remembering the fine work he used to do for the Lomita Merchants a couple of years ago before he went to the pro leagues.

Three Lettermen Out

Coach Donahue Sets to Work to Build Up Another Champ Team for 1935

Three veterans and 57 novices turned out for football at Wood Field last week with the opening of the 1935 season, all who could be supplied with suits. A number of other candidates were turned away, as the supply of suits ran out. The vets, lettermen of last year, are Harry Rich-hart, Johnny McFadden and Jack Javens. Chuck Smith, who planned to go to El Centro this fall, may change his mind and remain in Torrance, in which case he will probably be seen in a football outfit very soon.

Of the new men, there are a half a dozen out for each position. Coach Bernie Donahue will not be troubled with any lack of material, but his job this year will be to pick out the most promising candidates.

Bob Trezize will probably be the first string quarterback although Louis Madore, Peckham and Basile are seeking the honor. Jimmy Allen, Turner and John Disario are working out for left half, and Pappoff and Colonel Javens are trying for the right side of the back field. Etling and Tanouge are opposing Hubert Luck for fullback, but if Chuck Smith returns to the line-up, Luck will be shifted to an end position opposite McFadden, which will give Donahue a pair of fleet end men, second to none in the district.

Other candidates for ends are Kent, Gilbert, McHenry and Ruzich. Six boys are out for the guard position, Max Smith, Jensen, Ralston, Rossett, Davis and Treolar and the same number are trying for the tackle job. They are Thompson, Harris, Winkler, Mason, Powell, and Haynes. Donahue will have enough men to make up four full teams and some left over, so that a schedule which leads up, gradually to their toughest opponents, and by the time the big game with Narbonne comes along they will be ready for the Gauchos.

The Narbonne squad is in much the same situation as the Trojans, with most of their last year's team lost by graduation. Coach Ben Comrada will have to build up from the foundations.

Colt Men Are Gaining Ground

The Colt users of the Torrance police department are cropping up on the Smith & Wesson artists, and lost out in the second match of the series held last Saturday by only 28 points. The third match will be held next Saturday. Results of last Saturday's shoot-out, Smith & Wesson 1199, Colts 1171.
