Narbonne High Juniors Select Tarkington Play

"Clarence" Will Be Given At Lomita School In January

Booth Tarkington's three-act comedy, "Clarence," has been chosen by Mrs. Hardie, dramatics teacher, as the play to be given by Narbonne's junior class, January 17, 1936.

As yet the cast has not been definitely decided upon, but will be in the near future. Those trying out for parts are as follows:

Mr. Wheeler, a business man, Warren Haslam and Arnold Hansen; Mrs. Wheeler, second wife of Mr. Wheeler and quite young, Evelyn Krogsrud and Dorothy Green; Cora Wheeler, 16-year-old daughter, Florence Martinson, Ernestine Beck and Nellie Billaud.

Bobby Wheeler, the 17-year-old son of Mr. Wheeler, Billy McGraw and Tommy Woods; Violet Pinney, Cora's governess, Kathryn Osburn, Joan Paterson, Dorothy Key and Pollyanna Holiar; Clarence, a returned soldier, Delbert Clayton, Lloyd Powell, Arnold Hansen and Preston Haag; the butler, Jack Lovell; the maid, Grace White.

The part of Clarence, the boy's lead, was made famous by Edward Everett Horton in Los Angeles. Typical American family life is the background of the play, with the quarrelling brother and sister adding much to the humor. Then there is the much-to-be-pitied father who portrays a business man with more domestic than business worries.

Narbonne students were given an opportunity to pick their favorite type of play and the actors in the dramatics class that they liked best, November 13 at a unique assembly.

A complete play and three skits were given, with the play, "The First Dress Suit," receiving the largest number of votes and the skit, "White Elephants," placing second.

Tommy Woods was voted the best actor with Florence Martinson, Jack Lovell, Kathryn Osburn and Mary Jo Aikman following. These students will all be cast in the junior play.

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP No. 3
 Addison Smith, Reporter

Some rather bad news was received from Mr. Jones, the scoutmaster. He informed the troop that because he has moved to Terminal Island he will have to give up the troop, but that he will be with us from time to time.

Mr. Roy Brunzell, who has been assistant scoutmaster for some time, will take over the troop until Mr. Jones can be with us again.

Inspection was won by O. B. Huber of the Stag patrol. A few games were played and the meeting was closed with the Great Scoutmaster's prayer.
